MANY GREETINGS BY REPUBLICANS READ AT BANQUET

Telegrams and letters from many prominent Republicans were read at the annual Lincoln day banquet here Monday evening. Among the greetings were the following:

"Multnomah county Republicans gathered at the nineteenth annual Lincoln day banquet in Portland convey to Jackson county Republicans their most cordial greetings. The spirit of Lincoln still lives in the hearts of our people and the country will again return to sound Republican principles for which he stood. LAMAR TOOZE.

"Chairman Lincoln Day Banquet Committee.

"Portland, Ore."

"Sorry I cannot take part in your Lincoln day banquet as it would be a source of real happiness. Sincere greetings to my fellow Republicans. "SENATOR CHAS. L. McNARY.

"Washington, D. C."

"Sincerely regret I am unable to be present tonight and join with you in honoring the memory of Abraham Lincoln. In one of the great critical periods of our nation's history, Lincoln strove to save the constitution and the rights guaranteed under it. In these days when the constitution is being lightly cast aside we should turn to the teaching of the Great Emancipator. We will honor his memory by rededicating ourselves to the preservation of the constitutional rights distinguishing American citizenship.

"SENATOR FREDERICK STEIWER.

"Washington, D. C."

"Thank you for your letter of February 1 inviting me to attend the Lincoln day banquet which will be held in Medford on Monday evening, February 12.

"I regret that I already have an engagement for that evening and for this reason will not be able to be with you.

"I assure you, however, I appreciate your courtesy in extending the invitation.

"GOVERNOR J. L. MEIER.

"Salem, Ore."

"I congratulate your club and the Republicans of Jackson county on your observance of the anniversary of our party's greatest leader and the nation's greatest man.

"I think well for us to pause a moment on an occasion like this to remind ourselves that the party of Lincoln still stands for certain principles which are as fundamental now as they were when first announced by our immortal leader, and that these principles are not to be surrendered or ignored even in the present grave emergency.

"The Republican party is still the party which Lincoln founded, and its basic ideals are still his ideals. The Republican party still stands for constitutional, parliamentary government. We still believe in government by law and not by men.

"We are still of the opinion that it is the duty of the legislative branch of the government to make law and that congress has no authority, under the constitution, to surrender its jurisdiction in this field to the executive branch of the government.

"In our sincere desire to aid in the recovery, we have, nevertheless, heeded these fundamental principles and we have also tried to prevent a sometimes ruthless majority from attempting to destroy them. In this we have at least partly succeeded.

"The minority party in congress is fulfilling its moral and legal duties as such, and that it is functioning effectively, small though its numbers are. It has opposed whatever bad legislation the majority party has offered with the same vigor that it has supported the good. This has often required no little courage in the face of a temporarily blinded adverse public opinion.

"The Republican party is doing its full share in bringing about the recovery of our country. It is doing this in a manner so unselfish and patriotic that it has gained the respect and the confidence of the people everywhere. And when the battle shall have been won and the history of this struggle written, the party of Lincoln will have no cause to be ashamed of the part it has played.

"Very cordially yours,

"JAMES W. MOTT.

"House of Representatives, Washington, D. C."

BOB NELSON HAS NANKI-POO ROLE IN MIKADO CAST

By Marvin Burk.

Of the diversified roles included in the "Mikado," the high school comic opera to be presented soon, none offers greater entertainment for the audience than that of Nanki-Poo. This part will be enacted by Bob Nelson, a veteran in the fields of dramatics and music.

Bob Nelson.

Bob was graduated from Medford high school two years ago with exceptionally high honors in music and drama. All his talents and abilities are brought to light in this popular Gilbert and Sullivan production. Last year Bob played Ralph Rackastran in "H. M. S. Pinafore." He also sang in "Pirates of Penzance," given two years ago. In the senior play, "Adam and Eva," given by the senior class of '31, he illustrated his remarkable abilities as Uncle Horace, a comedy role.

The average student taking active part in the music department, seldom has time for debate teams or dramatic clubs, but Bob received high honors in all three of these activities.

Upon being graduated from Medford high Bob attended Ashland Normal, where he continued his good work by playing in "As You Like It," a Shakespearean production. In the play Bob enacted two roles, namely LeBlan and William. Later he played in "Andrew Jackson," another successful play produced by Prof Angus Bowmer at the Ashland Normal.

In this performance Bob played the role of Tom, an aged negro. Because of his long experience in acting and singing, it is very evident he will be an outstanding success in the "Mikado."

At the opening of the opera, Nanki-Poo is disguised as a wandering minstrel. In order to gain Yum-Yum's love, he tells her, secretly, that he is really the son of the Mikado of Japan.

The "Mikado" is beyond doubt the most popular opera ever written by Gilbert and Sullivan. Over 200 students are involved in this important event. Miss Harriett Baldwin, music teacher of the local school, is in charge of the glee clubs. The opera will be directed by Wilson Walt, the leader of the band and orchestra of the school. Much credit is due Ralph Burgess for his unlimited assistance in making the opera a success.

FUNDS OF COUNTY IN CAPABLE HANDS DECLARES AUDITOR

The audit of the county books, for the last six months of 1933, prepared by A. R. Hoetling, accountant, was submitted to the county court today. It is largely devoted to figures showing amounts expended, amounts on hand in various county funds, and recapitulations. The audit states "the funds of the county have been efficiently and economically administered" for the period from the submission of the report of C. H. Haines, auditor, last July, until December 31 last.

The Haines report was for a three-year period.

Auditor Hoetling recommends that a monthly audit be taken, so that the county court will have a cumulative audit, and recommends changes in the present system of bookkeeping. The report holds that errors found are "minor."

It is further recommended that the "county engineer set up a schedule of depreciation, for the value of machinery," and that "each road district receiving the benefit be assessed for the use of the machinery in the Machinery Depreciation fund." It is also proposed that rental money for county machinery from outside agencies be placed in the fund. The report holds the plan would provide a fund for the protection of the capital outlay.

The report sets forth that the deficit in the general fund "can be traced to one of four causes." The causes are listed as: "Failure of the 1932 budget committee to provide sufficient funds, the expenditure of thousands of dollars in unusual trials and procedure, the heavy cost of relief moves, and the emergency situation that prevailed in the early part of last year."

It is also noted that Earl H. Fehl, now serving a four-year sentence in state prison for ballot theft conviction has a month's salary, amounting to $151.77, due, and that Gordon L. Schermerhorn, former sheriff, also has salary for the same period due.
