The subject for debate is, "Resolved That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio ownership and operation." Medford is to be represented by Irene Stubblefield and Mildred Drury.

W. A. Dahlberg of the University of Oregon is acting as judge for the entire series.

OUTSIDE PRINTER BILKS LOCAL MEN

Chief of Police Clatous McCredie today received a letter from Charles J. McCoy, sheriff of Yuba county, California, stating that an imposter, claiming to represent the Alexander Printing shop in Maryville, had taken some printing orders in Medford, and that merchants here had written to D. A. Alexander, proprietor of the shop, requesting fulfillment of the orders.

Sheriff McCoy explained that blanks from the Alexander shop were used, but that Alexander did not have any representative outside the city of Maryville.

The letter to the chief here said that Alexander had written, suggesting to the merchants of Medford to rely on their own printers, so that they may not only give work to the local people, but protect themselves against such a problem.

Names of Eugene merchants were also listed among those who had given orders.

Lionel Barrymore Star At Holly

The sacredness of the American home and the loyalty of a family to all its members are lessons that are vividly illustrated in "This Side of Heaven," now at the Holly.

The story relates the climactic events in the lives of various members of a family, all of which take place concurrently.

Lionel Barrymore plays the father who is threatened with imprisonment for embezzlement.

"The Kiss Before the Mirror" at Roxy. The romantic atmosphere of Vienna with its period drawing rooms, and graceful, artistic setting, features "The Kiss Before the Mirror," now at the Roxy theater.

High drama occurs in the court room as the wronged husband makes the plea for his client, trying at the same time his wife, who sits in the gallery. An astounding climax, entirely too good to give away takes place.
