Program Announced For "Wedding Gown" Tea

The program was announced today for the "wedding gown" tea to be sponsored tomorrow afternoon at the Colonial club by the Parent-Teacher association. Part of the program will be given at 2:30 and the remainder at 4 o'clock in order to enable all guests to enjoy the numbers.

Miss Dorothy Gore will entertain with piano and violin numbers. Miss Grace Jo Burnett with a vocal solo. Mrs. C. I. Drummond with violin numbers and Mrs. Maurine Duncan with a vocal solo. Mrs. William McAllister accompanying at the piano.

Mrs. Warren Butler will be at the piano for the more formal numbers. From 2:30 to 3 o'clock the women of the Jackson school will serve about the rooms. From 3 until 4 the women of the junior high school, and from 4 until 5 the women of the Washington school.

Pouring at the tea tables will be Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Miss Edith Patton from 2 to 3 o'clock. From 3 to 4 Mrs. Glen Fabrick and Mrs. J. C. Mann from 4 to 5 Mrs. B. G. Harding and Mrs. R. E. Green.

On the hospitality committee for the occasion are Mrs. Dede Terrett, Mrs. Jack Swam and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick. The three will appear in Colonial costumes during the afternoon.

Another interesting display arranged in connection with the tea is to be found in the Brophy jewelry shop window today. It features wedding rings of all periods. Gowns are on display at Mann's, Adrienne's and the Craterian theater, and posters are appearing all about the town.

Mrs. Hurd Returns From Trip East

Mrs. E. H. Hurd has returned home after spending a delightful winter in Chicago with her son, J. B. Hurd.

En route she visited her brother in the old home in Iowa and he accompanied her to Chicago, where they attended "A Century of Progress" fair together.

Mrs. Hurd also visited in New York city and a daughter in Providence, R. I., and friends in Boston.

Returning home she visited her son and family at Albuquerque and spent a day at the Grand Canyon.
