

GLEEMEN TO SING IN KLAMATH FALLS ON FEBRUARY 20

The Medford Gleemen will make their first out-of-town appearance in a concert in the Pine Tree theater at Klamath Falls Tuesday evening, February 20 for the benefit of the Pelicans, one of the unique and outstanding charitable organizations in Oregon.

The Pelicans have been organized for two years. They comprise 14 leading business and professional men of Klamath Falls, who give their time unselfishly for the charitable purpose of helping under-privileged children of their community. The organization exists solely for the sake of children who have little chance to be healthy or happy unless stronger hands look out for them and protect them. The Pelicans have no overhead expense whatever and they never undertake any entertainment unless it is understood that there will be no outlay, in other words that every cent earned goes to the work of poor, neglected children. During 1933, the Pelicans raised no less than $6000 from their efforts, expending every cent to relieve the distress of youngsters.

Here are the names of the 14 Pelicans and every child that is helped in Klamath Falls rises up and calls them blessed among all men: Elmer Balsinger, president; Edward Vannice, John Houston, Dewey Powell, T. R. Gillingwater, Paul Jackson, George Kincaid, Frank Powers, Earl Whitlock, Dr. Cooper, Charles LaPointe, Lee Jacobs, Charles Williams, E. D. Lamb. Every Tuesday evening the Pelicans give a radio program from the Klamath radio station and it is the intention to put the program of the Medford Gleemen on the air by remote control from the Pine Tree theater stage. In that way Medford citizens can hear their Gleemen on the air that night.

In addition to the support of the Pelicans for the Medford Gleemen concert, the Klamath Kiwanis club, at their meeting yesterday, enthusiastically backed the event as well as the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce, and Frank Jenkins, editor of the Herald and News. The women of Klamath Falls are going to get back of the concert and "a full house" is promised the Medford organization, under the direction of James Stevens on this, its first tour.

This is the first important out-of-town engagement the Gleemen have had to fill and at a community dinner yesterday noon in Klamath Falls, where the leading business men were present, all kinds of verbal flowers were thrown at the Medford business men who are extending such a happy good-will gesture to Klamath Falls and its splendid charity for children. It is planned for the Gleemen to leave Medford at 3:30 p. m., reach Klamath Falls at 6, and leave there after social festivities following the concert, to be arranged by Klamath Falls citizens.

Position in Washington—Miss Evaline Knudson of Phoenix, formerly with the Crater Lake national park service, has received appointment as secretary with the federal trade commission, and is leaving next week for Washington, D. C., to take up her duties.

BURSELL ENTERS SENATE RACE ON REPUBLICAN SIDE

Victor Bursell of the Central Point district today announced that he would seek the Republican nomination for state senator at the May primaries. The position is now held by Senator George Dunn of Ashland, who said yesterday he would make a decision within a few days whether or not he would seek re-election. Senator Dunn has served eight years, and friends have urged he run.

Bursell is well known throughout the county, where he has resided for many years. He owns a ranch on the Central Point-Jacksonville road. He is active in Grange affairs. He served as county commissioner for twelve years. He retired a year ago, one of the storm centers in the local turmoil, that centered around the appointment of Emmett Nealon to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the late John Barneburg as county commissioner.

Blanks necessary for Bursell to fill out before formally filing, are now enroute from Salem, having been delayed by death of Secretary of State Hoos.

In the 1932 primaries, Bursell ran for the lower house on the Republican ticket, and was defeated by George Porter, by six votes. Bursell was a director in the State Bank of Central Point until three years ago, when he resigned after serving 20 years. He has also been identified with the Rogue irrigation district, which serves the Central Point area. He is a practical and successful farmer and stockman.

Twelve years as a county commis-

NAGURSKI RETURNS TO WRESTLING GAME

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 9. — (AP) — Bronko Nagurski, fullback of the Chicago Bears professional football team of the National league and former All-American, while at the University of Minnesota, returned to the wrestling game last night after a four-month absence to pin Floyd Marshall, 224, of Phoenix, Ariz., in 20 minutes and 17 seconds of a one-fall match. Nagurski, who weighed 218 pounds, returned to Minneapolis this morning, after having engaged in a football game on the Pacific coast last Sunday.

"ASYOULIKIT"

When you toast Fluher's New Spun Bread it's just "asyoulikit." Nice and crisp, not too fluffy and boy what a flavor. Hob Deuel can tell you all about it.

"I Loved a Woman" Opens At Studio

Replicas of the picturesque, though tumbledown homes of Chicago's packingtown in the nineties were constructed for the First National picture, "I Loved a Woman" which comes to the Studio theater today, starring Edward G. Robinson with Kay Francis.

One house in which some of the important sequences is enacted, is a one-story board shack, occupied by a man and his wife, her mother and four small children, two of them sick. The interior shows one small room in which all seven sleep and eat, when they have food. The walls are bare of any plastering and the winds of winter and the hot blasts of summer sweep in.

It is these conditions that Edward G. Robinson, as a wealthy young packer with high ideals, sets out to remedy, although later in life he becomes the most ruthless of all the packers.
