

TIGER CAGERS TO PLAY CAVEMEN IN G. PASS TONIGHT

(By Harold Grove)

Revenge is the reception cunningly planned by Coach Ginn of Grants Pass and his boys when Coach D. K. Burger and his Tiger cagers from this city attempt to win the second conference game between the two schools tonight at the Grants Pass school gym.

Medford high defeated the Cavemen in the first game, 34 to 17. However, in comparison, Ashland high defeated Grants Pass something like 29 to 15 on the Ashland high school court. In Grants Pass, Ashland managed to win again late, but this time only 19 to 18, proving that the Cavemen have improved and that they put on a more consistent form of basketball when playing before home town fans. Ashland, after defeating the best teams in the outlying communities, is considered a threat to any team which meets up with it and therefore receives recognition as a team on which to base comparison in the race for District 5 championship, including Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass, the winner going to the state tournament.

The boys that will make the trip are: Wayne Harris, Max Gillisky, Tom White, Hoke Curtis, Don Stewart, Russell Brown, Bob Hinman, Ray Ettinger and Bob Smith.

ASHLAND JUNIORS PLAY ST. MARY'S QUINTET TONIGHT

Due to the passing this morning of Roy R. Shreve, whose daughters take a prominent part in affairs at the junior high school, the Medford junior high school basketball team will not play the Ashland juniors this evening. It was announced this afternoon by Coach Ray Henderson of the local school.

Ashland junior high school will play the team from St. Mary's academy this evening at the junior high school at 8 o'clock, with the grade school team of the Academy playing the Medford junior high midgets in the preliminary at 7.

Arrangements are to be made by the local school with Ashland to play at a later date, Mr. Henderson announced.

Paul Muni Coming In Lead of Holly Newspaper Picture

"A newspaper story that's different."

That is the report preceding the Warner Bros. production, "Hi, Nellie!" starring Paul Muni, which comes to the Holly theater tomorrow.

One of the "different" features of "Hi, Nellie!" is its star. No previous film with a city room background has featured a player of the theatrical importance, both on stage and screen, of Muni.

For Muni himself, "Hi, Nellie!" is a departure, too. Following the powerfully dramatic, but sombre characterization he has contributed to the screen in "I Am a Fugitive," "Scarface" and "The World Changes," his role in this fast-moving, lightly handled and breezy story is said to represent an amazing contrast. Glenda Farrell plays the feminine lead.

Other well-known players in the cast are New Sparks, playing a "deadpan" reporter; Donald Meek, as a 50-year-old office boy; Edward Ellis, Kathryn Sergava, Bertin Churchill, Dorothy LeBarre, Douglas Dumbrille, Robert Barrat, Hobart Cavanaugh and George Meeker.

"Hi, Nellie!" was adapted from the widely read short story of the same name which Roy Chanslor contributed to "Liberty" not many weeks ago.

FOOTBALL RULES BEFORE JURY OF EXPERTS TONIGHT

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Suggestions for alteration and clarification of intercollegiate football rules go before a jury of experts tonight who must decide whether the game is sound or whether changes are practical.

The conferences will likely continue into Sunday, and Chairman Walter Okeson of Lehigh said no announcement would be made public until after the final adjournment.

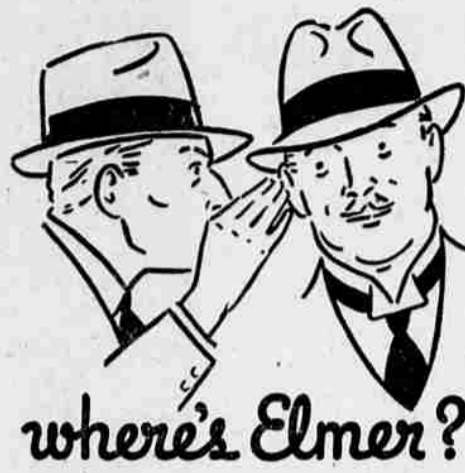

Chief among the suggestions to be received are those to increase the sideline zone from 10 to 15 yards, to eliminate the touchback penalty on passes grounded in the end zone and to allow neither side to run with a recovered blocked kick.

Other suggestions include the permission of forward passes anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, bringing the goal posts back to the goal line, abolishing or modifying the "dead ball" rule.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Thomas L. Taylor, a far-sighted Portland youth, has entered politics. Taylor, 22, has announced his candidacy for the governorship in the 1940 Democratic primaries.

That's what everyone wants to know. Reliable last reports were that Elmer couldn't stand it any longer. Just broke down and left. Poor Elmer. His ever-loving wife fell for the "bargain counter" coffee story. So Elmer suffered what he called ground up hickory in his coffee-cup as long as he could. Now Mrs. Elmer has seen a new vision. Her grocer told her: "Coffee economy depends on strength and flavor. Hills Bros. Coffee has abundant rich flavor. That's why it tastes better. That's why it goes farther. Don't forget you buy coffee by the pound but you drink it by the cup." Mrs. Elmer is now using Hills Bros. Coffee. They say Elmer's liable to show up 'most any time now.

WEBFOOTS MEET IDAHO CAGEMEN

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 9.—(AP)—The University of Oregon basketball team commences the second half of its schedule here tonight and tomorrow night against the fast-improving University of Idaho team.

Cheered by reserve strength unearthed in the Washington game, the Webfoots will make a bid to leave the Idaho cellar. A win tonight would put them in fourth place and a repeat tomorrow night would raise them a notch higher.

Sophomores Olen Sanford and Gemmill sparked in the rally Oregon's reserve lineup staged against University of Washington in the last game here. While Oregon lost all four games to the Huskies, an even break has been gained in games with other teams.

SONS WIN, 45-36, FROM DAVID FIVE

ASHLAND, Feb. 7.—(Spl.)—The Southern Oregon Normal quintet won again from the traveling House of David five in a fast, rough and tumble game here Thursday night by a score of 45 to 36.

Fouls came fast from the visitors, making the game seem to consist mostly of the converting of foul shots by the Sons, but despite this disadvantage, the score, when stripped of the points made by free throws on both sides, was 30 to 32 in favor of the teachers.

Courtney took point honors for the Sons with 13 and Johnston of the Davids led the game with 22 points.

STANFORD POLOISTS TAKE OREGON STATE

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 9.—(AP)—The Oregon State college polo team will seek an even break here tonight against the Stanford university team which won last night's indoor game, 16 to 5½.

The dirt-floored arena was packed and others were turned away, unable to gain admittance to see Will Rogers Jr. swing a mean stick for the Cardinals. He scored three points, but his team mate, Rasmussen, led with six.

Both teams rode well, but hard, accurate shots of Stanford brought victory. Perry, Beaver number one man, scored five points.

SALEM, Feb. 9.—(AP)—William F. Woodward of Portland today filed his declaration of candidacy for state senator from Multnomah county, in the state department. He has served several terms in both houses of the legislature.

WARLIKE SPIRIT WANTED IN MAJOR LEAGUE GAMES

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Major league baseball is due for some break, if not actually warlike, action on the diamonds this year, providing the athletes carry out on the field with them the conviction of their bosses, the club owners, that the game needs more aggressive playing spirit and less fraternizing to attract increased public interest.

No special call to arms has been or will be sounded, but it is a fact that the magnates of the National league has endorsed the initiative already taken by their chief executive, John A. Heydler, in promoting more inter-club rivalry, and that the American league owners are of similar mind. Heydler voiced a warning against too much fraternizing at the outset of the 1933 season.

Short of rowdism and actual hand-to-hand conflict, players will be urged to adopt the attitude that no favors are to be asked or comradeship manifested, on or off the playing field. Umpires, while not having their disciplinary powers restricted in any way, will be instructed to turn their backs upon outbursts of high dudgeon. In fact, it will be quite all right with the magnates if new records are set for the standing or running high dudgeon.

Specifically, here are some of the things which club owners classify under the heading of objectionable:

1. Fraternizing between rival players around the batting cage during pre-game practice.
2. Visits of players to the opposing team's bench for purposes of discussing engagements for the evening, inquiring about the health of each others' family or debating the merits of their golf games.
3. Manifestations of "old pal" stuff between base runners and infielders.
4. Public or private beer drinking among players of rival teams, before or after the ball games.

BROOKINGS SEEKS HARBOR SURVEY

J. W. Mosier of Brookings, Ore., was a visitor in Medford yesterday, circulating a petition addressed to the board of army engineers in Washington, D. C., requesting the district engineers to make a survey of Chasco Cove, also known as Brookings port.

Mr. Mosier left petitions in this section before returning to the coast. Persons interested in signing are requested to do so before February 20. The petitions are at Fryon's Mercantile in Talent, at the Medford Chamber of Commerce, Barkley's place in Phoenix and Coleman's store in Jacksonville.

HAMBURG, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Executioners wielding an axe today decapitated Arthur Reising, a communist, for the murder of a Nazi youth.

Death sentences of three alleged accomplices were commuted to "life terms" by the state governor, who said they were "the misled victims of communist agitation."

AIRWAY OFFICIALS EYE NEARBY SITES

Looking over additional emergency landing fields, which may be considered by the department of commerce, Marshall C. Hoppin, director of airways, United States department of commerce, and E. L. Yuravich, inspector of airways, were in Medford today.

Following a conference with City Superintendent Fred Schiefel they visited the Roxy Ann site, then continued north to Portland and Pendleton. Regarding Medford's application for additional CWA funds for improvement of the Medford airport, they stated that all plans are now awaiting the appropriation of additional funds.

WOLFE ON COMING GRAPPLING CARD

Lineup of next Wednesday's wrestling card is still uncertain, according to Promoter Mack Lillard, but he announced today that Les Wolfe would probably be one of the main attractions.

Lillard is also on the hunt for a big fast man to meet Ray Fritable, Medford fireman. Fritable has faced smaller men in his last two appearances here and is anxious to show local fans what he can do when pitted against a real heavyweight muscle mauler.

VIRGINIA CHERRILL CARY GRANT WED

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Virginia Cherrill and Cary Grant were married today—and the proceedings were just as confused as usual, before movie cameras.

The two film stars proved months of rumors correct by appearing at the Claxton Hall registry office and exchanging vows before a registrar.

They made their appearance, however, in relays.

Grant showed up without his fiancée. He telephoned. She arrived. And then they got set out for Plymouth, the liner Paris, New York, and Hollywood.
