

Local and Personal

From Evans Creek—Captain John R. Murray, commanding officer of the Evans Creek CCC camp, was a visitor here today.

Visited Coast Points—Delos Geiger has returned from a short business trip which took him to Marshfield and other coast points.

Measles More Prevalent—An increase in the number of cases of measles in the county was reported yesterday by the county health office.

Here from Klamath—David H. Canfield, chief ranger of Crater Lake national park, arrived yesterday from his headquarters in Klamath Falls to spend two or three days in Medford.

Out-of-Town Visitors—F. J. McPherson of Shady Cove was among the visitors in the city today. J. M. Lester of Rogue River, H. L. Kingsley of Talent and George Young of Phoenix are also included among out-of-town callers.

Visits in Ashland—Miss Laura Huson of Medford is visiting in Ashland this week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wolff—Ashland Tidings.

Forest Man Visits—Ernest Ingram, connected with the state forestry department at Medford, along the Crater Lake highway in summer months, was a visitor in Medford yesterday from his ranch north of Medford.

Fridergar Calls Here—Eke Fridergar of Ashland was a business caller in this city yesterday and spent considerable time visiting with old friends and reviewing the days when the legitimate show was a frequent event in Medford.

Display Pictures—A number of large pictures taken last Sunday of ceremonies surrounding the unveiling of the Burrell Baucum memorial along the Pacific highway north of Grants Pass, have been placed on display at the state police office.

Rogue Elk to Open—The Rogue Elk resort along the Crater Lake highway, will open soon. G. W. McDonald, proprietor, said when in Medford today. The resort had been closed since last autumn, but was the scene of a number of bi-monthly dances during the winter.

Party for Volunteers—Members of the local volunteer fire department and their ladies will be the guests of Fire Chief Elliott at a party next Monday evening at the fire hall. An interesting program has been arranged for the gathering, including card games, dancing and refreshments.

Arrived Today—Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lundgren arrived in Medford today from Coalinga, Cal., to spend several days while en route on a spring vacation trip to Canada. They plan to return later in the season to spend several weeks fishing in southern Oregon lakes and streams.

More Movies Coming—Sponsored by the state forestry department and other organizations, W. R. Fuller is to arrive in a few days to show moving pictures to CCC camps in this district, his second circuit of the camps this year. He is bringing entirely new films of especial interest to enrolled CCC members.

Roads Still Open—Despite stormy weather conditions of the past week, entrance highways to Crater Lake national park are still open. Approximately 10 inches of new snow has fallen in the past few days, maintaining a depth slightly over six feet in the rim area, where the snow was nearly 20 feet at this time last year.

Tennis Season Nears—A bowler during the winter months, spring turns the fancy of E. Nichols of the postoffice to the tennis courts. He has played several games with more than his usual success. Friends attribute the improvement to the utilization of the bowling stroke in backhand drives.

Sends in Lambongues—Mrs. Laura E. Dias has sent the Mail Tribune a few of the first spring beauties and lambongues from her yard, where she writes they are blooming in abundance at this time. She lives south of the overhead bridge at Tojo on the new road constructed last spring. Here are the first lambongues to come to the Mail Tribune office this season.

Down from Ashland—Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg of Ashland was a visitor in Medford yesterday.

Thursday Shoppers—Mrs. E. J. Boardman and Mrs. J. S. Boardman of Central Point were shopping in Medford yesterday.

Teachers' Chorus to Meet—The Jackson county teachers' chorus will meet at the courthouse auditorium Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock for rehearsal, it was announced yesterday.

Home from Bay City—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reynolds are home from San Francisco where they were called by the death of Mr. Reynolds' brother, Harry Reynolds, caused by an auto accident. The deceased was a traveling salesman. Mr. Reynolds is connected with the Jackson hotel in Medford.

May Enter Races—An entrant in past ski races held in Klamath county, Mickey Franklin of Ashland plans to enter events scheduled for the second annual Crater Lake winter sports carnival, March 18, at Government camp, which promises one of the most extensive snow sports programs ever attempted in southern Oregon. Franklin expressed considerable interest in racing events when he was in Medford yesterday.

Moved to Eugene—Rodney Roach, whose resignation from the state police force became effective today, left this morning by motor for Eugene, accompanied by his family. He had been stationed here for several months past, and will engage in private business in Eugene. Officer Ed Walker, stationed at Roseburg for a short time, returned to Medford yesterday to take over Roach's duties, principally game law enforcement.

Roundtrees Visit Sister—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roundtree returned to Medford and L. C. "Hap" Roundtree went on to Portland Tuesday after spending a short time here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hess. Mrs. Hess is a sister of the Roundtrees. "Hap" Roundtree spent last year in Alaska, piloting a passenger plane for the McGee airlines, and he is now connected with a Portland aviation concern—Grants Pass Courier.

Bible Conference Ends Today—John C. Page will give his last address of the Bible conference which has been held during the past three days in the Baptist church, this evening. His subject will be "The Three Appearings of Our Lord Jesus Christ." He will speak tomorrow afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Ashland at 2:30 p. m., and will leave tomorrow evening for his home in Glendale, Cal. Last evening a most instructive and helpful combined program was carried out in the assembly room of the Baptist church. After the fellowship supper which was enjoyed by the members and friends of the Baptist Missionary society, at which Mr. Page was the honor guest, a pageant depicting the great need of women as medical missionaries in the Indian field was presented, then Mr. Page spoke impressively of the duty of each Christian believer. There were about 150 who enjoyed this fine program.

Young Installs New Equipment

William A. Young, owner of Young's Service Shop, located at 116 North Front, announces that he has just installed the new Weaver complete steering system checking and correction equipment. The equipment was installed by D. W. Whitmett, a factory trained man, who will be at Young's today, Friday and Saturday to give southern Oregon motorists a free check on wheel alignment. The Weaver system is recommended by automobile engineers everywhere, and it is used by many state police departments, according to Mr. Whitmett.
Mr. Young, who has been in the automobile service business for the past 25 years, has also installed a Per-Fect-O cylinder reconditioning boring bar, which is the newest thing in motor reconditioning equipment.

put everything in his bill without a struggle.

Notes
A consumers' organization is spreading the word around that Senator Copeland should not be handling the pure food and drug bill because he gives weekly radio talks for a yeast company and formerly gave similar talks for a mineral oil. Postmaster General Farley took strongest possible steps to keep his airmail cancellation decision from reaching Wall Street before it was announced. Not even his secretary and the presidential secretaries knew anything about it. Nevertheless, airmail stocks sold off before the announcement was made.

ADOLPHE MENJOU IN CIRCUS MYSTERY

A star trapeze performer of a circus who meets her death while she is thrilling the crowd with her breathtaking feats is the highlight in "The Circus Queen Murder," mystery melodrama of circus life now playing at the Roxy theater. Adolphe Menjou is seen as Thatcher Colt, the highly polished, clever detective so well known to readers of Anthony Abbot's best-selling novels.

JACOBS' FUNERAL AT 2 P. M. FRIDAY

Funeral services for Lee L. Jacobs, well known to hundreds throughout Jackson county, who passed away at his home on South Central Wednesday morning, will be held at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m. Friday. Rev. William J. Howell of the Presbyterian church will deliver a brief address at the chapel, with James Stevens rendering two vocal numbers. Services at the grave in the Masonic cemetery will be under auspices of the Jacksonville Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Jacobs had been a long-time member. Honorary pallbearers will be from the local Elks' lodge.

Jack Crawford, worshipful master of Warren Lodge No. 10, A. F. and A. M., of Jacksonville, asks all members to attend the funeral services for Brother Lee L. Jacobs.
