

DOUG, SR., IN DIVORCE ACTIONS AT HOME AND ABROAD

Lord Ashley (right), heir to the Earl of Shaftesbury, filed a petition for divorce in London against Lady Ashley, the former Sylvia Hawkes, British actress. Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., American film star, was served notice that he had been named correspondent in the case. The actor also faces divorce proceedings at home brought by his wife, Mary Pickford, motion picture actress. Fairbanks and Miss Pickford are pictured at left. (Associated Press Photo)

BREAKFASTING WITH WRITERS

Mrs. Harold Ickes (left), wife of the secretary of the interior, and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt were snapped in this informal pose when they attended the "celebrity breakfast" of the National League of American Pen Women in Washington. (Associated Press Photo)

HUGE POLICE ESCORT GUARDS DILLINGER RETURN

The largest police escort ever assembled in Chicago was on hand when John Dillinger finished his speedy return by airplane from Arizona, en route to Crown Point, Ind., where he will face murder charges. The notorious Indiana badman (center) was chained and handcuffed as more than 100 officers guarded his Chicago arrival. (Associated Press Photo)

FIRES RAGE IN STREETS DURING FRENCH RIOTS

This Associated Press picture, sent by radio to New York, shows a typical Paris street scene during the height of the French riots. A newspaper kiosk, familiar to Paris visitors, is shown burning as the result of mob action which caused unestimated property damage. (Copyright Associated Press Photo)

With a tug and a hoist and a boost, art students prepared old man Prohibition for burial at the Art Students League in New York. Bunny Swanson (left), representing the spirit of repeal, draws him towards his sombre black coffin for a procession up Fifth avenue. (Associated Press Photo)

AND THE BABE SIGNS FOR A MERE $35,000!

It's hard to believe, but it's true. Babe Ruth has signed his contract to play baseball for the New York Yankees for another year, and there wasn't any fuss or dicker. Col. Jacob Ruppert (left), owner of the Yankees, offered the Babe $25,000. Ruth said he thought he ought to have $35,000. Ruppert agreed and that's all there is to the story. Here you see the famous slugger fixing his name to the contract which gives him a cut of $17,000. Colonel Ruppert seems to be glad it's all over. (Associated Press Photo)

HELD AS SUSPECT IN KIDNAP RING

Frank Souder of Benton, Ill., one of three men held in Chicago as suspected chiefs of a band of midwest kidnapers that has wrung $500,000 from victims in recent years, is shown with his wife as he appeared in district court. (Associated Press Photo)

AND THEY'RE BOTH GOOD GOLFERS

Here are two golfers seldom photographed together—Col. R. P. Jones and his famous son, Robert Tyre, shown at Augusta, Ga. Both are wearing football sweaters of their alma mater, Georgia Tech. (Associated Press Photo)

READING SENATE ARREST WARRANT

William P. McCracken Jr. (left), former assistant secretary of commerce, is shown reading the warrant calling for him to be brought before the senate for defying a subpoena of the airmail investigating committee. At right is Chesley Jurney, senate sergeant-at-arms. (Associated Press Photo)

WOMAN FACES WOMAN PROSECUTOR

In an unusual case in Hennepin county district court of Minnesota, a woman is prosecuting another woman for murder. Mrs. Kathlyen Rasmussen (left), Minneapolis housewife, is on trial on a second degree murder charge in connection with the stabbing of her husband. Miss Elizabeth Owens (right) is the prosecutor. (Associated Press Photo)

STITCHES FIRST NRA DRESS LABEL

Miss Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, stitched the first blue flag label onto a dress during a ceremony in New York marking the inauguration of the NRA code for women's dress-makers. The label symbolizes a 35-hour week, a minimum wage and elimination of child labor. Miss Perkins will wear the gown she is shown working on. (Associated Press Photo)

MICKY UP TO MONKEY BUSINESS

This versatile resident of Fleishacker zoo, San Francisco, demonstrates what he'd do if someone would give him a motorcycle. He climbed on this one while a traffic policeman was busy elsewhere. His name is Micky. (Associated Press Photo)

THE LITVINOFF FAMILY CIRCLE

Maxim Litvinoff, commissar for foreign affairs, whose conversations with President Roosevelt in Washington led to the recognition of Soviet Russia, is pictured with his family in their Moscow home. Left to right are: M. Litvinoff, his daughter, Tanya; his son, Mischa and his wife, Ivy Low Litvinoff. (Associated Press Photo)

HULL, BACK, MEETS CAFFERY

Secretary of State Cordell Hull (left) is shown with Jefferson Caffery (second from left), President Roosevelt's personal representative in Cuba, as the two discussed Cuban affairs with newspapermen on board the cruiser Richmond at Key West, Fla. Secretary Hull, returning from the Pan American conference at Montevideo, was brought by the Richmond from Panama. (Associated Press Photo)