

PUHL IS DENIED LABOR PAYMENT IN HOWARD SUIT

In an opinion rendered by Judge James T. Brand of Coos county, in the suit of Fred Puhl against Louise Howard, also known as Mrs. H. G. Pech, Puhl is allowed no compensation for labor rendered in the operation of the Howard farm in the Central Point district. Puhl asked for $2400 covering a four year period at $500 per month.

The court holds that the couple lived in "family relationship, and under the decisions in similar cases, services thus rendered are presumptively gratuitous."

It is further cited that the "indefiniteness of the testimony of both plaintiff and defendant, makes it impossible to apply the ordinary rule of law, or the ordinary methods of accounting, in reaching a decision."

The opinion however holds that Puhl is entitled to $800 for use of machinery, where he sought $1004; $200 for threshing operations, where he sought $221; $56, paid men employed in threshing, and $1278.61 for money advanced, where $1278 was sought. He is also granted payment of three promissory notes, and Mrs. Howard is given credit for certain payments made.

The court in its opinion remarks that the case is involved, and difficult of adjudication, because of the issues, and contradictory testimony.

Both Puhl and defendant are well known residents of the county, and the suit attracted considerable attention.

The testimony in the case showed that in September, 1929, Puhl went to the Howard farm, located in the Midway road district, along Bear creek, and "lived under the same roof" with his son and Mrs. Howard's family. Puhl testified there was agreement, "if we married I was not to be paid, and if we didn't, I was." Puhl advanced money on notes, and bought farm machinery, he testified, in the operation of the farm.

The evidence further showed that Mrs. Howard borrowed $100 from Puhl, and went to Portland and was married. She did not tell Puhl of the nuptials, "until five or six days later." He then requested a settlement.

The plaintiff was represented by Attorney F. J. Newman; the defense by Attorney Charles W. Reames. The trial took four days.

Miss Hayes to Return From Southern Wedding. Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes, is expected home the last of the week from San Francisco and San Mateo, where she attended a wedding of social prominence last Saturday and where she has been much entertained by former university friends and sorority sisters.

A report of the wedding, which she attended, was carried in the Sunday Oregonian with a charming photograph of the bride. It reads: "Miss Elaine Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Burke of San Mateo, Cal., and J. Robert Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hall of Portland, were married last night at an impressive ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Van Horn of Oakland, Cal., reading the service against a background of torches filled with calla lilies and pink gladioli and tall standards of lighted tapers.

"The bride wore a dress of heavy white satin, made with long court train and long sleeves and veil of white tulle. Her sister, Mrs. W. H. Eckart of Seattle, was her matron of honor. She wore a dress of coral cut velvet with short train and long sleeves. Miss Betty Jane Burke was maid of honor. She wore a similar frock of pink cut velvet. Mrs. Victor B. Smith sang preceding the ceremony. Assisting at the reception which followed were Misses Dorothy Sleppee, Mary Hayes, Margaret Hunt and Mable Ford.

"Mr. Hall and his bride are both graduates of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Hall is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and Mr. Hall of Phi Delta Theta."

Writers Will Aid in Publicity for Oregon's Jubilee

Members of the League of Western Writers were given an inspiring message at the regular meeting at the Hotel Holland Saturday, when Mrs. Atlanta Parker Satchwell, president of the organization, appealed to the group to undertake publicity work for Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration to be held here in June.

Pointing to the innumerable stories of mining and hunting, Indian legends, events of early days, and even nature itself, all of which exist here in southern Oregon Mrs. Satchwell reminded the members of their splendid opportunity to assemble the valuable stories for the jubilee, at the same time helping to preserve the romantic history of the state from its earliest days to the present time. Mrs. Satchwell offered to draw illustrations adaptable to the stories, utilizing lines of poetry as well. She plans to compose a jubilee song, which will be set to music by one of the league members.

Victor Tengwall, member of the Portland branch of the League of Western Writers, also spoke briefly of the invaluable material at hand awaiting the touch of a writer's pen, and stressed the importance of interviewing the old pioneers who, alone, know the stirring stories connected with many of the historical names of this country. Mr. Tengwall also brought to light important information concerning the national writers' organization.

The group assembled Saturday was offered something new in the program, in charge of Mrs. Louise Hedger, in which much time was devoted to a round table criticism of rejected material submitted by members. Errors in three types of stories, including a five-minute short, a juvenile and a short story, were pointed out to the authors who, through this method were able to see tangible results from affiliation with a writers' organization. A business meeting was held during the afternoon, with response to roll call given in current events.

The next meeting is scheduled for Saturday, March 10, at 2 p. m., at the Hotel Holland.

Increasing cloudiness tonight and Wednesday, becoming unsettled west portion; normal temperature; increasing southeast winds offshore.

GRIFFIN, PIONEER, PROBABLY FIRST FOR AGE PENSION

John B. Griffin, the second white child born in Jackson county, and a widely known southern Oregon pioneer, will probably be the recipient of the first old age pension certificate issued in this county, Ingrid Holmes, secretary of the county court, said today.

No certificates for pensions will be issued until the work is completed, and will be mailed to those whose requests have been approved. This will be in a week or 10 days.

County Judge Earl B. Day said this morning that the county court, acting as a pension board, would hold daily sessions on pensions until finished. He estimated there would be 250 pensions approved. The number is less than expected. Owing to the straitened financial condition of the county, the monthly allowances will be limited, members of the court said.

"We have checked over all the applicants and find all those approved to be worthy and coming under the provisions of the pension law," County Judge Day said. "We are doing the best we can by them, under the circumstances." None of the pensions will be for the maximum allowance of $30 per month.

Practically all of the approved pensioners are long-time residents of the county and the state.

YOUR GROCER WILL HELP YOU KEEP HEALTHY AND HAPPY

Delicious Cereal Promotes Regular Habits

The right kinds of foods form the very basis of health. You need nourishment for strength and energy. And you need "bulk" to prevent constipation.

Otherwise, this ailment may cause headaches, loss of appetite and energy. You can correct it, usually by eating a delicious cereal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN adds generous "bulk" to your daily menu. Tests show this "bulk" is similar to that found in leafy vegetables.

Inside the body, the fiber of ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

ALL-BRAN is also a good source of vitamin B and iron.

Isn't it safer—and pleasant—to enjoy this food in place of taking patent medicines?

Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily will overcome most types of common constipation. Chronic cases with each meal. If seriously ill, see your doctor. ALL-BRAN makes no claim to be a "cure-all."

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or cook into fluffy muffins and breads.

Remember, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is all bran with only necessary flavoring added. It contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

"MY KIND OF TRAVELING TAKES HEALTHY NERVES, TOO" Earle W. Schoonmaker of Nutley, N. J. travels thousands of miles every year as a commuter. He says: "I think I know something of nerve strain, too. Breakfast, the 8:04, the same trip again at the end of a hard day. I'm a constant smoker. My brand? Camels, of course. I can enjoy Camels steadily and I never have to worry about jangled nerves. Camels are the mildest cigarette. They've got what I call real flavor!" Thomas Olsen, who sailed a 26-foot boat across 9,000 miles of ocean, says: "There's one cigarette that I can smoke steadily without getting nervous or 'fed up' with smoking. I mean Camels. They taste mild—never flat—and there is a delicate flavor to Camel's costlier tobaccos that certainly does set Camels apart from other cigarettes." How Are YOUR Nerves? Most all of us know jangled nerves by these telltale signs—jumping when doors slam, scolding, worrying, nail-biting, frowning, foot-tapping. No wonder "nerves" are being put forward as one of the great questions of the day affecting men and women in every station of life. If you are the nervous type, check up on your eating, your sleeping, your recreation. And be on the safe side about smoking—take up Camels now. Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand. Thousands daily are turning to Camels. And finding a new zest for smoking... an enjoyment that each Camel refreshes and renews. Enjoy Camels as often as you wish. Your taste will always respond to their finer flavor.
