

ARIZONA'S NEW DEATH CHAMBER

Warden A. G. Walker (left) of the Arizona state prison in Florence is pointing out the observation window of the nearly completed lethal gas chamber which will be used for executions in the future to Yard Captain Bert Polly. Arizona is the third state to adopt this method of putting condemned persons to death. The chamber is in a small room above the condemned cell block and was formerly used for handbills. (Associated Press Photo)

THE GARNERS ENTERTAIN THE ROOSEVELTS

Vice President Garner seemed to forget his aversion to formal affairs when he and Mrs. Garner entertained at a state dinner in honor of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Here are the host and hostess with their guests of honor in one of the few pictures ever taken of the couples together. (Associated Press Photo)

Gangway

Out of the way, cameramen, for a young lady heading for the surf. She is Nancy Shute, daughter of the golfer, Danny Shute, and is shown going down to the sea at Miami Beach, Fla. (Associated Press Photo)

SENATE WIVES OPEN SOCIAL SEASON

Mrs. John N. Garner, wife of the vice president, used one of her husband's many gavels when she called to order the first luncheon meeting of the Senate Ladies' Luncheon club in Washington. At the left is Mrs. Kev Pittman of Nevada. (Associated Press Photo)

Garfield Leon, dancer, and his bride of three weeks, the former Marian Mitchell, declared there was nothing wrong in the friendship between him and Fay Webb Vallee, wife of Rudy Vallee, crooner, who are airing their domestic troubles in court. The dancer and his bride are pictured in their Santa Monica, Cal., home.

For Early Spring

It's time to begin thinking of your early spring outfits, and here is a suggestion. This smart suit is in one of the new checks, the colors being yellow and gray. The blouse and scarf are of tomato red, and the off-the-face hat is of yellow crepe. (Associated Press Photo)

STUDEBAKER HEIR MARRIES CHORINE

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Russell Erskine, Jr., are shown just after their marriage at New York's "little church around the corner." Mrs. Erskine is the former Meredith Howard, Broadway show girl and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Howard of Tulsa, Okla. (Associated Press Photo)

Monetary Adviser At Senate Hearing

Rarely photographed, Prof. James Harvey Rogers, one of President Roosevelt's monetary advisers, is shown before the senate banking committee when he gave his views on the President's monetary program. (Associated Press Photo)

HER CHICKENS ROOST IN STYLE

A five-story hen-house topped with a penthouse and equipped with a radio, electric lights, violet ray windows and oiled floors are some of the things that make the chicken-raising establishment of Marie Louise Quevill, Tacoma, Wash., society girl, one of the most unique and complete in the country. (Associated Press Photos)

SUFFRAGE GRANTED FILIPINO WOMEN

Governor General Frank Murphy of the Philippines signing the bill granting suffrage to Filipino women. Some of the women leaders and members of the legislature who took part in the ceremonies at Malacañan palace in Manila are witnessing the signature. (Associated Press Photo)

Visits Ex-Husband

Rumors of a possible reconciliation between Ganna Walska, opera singer, and her former husband, Harold McCormick, harvest-mag-nate, were revived when she visited him in Chicago. She is pictured at the door of McCormick's home. (Associated Press Photo)

TWO LITTLE 'MAIDS O' MIST' CAUGHT IN ICE JAM

The "Maids of the Mist," twin steamers that have carried thousands of tourists to the foot of Niagara Falls, are shown, ice-locked, where they were left when low water at the end of the tourist season precluded their removal, which now promises to be quite an engineering feat. (Associated Press Photo)

GUESS WHICH ONE IS JOAN

No, this isn't Joan Crawford in two poses. One picture is Gwendolyn Gill, a Scotch lass from Edinburgh who has been given a long term film contract in Hollywood. Three guesses which is which. Well, if you can't tell, Gwendolyn is on the left and Joan on the right. (Associated Press Photos)

CUPID SCORES ON MANDERS

"Automatic" Jack Manders, former University of Minnesota football star whose kicking accuracy has won many games this fall for the Chicago Bears, professional grid champion, is shown with his bride, formerly Virginia Grimes of Minneapolis, at their marriage in Chicago. (Associated Press Photo)

GUARDS 'COVER' TOUHY GANGSTERS IN COURTROOM

There were many guards in evidence as Roger Touhy and three of his associates went on trial in Chicago for the $70,000 kidnaping last summer of John "Jake the Barber" Factor. Left to right, the defendants as they appear in court are: Eddie "Father Tom" McFadden, Albert "Polly Nose" Kator, "Gloomy Gus" Schaffer and Touhy. (Associated Press Photo)

FILM CELEBRITIES TO WED

Vera Teasdale and Adolphe Menjou, both film players, are to be married, probably next August, it was announced in Hollywood. The couple are shown when they attended a Hollywood premiere recently. (Associated Press Photo)