THE GRANGE

Bellview Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m., with a large crowd of grangers and friends present for the program.

The meeting was opened by group singing and two numbers by the harmonica band. The remainder of the program hour was given over to W. E. Davies, master of the Eagle Point Grange, who explained the sales tax and its effect in regard to grange principles.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank of Eagle Point were also present. Mrs. Brockway of Jacksonville Grange was also present, and several from Talent Grange.

The business meeting followed with the first and second degrees conferred upon a large class. A vote of thanks was extended the dramatic committee and the play cast which with the county contest and placed second in the state with "The Dear Departed."

The next meeting will feature the third and fourth degree work with special staff. The officers of the grange put on a special drill and degree work for the first and second degrees.

Home economics committee for next meeting is Mr. and Mrs. Noel Beard, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Huxley, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Homes, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heim, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland and Geo. Helms.

SOLONS CAN KEEP RUM BOARD JOBS

SALZM, March 8.-(AP)-A. A. Price and Levi Currah, members of the state legislature employed by the state liquor commission, are eligible to hold their present position and receive salaries...

The opinion was requested by P. J. Stedman, secretary of state, who had withheld warrants due the two men because they were members of the legislature which created the liquor law and the ensuing positions.

The opinion stated that provisions in the state constitution set out that members of the legislature could not hold another office while in office. His present occupation the men are considered as employees.

ABRAMS' FRIENDS BOOST CANDIDACY

SALZM, March 8.-(AP)-In support of the candidacy of Colonel Carl Abrams for secretary of state, a group of Salem citizens last night formed an Abrams-for-secretary-of-state club...

Members announced an aggressive campaign will be conducted out of Salem offices. Col. Abrams stated he intended to visit every county in the state between now and the primary election. Generous offers of support have come from all quarters. It was reported, following his announcement of candidacy last week.

A distinction claimed for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Deane of Fairbanks, Alaska, was that he was born when the thermometer registered 66 below zero, the coldest day in 80 years.

Santa Cruz, Cal., beach bathers were surprised to see a deer swimming several hundred yards off shore followed by a flock of seagulls. Local naturalists said deer frequently take to salt water to rid themselves of ticks and fleas.

Tokyo residents consumed 1,500,000 boxes of oranges in 10 days, a survey disclosed.

The 1934 tobacco crop in Cuba is expected to be the smallest in many years, due to adverse weather and financial conditions.
