Heads Cast Craterian Comedy

CARICATURE CHARLES RUGGLES

With Charlie Ruggles as J. Pinkham Whitney, a bank clerk on a holiday with his wife Mary Boland, and a cast that includes such well known laugh getters as W. C. Fields, Alison Skipworth, George Burns and Gracie Allen, "Six of a Kind" should, and from all reports, has all the essentials of the ultimate in screen amusement. Judging from the spontaneous laughter that greets almost every new line, the players have ad-libbed and improvised as much as they have stuck to the script.

"Six of a Kind" opens a four-day run at the Craterian theatre today, which time classes will be organized. Mrs. Hamilton Patton will give instruction in social culture. Mrs. I. E. Schuler will teach dramatic art and English; Miss Marjorie Kelly, athletics, and Miss Marjorie Goff, dancing. All interested girls are invited to join the classes.

Beauty Winners In Holly Picture
Hollywood's world-wide search for perfect beauty was six times rewarded when two girls and four boys, out of the thirty which Paramount imported from every English-speaking country, were given long-term screen contracts.

The thirty, fifteen girls and fifteen young men, were assembled for the picture "Search for Beauty," now at the Holly, by a series of international contests.

The picture features the thirty winners along with Larry "Buster" Crabbe, Ida Lupino, Robert Armstrong, James Gleason, Roscoe Karns and Toby Wing. The story concerns the attempts of crooked promoters to cash in on a health magazine and health-farm racket with two Olympic Games winners as their unwitting foils.

Classes at Girls' Center—Anyone interested in joining a class in dancing, dramatic art, social culture, etiquette or basketball, is asked to come to the Girls' Community club (the former "Y") this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at

Is This Too Good for Your Cough?

Creomulsion may be a better help than you need. It combines seven major helps in one—the best helps known to science. It is made for quick relief, for safety.

Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No man can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So careful people, more and more, are using Creomulsion for any cough that starts.

The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist guarantees it, so it costs nothing if it fails to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. For safety's sake deal with them in the best way known. (Adv.)
