

LINCOLN BANQUET PLAN COMPLETED AT NOON MEETING

The twentieth annual Lincoln day banquet to be held next Monday evening at 6:30, at the Hotel Medford, not only offers a splendid short program and a fine turkey dinner, but it is usually the "coming out" time for Republican candidates at the primaries. There are a number of officers to fill this year, many candidates have been mentioned but so far only a few have announced.

Arrangements were completed for the event at a meeting of the different committees this noon and the program will be as follows:
Invocation—W. R. Baird.
Singing, "Star Spangled Banner."
Report of nominating committee—Olen Arnsperger.
Introduction of new officers.
"Some Phases of Lincoln's Life"—Olive Deputy, Ashland.

Vocal solos, selected—George Peckham, accompanist, Dorothy Burgess, Lincoln's Gettysburg address—Dolph James.

Address on behalf of Junior Republican League—Wm. M. McAllister.
Reading letters and telegrams.
Address, "Abraham Lincoln"—R. C. Groesbeck, Klamath Falls.

Introduction of guests.
Report of resolutions committee.

Closed by singing "America."
Tickets can be secured from G. O. Taylor, Harry Skyrman, Fred Colvig, Colonel Paine, Jack Porter, J. F. Fiegl, Fred Homes, H. G. Wilson, Chas. Wing, Frank Perl, Walter Looker, Paul Rynning, Earl Foy, Carl Tengwald, Medford; Frank VanDyke, Wm. McCracken, Thomas Simpson, Ashland; Ray Coleman, Jacksonville; John Holmer, Prospect; Faber's store, Central Point; Wm. T. Grievie, Prospect; George Edwin Dunn of Ashland; Royal Brown, Eagle Point; Sam Sandry, Rogue River; Thomas L. Farlow and Charles Terrill, Lake Creek; Delbert Goddard, Talent.

All who can are urged to secure tickets prior to Monday evening, but those who do not can secure them at the hotel Monday evening. People from all over the county, and especially the ladies, are cordially invited.
