

LILJEQVIST WILL DRAFT ANSWER TO L. A. BANKS APPEAL

L. A. Liljeqvist of Marshfield has been named by the attorney-general to take charge of preparation of the state's reply brief in the appeal to the supreme court of L. A. Banks, local agitator, now serving a life term in state prison for second degree murder. Word to this effect was received today.

The continued illness of Ralph M. Moody, assistant attorney-general, who conducted the prosecution in the Banks murder trial, and the ballot theft cases, is given as reason for the change. Attorney Moody has been ill for several months, and recovery has been slow.

The state's reply brief must be in the hands of the state supreme court by March 10, when a date for argument will be set. Attorney Liljeqvist will be assisted in the preparation of the state brief by District Attorney George A. Coddier. A 500-page transcript of the testimony in the murder trial was received this morning.

The defense brief, filed a month ago, lists as grounds for appeal, alleged misconduct by jury balliffs, statements of the prosecutor, in his closing address, characterizing Banks "as a moral coward hiding behind the skirts of a woman," and claims 11 errors at law by the trial judge.

Attorney Liljeqvist is well known in this county. He was named a special prosecutor in the Bank of Jacksonville failure trials, the Klan night-riding trials and in liquor prosecutions.

It is forecast that by mid-summer a decision by the high court will be made. In the ordinary course of business, it takes from six weeks to three months for a finding to be reached.

The transcript of the evidence in the case of Gordon L. Schermerhorn, former sheriff, under conviction of ballot theft, was completed and turned over to his counsel last Saturday, Monday, March 5, has been set by Circuit Judge George F. Skipworth of Eugene as the final date, for the filing of a bill of exceptions, in Schermerhorn's appeal to the supreme court. He has been granted three extensions of time. The transcript is voluminous and cost $498 to prepare.

Schermerhorn is at liberty on $7500 bonds, pending appeal, and his is the last of the vote-stealing cases. In all the others, the defendants are serving prison terms, enjoying parole, or were dismissed.

Tom L. Brecheen, former Ashland resident, "star boarder" at the county jail during the Banks-Fehl turmoil, who pled guilty to ballot theft and received an 18-month sentence, will be eligible to parole in April, when he will have served half his sentence.

J. Arthur LaDieu, former business manager for L. A. Banks' newspaper, Earl H. Fehl and Walter J. Jones, leaders in the ballot crime, and all serving four-year sentences at Salem, will not be eligible to parole until they have served 18 months, from the date of entry last August.

L. Alvin Tollefson, former cashier of the Central Point State bank, serving two and one-half years for confessed perpetration of a bank robbery hoax, will be eligible for parole in May.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET TONIGHT

This evening at 6:30 the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church is holding its annual George Washington banquet. This banquet has been an annual event for the past twenty or more years.

All Epworth League members, their parents and friends, especially former members of the League, have been invited to attend. An entertaining program has been arranged under the direction of Olaf Severson Jr., and his committee. Rev. Joseph Knotts will act as toastmaster for the occasion; Miss Grace Jo Burnett will sing; Misses Helen and Josephine Power are to play a piano duet; toasts to George Washington will be given by the League president, Joyce Banish, and by other officers.

Helen Powers' committee has been decorating the north parlor, where the banquet will be held. The tables will have favors appropriate to the holiday and spring blossoms for decorations.

The menu committee, under Mildred Walker's direction, has arranged all soliciting and buying of food. The members of the Ladies' Aid are to help this committee in serving. Marvin Burke and his ticket-selling committee have planned for about 80 guests.

For the past few years the George Washington banquet has been limited to league members only, owing to financial conditions. This year, however, it has once more been made public.

FARMERS SHARE IN DOLLAR 53 CENTS

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—The American farmer in 1933 received 35 cents of the consumer's dollar, the agricultural adjustment administration reported today. In 1932 he received 39 cents.

The administration pointed out that in 1929, when farm prices were comparatively good, the farmer received 47 cents out of each dollar spent for food, with 33 cents going to processors and distributors. Such price levels can be restored only through increasing farm prices faster than retail prices or reducing costs of processing and distributing.

The agricultural adjustment administration expects that the farmer's share will be increased somewhat this year through various federal agencies set up.
