Wedding Gown Tea Lovely Event At Club On Saturday

In a beautiful setting, pervaded with the fragrance of many orchard blossoms, flowering quince and early spring flowers, worthy of the fairest bride, the wedding gown tea of the Parent-Teacher association was held at the Colonial club yesterday afternoon and attended by between 300 and 400 guests from all sections of the valley.

The lovely wedding gowns loaned for the occasion were modeled three times during the afternoon by charming young mannequins and tea was served from a bridal table centered with tiny dolls, dressed as the bride and her two flower girls, by Mrs. Lydie Wilcox and Mrs. Charles Thompson.

Nosegays and prayer books, many years old, were much in evidence as the brides-for-a-day, made their appearance, accompanied by the "ohs" and "ahs" of the guests.

The gowns loaned for the tea, were originally worn by Mrs. Myron Waddam Homes, mother of Susanne Homes Carter; Mrs. Theodore Phil, Mrs. Charles Nickell, mother of Philip Lewis Ulrich; Mrs. Margaret Hubbard, Mrs. Kitty Moore, mother of Mrs. Dreda; Mrs. D. W. Luke, Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown, Elizabeth Buxton Cromar, Mary Colvig Warner, Louise White Hedges, Mrs. E. R. Cobb, Mrs. Olen Arnsperger, Mrs. J. F. Gillings, Julia White Kroschel, Mrs. Lina Looker, Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mrs. Edith Warner Patton, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mrs. A. S. Bilton, Mrs. C. C. Lemmon, Mrs. Myron Root, Jewell Bailey Hana, Mrs. Blrk, Mrs. Elliott Butler, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Hilgord Bengtson, Mrs. J. F. Flegel, Mary Edwards Hubbard, Mrs. R. E. Green and Mrs. Sam Heberberg of Buffalo, N. Y. (loaned by Mrs. Harry Prentice).

Acting as models were: Mrs. Jack Heyland, Mrs. W. G. Cusick, Peggy Reiter, Sibyl Dodge, Frankie Ribbar, Jane Dixon, Opal Harvey, Emily Brown, Mary Kern, Evelyn Warner, Ruth Hedges, Leola Bennett, Frances Arnsperger, Sibyl Jean Young, Katherine Chaney, Mildred Drury, Janice Shreve, Mollie Brown, Kathleen Dillard, LaVerne Stephenson, Betty Purdin, Maxine Young, Barbara Lemmon, Marjorie Paley, Virginia Hana, Dorothy Blead, Carol Hill, Jane Robinson, LaMerle Beck and Carol Dodge.

Flower girls were little Misses Nancy Swen, Shirley Dillard, Phyllis Williams and Joan Smith.

Assisting about the rooms during the afternoon were Mesdames Fleida Pease, Peter, Gillings, Stubblefield, Finch, Older, Adams, Bennett, Hoey, Cusick, Carpenter, Wilcox, Herman Ouly, Jones and Smedley.

An interesting musical program of vocal and instrumental numbers was provided by Dorothy Goe, Grace Jo Burnett, Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Mrs. Maurine Duncan, Mrs. Wm. McAllister, and Mrs. Warren Butler.

Pouring at the tea table were Mesdames I. E. Schuler, Edith Patton, Olen Fabrick, J. C. Mann, B. G. Harding and R. E. Green.

On the general committee for the occasion were Mesdames Jack Heyland, Eldon Drysdale, Harry Ribbarger, Dade Terrett, Charles Thompson, Frank Dillard, B. R. Finch, Allen Smith, W. G. Cool, Lyle Thurman, Jack Swen and E. H. Hedrick.

Lovely Ceremony Marks Initiation Of Job's Daughters

At a beautifully impressive ceremony, a large gathering of Masons, Eastern Stars and DeMolays witnessed the initiation of approximately 80 charter members in the newly organized Bethel of Job's Daughters at the Masonic temple here Thursday evening.

Mrs. I. B. Smith of San Francisco, grand guardian, presided at the opening, the initiation and installation as supervising guardian.

Klamath Falls Bethel put on the initiatory work with their officers and members ably exemplifying the work.

Following the initiation of the candidates, Roseburg members installed the officers of the local Bethel with Mrs. Lois Whipple, queen, acting as installing officer, and being assisted by members from the Grants Pass Bethel.

The supreme grand guardian, Mrs. I. B. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Walter Best, past grand guardian of Klamath Falls, Mrs. J. A. Young, grand national, Roseburg; Mrs. Margaret Barlett, Grants Pass and Mrs. Dennis Klamath Falls, installed the council for the Medford Bethel composed of: Mrs. Meta Gilbert, guardian; Dr. L. L. Sanders, associate guardian; Mrs. Carlotta Smith, guardian of the treasury; Miss Arvilla Burns, guardian secretary; Mrs. Elsie Strang, director of music; Mrs. Phena Nordwick, promoter of sociability and Mrs. Marie M. O'Albini, custodian of paraphernalia.

Mrs. Dennis, a past worthy matron of Klamath Falls, presented the new organization with the gavel, which she used during her term as presiding officer of the O. E. S.

A large delegation from Grants Pass, Klamath Falls and Roseburg was present to lend encouragement to the new society.

Much credit is due Mesdames Carlotta Smith, Meta Gilbert, Elsie Strang and Phina Nordwick for their untiring work in promoting the organization of this fraternal order, whose aim is the development of the "purest and best in womanhood."

At the conclusion of the initiation and installation work, the young people enjoyed dancing for a few hours with refreshments being served by the supervising council.

Officers of the Medford Bethel are: Everette Gillespie, queen; Suzette Stennett, sr. princess; Lois Nichols, jr. princess; Virginia English, guide; Louise Elrod, marshal; Patay Smith, chaplain; Pauline Rogers, first messenger; Mary Kern, second messenger; Amy Elliott, third messenger; Ruth D'Albini, first messenger; Patricia Young, sr. custodian; Frances Daily, jr. custodian; Betty Thordike, treasurer; Virginia Lindley, recorder; Dorothy Burgess, pianist; Joan DeLoach, librarian; Jean Leverette, inner guard; Georgia Webb, outer guard.

Mrs. Duff Hostess At Lovely Luncheon

Mrs. R. A. Duff was hostess Friday afternoon at a surprise luncheon, honoring her mother-in-law, Mrs. Duff, Sr., and Mrs. Rose Schieffelin. A color scheme of green and lavender was carried out at the tables and spring flowers were attractively arranged about the room.

Following luncheon, auction and contract bridge were played with prizes going to Mrs. W. H. Smith and Mrs. H. A. DuBouque.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Lawrence Duff.

Miss Perreault Feted at Party

On Wednesday, February 28, Mrs. Jack Perreault entertained at her home on Jacksonville highway with a party honoring her tiny daughter, Jacquelyn Lee, on her second birthday.

The table arrangement was of candy and novelties in pink, centered around a huge pink rose, which formed a grab box of favors, ribbons running from it to each child's place. Refreshments of tri-color ice cream and a large pink birthday cake were served.

Bridge was enjoyed by the mothers during the afternoon.

Birthday Tea At Patton Home Is Pleasant Event

The home of Mrs. Edith Patton on Capitol Hill formed a charming setting Friday afternoon for the annual birthday tea of the Women's association of the Presbyterian church. Spring flowers in yellow and white were arranged on the tables and about the rooms, with aprons and daffodils in predominance.

Sixty-five guests called during the afternoon and an interesting program was presented. Mrs. B. L. Sanderson of Central Point sang "Slave Song" by Del Rigo, and responded to an encore. Edwin E. Warner of Brooklyn, N. Y., father of Mrs. Patton, gave an illustrated talk on his recent trip through South America. Many pictures, showing the home life of the natives, seldom shown in the usual films, were brought to the organization by Mr. Warner.

The musical program included a number of selections from "The Midway," sung by high school students, which were also greatly enjoyed.

Betty Thordike entertained with a musical reading, accompanied at the piano by Constance Moore, and Elsie Carlston Strang completed the program with a vocal solo, after which tea was served.

Catholics Tell Plans for After Easter Festivity

The Associated Catholic societies are among local groups making elaborate plans for the Easter season. They will entertain with a ball at the Knights of Pythias hall on Monday night, April 2.
