UMPQUA DISTRICT NO BED OF ROSES FOR BOYS OF CCC

Reporting the hardships endured by CCC boys in the Roseburg section, much greater than those of the Medford area because of weather conditions, Karl Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, and Bill Jones, construction superintendent and assistant to Mr. Janouch in the forest service's administration of the CCC camps, have returned to Medford following a tour of various camps in the north. While away they visited Camp, Tye, Camp Remote, Camp Bradford and Camp Melrose. They were accompanied by Newell Wright, who is acting in the capacity of supervisor over the camps, Jack Joyce of the regional office and R. E. Marsh. Mr. Janouch found the camps especially interesting, as they were inhabited by boys from his home state, Nebraska. Weather conditions during the winter have been much more severe in Douglas county, than here. Mr. Janouch stated, and the ground does not drain as well as it does here, consequently the boys have had to work in a lot of mud. Their territory includes more than one million acres of O. & C. lands in an almost primitive state. They are opening it up for fire prevention purposes. While away from Medford Mr. Janouch and Mr. Jones also attended the "Fern Hoppers" annual banquet at Oregon State college, being among more than 400 guests from the United States forest service, the state forest service, the forestry department of the college and lumber operators. C. J. Buck was the main speaker, his topic being "Broadening Horizons of Forestry." He stated that the new deal is beginning, and that although forestry activities have been under way for many years, that the real forestry program is just getting started. He pointed out, Mr. Janouch recalled today, that President Roosevelt is trying to apply the same forestry development over the nation, that he used in New York state, converting the non-productive agricultural areas into forests.

Rialto Tuesday

With June Knight, from the late Ziegfeld's "Hot-Cha" and other musical comedy successes, in the leading role, "Ladies Must Love" comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow night as one of the season's gayest, smartest, most tuneful screen musicals. Others in the cast include Dorothy Burgess, Neil Hamilton, Sally O'Neil and Mary Carlisle.

Wheeler-Woolsey Comedy Delights Craterian Crowd

Smartly and enthusiastically insane, abounding in laughs of the side-splitting variety, "Hips, Hips, Hooray" presents the stellar comics Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, in a musical extravaganza surpassing all their previous efforts. This picture started a three-day engagement at the Craterian theatre last night. "Hips, Hips, Hooray" offers besides Wheeler and Woolsey, scores of eye-filling beauties in spectacular dances brilliantly conceived. Wheeler and Woolsey are smart and peppy in their interpretation of the snappy lines and situations. "Keep on Doin' What You're Doin'", "Tired of It All" and "Keep Romance Alive" are decided hit tunes which are being hummed, vocalized and orchestrated across the continent. A capable supporting cast surrounds the stars, including Thelma Todd, Dorothy Lee and Ruth Etting. "Hips, Hips, Hooray" combines thrills, hilarity and goofy fun in the story.

Final Notice to Medford Milk Handlers.

STORMS BOOSTING PRICE ON BUTTER

PORTLAND, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Butter trading and prices were now being chiefly affected by weather conditions in the east which has strengthened the trade in practically all sections of the country. A northern co-operative was reported as a large holder of storage. Prices were jumbled in the egg trade here although general prices continued around 16c for extras. Lack of grading was reported with some selling considerably below that. Weather conditions appeared the chief factor in the cheese market during the week. The latest survey of the country-wide market indicated generally steady to firm tone with prices maintained to a fraction higher in spots.
