Sams Valley Secondary Cage Kings Will Challenge City Winner

CENTRAL POINTERS LOSE, 33 TO 26, IN PLAYOFF CONTEST

Team Touted to Take Rural Crown Nosed Out in Closely Contested Tilt — Valleyites Wizard Shots

New possibilities are looming in the district basketball championship as a result of last night's victory of the Sams Valley high school over Central Point by the score of 33 to 26 in a hotly contested secondary league play-off game.

The two schools had split a two-game series played Friday and Saturday and came to the junior high school floor to battle off the tie. The Sams Valley quintet, a group of dazzling sharpshooters, will challenge the winner of the Medford-Ashland games this week.

Central Point had been generally given the edge to take the valley players, but failed to live up to their past season record which had not been marred by defeat. Nervousness and anxiety to take the county championship of the secondary schools are largely attributed to the Pointers' defeat.

C. P. Takes Early Lead.

Central Point took an early lead of 7 to 4 at the end of the first quarter and increased it to 13 to 4 during the second quarter, but at the end of the first half, the lead was cut to 15 to 13. The teams battled hard during the second half, Central Point leading Sams Valley by a point only to fall behind by one point. The lead would be regained only to be lost again by a single counter. The game stood at 26 to 24 against the Pointers for a few minutes, but Sams Valley again made a field goal while their opponents were able to garner only one more basket before the game ended.

Valleyites Wizard Shots.

Before the final whistle, the Valley quintet sank two or three more baskets and ½ free throw to make a total of 33. Central Point, which had won Saturday night by a score of 36 to 15, was unable to hit a winning stride and missed numerous attempts. The Sams Valley basketeers made field goals from uncanny distances and angles, with Dusenberry making one almost from the center of the floor.

The Valley boys are coached by G. W. Ayres, while Mickey McGuire has been handling the Pointers the past season.

HAWLEY DECIDES AGAINST RUNNING

SALEM, March 6.—(AP)—Former Congressman Willis C. Hawley has decided not to be a candidate for congress at the next election, the Oregon Statesman said this morning. The continued illness of Mrs. Hawley led to his decision, the paper stated.

Hawley represented this district in the national congress for 25 years until 1933 when he was succeeded by James W. Mott, who won the Republican nomination in a close race in 1932.

Announced candidates in the field to date are Congressman Mott and J. M. Devers, highway commission attorney, for the Republican nomination, and John D. Goss of Marshfield and R. R. Turner of Dallas, Democrats.

Ye Poet's Corner

My First Valentine.

Stealing softly through a tangled maze
Of a long chain of Memory's yesterdays,
There comes a picture that is very fair,
It's a little boy with wind-blown hair.

Very small, and alone, on the step he stands,
As I go to meet him, he holds out his hands,
While waves of scarlet dye his cheeks bright red.
"Here's a Valentine I brought you," proudly he said.

A big red heart, bound round with paper lace;
A tinseled arrow stuck in the right place.
I raised delighted eyes, "What it says is true,"
He cried, and ran. Then I read: "I luv yu."

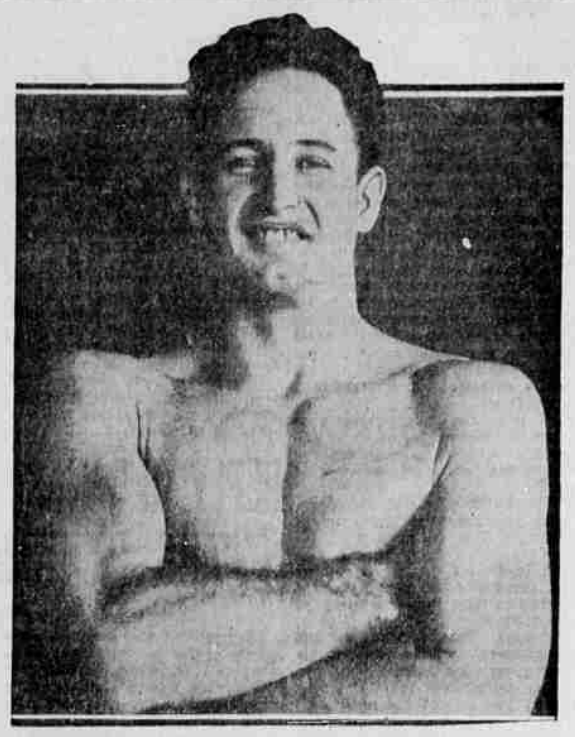
The years have flown by, some happy, some sad,
But I have never forgotten the little lad
Who gave me a thrill that long ago time,
When he gave me my first real Valentine. —Amy Ruth Thom.

LAURENS, S. C. March 6. — (AP) — J. L. Rush, 50, killed his wife and three daughters today and then burned their home around his own body.

At a coroner's inquest meager evidence indicated Rush killed his wife and daughters with an axe and then shot himself after setting the home afire, officials announced.

The dead were, Rush, his wife Cynthia, 45, and Helen 16, Ruth, 13, and Ruby, 11.

Who's Afraid of Wolfe?



LES GRIMES, Australian wrestler, who specializes in a combination body scissors and arm hold, will meet Les Wolfe, Texas exponent of the rolling scissors, in the main event of Thursday night's wrestling bill at the armory.

NEW BRIDGE VALUATION ANNOUNCED BY EXPERTS

NEW QORK, March 6.—(AP)—Seven high ranking contract bridge experts today announced a new method of valuation of a hand.

"This table has been tested by us through months of successful rubber and tournament play and has been found to be 100 per cent accurate," said a statement signed by David Burnstine, Richard L. Frey, Michael T. Gottlieb, Oswald Jacoby, Howard Schenken, Edward Hemes, Jr., and Waldemar von Zedtwitz.

An act has a value of 3, a king 2, a queen 1 and a jack ½. The total high card value of the pack is 26 and the average hand has a value of 6½.

Depending on distribution, the bidding is not opened, especially in first or second position, unless the hand has a value of 9 or 9½. It takes a count of 11 to open the auction with one no trump.

The table is used primarily to form an initial, general idea as to the offensive strength of a hand.

SEATS ADDED AS WRESTLING BOUTS DRAW AT ARMORY

Because the past few wrestling cards at the armory have caused a sell-out of seats on the main floor, Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that he is arranging for additional ringside seats for next Thursday's show. The high class matches being staged here weekly have gained a great following among the fans and the grip and groan industry is now enjoying the greatest popularity ever experienced locally.

In next Thursday's show Les Grimes, Australian star, will try to fasten his combination scissors and arm hold on Les Wolfe, the Texan, while the latter will be looking for a chance to hook his rolling scissors on the man from down under. The pair will wrestle in one-half of the dual main event, with Jack Kogut, Toronto, and Charlie Hanson, Seattle in the other half.

Both Kogut and Hanson are big time matmen with plenty of speed, tricks and holds and this match should produce plenty of action. Kogut is a master of the Sonnenberg and has demonstrated his prowess in that art here in previous matches.

Lillard is angling for a third match for a curtain raiser between a highly touted Grants Pass high school lad and some worthy adversary.

GOLD HILL PLANS BASKET TOURNEY

GOLD HILL, March 6.—(Spl.)—The second annual independent basketball tournament is being planned for Gold Hill, March 16 and 17. Invitations are extended to all independent teams of the valley. Entries should be sent to Bill Hammersly, Gold Hill.

Last year 12 teams entered the tournament and a larger number of teams are expected this year. Among the teams to be in the playoff are St. Mary's All-Stars, South Methodists and Drop Seats, all of Medford; Central Point Townies, Sams Valley, Jacksonville and Gold Hill Townies, Lang Rangers and 20-30 club of Grants Pass, Applegate CCC team, Spartans A. C. and several other teams from Ashland.

Jackson Co. CWA Cut Is Ordered

Effective March 8, the Jackson county CWA quota will be cut from 495 to 393, the local administration was informed in advice from headquarters late yesterday. A more drastic cut was announced earlier in the day.

GOLD HILL HIGH WINS INVITATION BASKET TOURNEY

GOLD HILL, Ore., March 6.—(Spl.)—The Gold Hil high school Beavers won the invitational baaketball tournament here Saturday evening by defeating Rogue River in the championship game, 32-13. Ashland Junior high took third place by winning from Eagle Point, 28-25. In the games Friday night Rogue River beat Ashland Junior high, 17-14, and Gold Hill won from Eagle Point, 23-22.

After the championship game Saturday evening the Gold Hill Garden club entertained players and their coaches at a banquet served at the Odd Fellows hall. Between 40 and 50 players, coaches and members of the Gold Hill chamber of commerce, sponsors of the tournament, attended. Appropriate awards were given the winning teams and individual awards were given the players.

A. A. Walker, president of the Gold Hill chamber of commerce, acted as toastmaster at the banquet and called on the officials and coaches for short talks.

It is planned to hold similar tournaments in future years.

KLICK AND ROSS BATTLE DRAW IN HIGH SPEED BOUT

San Francisco Boy Makes Good Showing Against Lightweight Champion — 10,000 Fans Cheer Go

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—(AP)—Frankie Klick, sturdy little ring charger of San Francisco, who holds the junior lightweight title, had a 10-round draw to his credit today with Barney Ross of Chicago, world's lightweight champion. Ross' lightweight crown was not at stake.

In the face of 2½ odds favoring Ross, the showing of the San Francisco boy in making a close battle of it was one of the highlights of a ring setto last night that had 10,000 fans cheering wildly from start to finish.

Klick's stirring rallies in the last two rounds apparently influenced Referee Toby Irwin's decision to call it an even affair. Ringside experts varied in their opinions. The Associated Press' score sheet gave Ross five rounds, with four to Klick and one even.

They went through the 10 rounds at top speed. Ross' boxing was clearly superior, but he was unable to perfect a good defense against his opponent's solid rights to the body. The Chicagoan's left side was bruised and battered after the bout.

Although he won the 130-pound title from Kid Chocolate, Klick outweighed Ross at 138 pounds to 137½. Ross is recognized as junior welterweight titleholder in Illinois and California and he risked this synthetic crown which Klick failed to lift.

After a fairly even first session, Klick landed cleaner punches to take the second. Ross outboxed his rival to win the next four and the eighth. The San Franciscan had an edge in the seventh, ninth and tenth with jolting body blows.

Gross receipts were $16,376.

JACKSON FLOPS CHINESE TWICE

PORTLAND, Ore., March 6.—(AP)—A capacity crowd saw Bulldog Jackson take two falls out of three from Walter Achiu in a middleweight grapple here last night.

Billy Stepp of Portland was the third man in the ring.

Achiu used flying tackles and a body press to take the first fall, but fell prey to two Boston crab holds after a seige of Jackson's usual rough assault.

One fall apiece went to Cowboy Heinz, 161 Burns, and Ken Hollis, 167, New Orleans, in a one-hour match. Art Perkins, 162 Detroit, took the deciding fall from Jack Curtis, 158, Jackson, Miss. Totem Pole Anderson, 160, Fort Lewis, took a one-fall opener from Beanpole Larry, 165, Great Falls.

SALEM, March 6.—(AP)—The busiest session of the state board of control in recent months was held here today at which time authorizations affecting virtually every state institution and purchase of more than $250,000 worth of material for the state highway commission was approved.

A report of the state flax industry during the present administration showing reduction of deficit at the penitentiary institution and increase in balance on hand of about $170,000 was given by William Einsig, secretary of the board, at the conclusion of which Governor Julius . Meier said "You are stealing the thunder of my second address to the people next Saturday night."

Institutional heads, present at the session, reported virtually without exception, an increase in population taxing all institutions, and an increase in the price of food materials. Indications were the 1935 legislature would be called upon to appropriate funds for additional buildings and facilities for the increasing population.

Warrants Called.

SALEM, March 6. — (AP) — A call was issued today by the state treasurer, for warrants marked not paid for want of funds, dated from December 21 to January 4, inclusive, and amounting to $338,410.
