Californians Add Interest to Social Outlook of Week

A new incentive was brought into entertaining here last week by the arrival of several guests from the south, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Young, Jr., of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maenza and Mrs. Ernie Nevers of Palo Alto.

Mrs. Young is remembered here as the former Donna Sollinsky, daughter of Mrs. E. C. Sollinsky, and Mrs. Maenza as the former Mary Lee Roberts. The Palo Alto folks are visitors at the G. M. Roberts' home and the Youngs are the Sollinskys' guests. All will probably leave this evening for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts entertained at dinner Thursday evening, honoring the group, and Friday a skiing party at Crater Lake was arranged. Motoring into the park for winter sports were Mr. and Mrs. Young, who play a prominent part in skiing and other sports of interest to bay city folk; Mr. and Mrs. Maenza, Mrs. Nevers, Miss Dorothy Roberts, Mrs. Harold Johnson, Miss Frances Sparrow and James Hayes, Jr.

Yesterday Miss Jean Steel entertained at luncheon at the Colonial club, honoring Mrs. Young. Other guests were: Mrs. Sollinsky, Mrs. Rupert J. Henry, Mrs. T. Slater Johnson, Mrs. Ray Edwin and Misses Frances Sparrow and Marion Briggs of this city, and Mrs. David Canfield and Mrs. Russell Andrews of Klamath Falls.

Today Mrs. Rupert J. Henry will entertain honoring the Youngs before their departure south.

Medford Invited by Ashland Music Club to Program

The Ashland Music club has extended an invitation to Medford music lovers to attend the meeting of the club in that city tomorrow evening at the Methodist church, beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Miss Irwanda Bateman is chairman for the evening and James Stevens, well known local harmonica, and Miss Imogene Wallace will be among local artists participating in the program.

The following numbers have been announced:

1. National Mistle, led by Henry Enders.
2. Damsch's Work in the Great War—Dr. Redford, S. O. Normal.
3. "Road to Mandalay" (Oby Speaks)—James Stevens, accompanied by Mary Chambers.
4. Music of the Colonial Period—Mrs. Richard Jay, accompanied by Miss Wallace.

PART II.

1. John McCormack—Mrs. John Fuller.
2. "I Hear You Calling Me," C. Marshall—Chester Woods, accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Woods.
3. "Little Town in the Old County Down"—James Stevens, accompanist, Mary Chambers.

Mrs. Clark Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Wm. Clark, Jr., entertained the Building Bridge club at Parish hall on Washington's birthday at 1 o'clock luncheon. Colonial place cards and tableaus were used and high scores were held by Mesdames Marshall and Knips.

Mrs. Wilson Feted At Birthday Party

Mrs. H. G. Wilson was honored Thursday evening when a number of friends gathered at her home for a surprise party to join her in celebrating her birthday anniversary. There were four tables of cards in play during the evening and refreshments, including two large birthday cakes, were served. The guests also brought Mrs. Wilson a number of gifts.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knips, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Pipes and children, Wendell and Thelma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner and daughter, Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and daughter, Elbow Mae.

Wednesday Club Studies the Farm

The Wednesday Study club held regular meeting in the club rooms Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. B. O. Harding presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. H. Cochran. Mrs. R. B. Hammond was appointed to represent the club on the board of directors for the newly organized Girls' Community club. Mrs. L. E. Williams presented the subject of the Place of Agriculture in American Life. The farm is the base of almost all our industries, she showed. The problems of the farmer are varied, something new must be done every day. Weather conditions, prices and distribution, over which he has almost no control. Yet he carries on from year to year. His income has decreased nearly half since 1929.

The farmer's condition is the keynote to the nation's security. A larger co-operative plan for marketing has been urged as one step toward bettering farm conditions.

Mrs. M. M. Morris reviewed Bronnfield's book "The Farm" in a most clever and entertaining manner.

The Current Events were very interestingly presented by Mrs. W. G. James. The next meeting will be Mar. 7, with Mesdames Bronnfield, J. E. Williams and J. H. Cochran presenting the program.

Prominent Place Given Fashion Tea On Local Calendar

Committee chairmen were announced yesterday for the "Wedding Gown Tea," to be sponsored by the Parents-Teachers association at the Colonial club March 3, which is expected to be one of the most interesting events for women on the entire spring calendar.

Wedding gowns of all periods will be modeled at the tea. The committee chairman, working out details of the event, are: Mrs. Jack Heyland, general chairman; Mrs. Wayne Keese, program chairman; Mrs. Harry Rinsbarger, gowns; Mrs. Eldon Drysdale, finance; Mrs. Dede Terrett, hospitality; and Mrs. Chas. Thompson, decorations.

Any person with wedding gowns, which could be loaned for use at the tea, are asked to call Mrs. Rinsbarger at 892-X and she will call for them.

Mrs. Johnson Honored At Shower Wednesday

Mrs. Earl Miller and Miss Thelma Heard were hostesses at a shower Wednesday evening at the former's home in honor of Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Jr. Three tables of bridge were in play, the prize for high score going to Mrs. Johnson.

Those present were Mrs. Jay Walton, Mrs. Myra Russell, Mrs. Ted LeValley, Miss Emily Brown, Miss Frederica Brommer, Mrs. Anna Puhl, Mrs. Charles Heard, Miss Kathryn Reese, Mrs. Kathleen Wilson and Mrs. Walter Nilzel.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Kellogg Entertained

Mrs. Clem R. Parker and Mrs. Kellogg were hostesses to the Gleason class of the First Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Bryant, president of the class, presiding.

Prayers were given by Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Strickland. Roll call was answered by current event.

The hostesses entertained with some games suitable to George Washington's birthday, after which cherry pie was served.

Presbyterian Mission Society Names Officers

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met in the church Tuesday afternoon, at which time officers were elected for the coming church year: President, Mrs. Frank Albert; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. McCullum; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. R. Clemet; secretary, Mrs. A. J. Hanby; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Brommer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Pennington; overseas sewing, Mrs. Belle Littrell; membership, Mrs. N. C. Chasney; secretary of literature, Mrs. R. S. Daniels.

Mesdames Albert and Iverson presented a most impressive program for stewardship day, with a number of ladies representing various stewardship projects.

Many colored and white candles added to the attractiveness of the program.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Luke, Hiles and Baker. Mrs. Hiles presided at the attractive tea table. Early spring flowers were used in profusion about the dining room.

Chrysanthemum Thimble club No. 223 entertained with a delightful public card party at the home of Neighbor Bessie Gail last Tuesday evening. Auction bridge and five hundred were enjoyed during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. C. J. Pritchett and Mrs. Harry Barneburg for bridge and Mrs. Sadie Gill and Mr. Gus Samuels for five hundred. Ten tables of cards were served and the evening closed with refreshments, served by the hostess.

Mrs. Hoffman Honored At Wednesday Party

Philip Hoffman was host at a surprise party for Mrs. Hoffman Wednesday evening at their home, 21 Almond street, honoring her birthday. He was assisted by Mrs. Verna Dunsanne.

Pinochle was the chief entertainment for the evening. High score was won by Mrs. William Drumm and low score by Miss Green and Mr. Drumm. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Long, Mr. and Mrs. William Drumm, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marshall, Miss May Green, Jack Lozier, Dale Flowers and the honor guest, Mrs. Hoffman.

Dr. Page Will Open Bible Conference Tuesday

On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Dr. John C. Page of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago will give the opening address of a three-day Bible conference to be held in the Baptist church. The conference will continue Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Wednesday evening at 7:30, Thursday afternoon at 3 and Thursday evening at 7:30. Mr. Page is a well known Bible teacher throughout the country as well as a radio speaker. Medford is privileged to have a man of his standing here, those who know Mr. Page personally report. The conference is being sponsored by friends and members of Mrs. Warner's Bible classes.

Westonka Council Honors Birthdays

The Westonka council held regular meeting, Friday night. Members whose birthdays occur this month, were honored. Those receiving gifts were: Dorothy Dickey, Evelyn Stagg and Gladys Lawrents. The attendance prize for February was received by Ed Schackel. A social card party hour was held, with high prizes at bridge won by Peggy Purdin and Frank Rush. Low scores to Zilpha Armstrong and Jack Dooms. High prizes at pinochle were held by Sarah Tolle and Otta Hubbard and low scores went to Maggie Erskine and Wm. Milnes. In "500" high prize was received by Frances Mauratt and low by Carrie Milne. The committee in charge for this month includes Bernice Wilson, Maud Abbott and Glen Abbott. At a late hour refreshments were served by Gladys Lawrents and Wilma Hayes.

The team captain, Jack Dooms, requests that the degree team meet at the Redmen hall Monday evening, Feb. 26, for drill practice.

February 16 was observed as Past Pocatontas night, with the following past chiefs at the stations: Maud Abbott, Pocatontas; Florence Rush, Westonka; Esther Dooms, prophetess, and Ed Schackel, Powhatan.

Miss Mann Plays Recital in North

An interesting note in the Portland press brings news of Miss Margaret Mary Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann, of this city, who is now a junior at St. Helen's Hall.

It reads: "Josephine Poulkes will present in piano recital next Saturday Margaret Mary Mann of Medford. Jeannette Jones, pupil of Herman T. Hohmann, will sing two groups of folk songs. Miss Jones graduated from St. Helen's Hall last year and Miss Mann is a junior in the school."

Miss Collins Bride of David Rees at Wedding Wednesday

At the parsonage of the First Christian church Wednesday evening, Miss Flora Collins, daughter of Mr. S. C. Collins of Table Rock, and David Rees, son of Mrs. Rees of Portland, were married at 6:45 o'clock, the Rev. W. B. Baird solemnizing the service. The bride was charming in spring suit of dark blue with tulle collar and blue accessories and wore a corsage of rosebuds and sweetpeas.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greene, Jr., were the only attendants at the service, following which Mr. and Mrs. Rees left for a motor trip to coast points, after which they will be at home to their friends at the Arthur Arms apartments.

The bride is a graduate of the Sacred Heart hospital and a popular member of the younger set here. Mr. Rees is a member of the staff at radio station KMED.
