DECISION MONDAY ON PLAYING LAST GAME OF SERIES

Medford Defeats Ashland 26-24 in Overtime Tilt by Teamwork and All-Around Brilliant Playing

No decision will be reached until Monday by Medford and Ashland school authorities, on the place and date for playing the final and deciding game of the series to decide the Southern Oregon conference championship. Medford's victory Friday night, leaves each team with a game won.

Cochurch Burgher and other local school officials were non-committal Saturday, on their attitude, but indicated a final decision would be forthcoming by noon Monday.

The coach said he understood the Lithians were planning a protest against Sam Van Dyke, Medford forward.

There are a number of points to be "ironed out."

The Medford high school basketball team—given the proverbial Chinaman's chance to win, because of the wrecking of its first string by an allowed protest by Ashland high—defeated its bitterest athletic rival, in a three minute overtime period 23 to 24, Friday night, before the largest crowd of the season.

A sweeter or more thrilling victory never came to a Medford athletic squad. Teamwork gave them the edge.

Medford, with but two regulars in the line-up, out-played the Lithians throughout the entire second half, to overcome a 15 to 8 half-time lead, tied the score three times, and went into the extra period with the score knotted at 24-24.

Forward Sam Van Dyke, dropped in the winning basket, after colorful playing throughout the hard-fought contest. The shuffling star, got the range early in the second half, and contributed floorwork and points to his team.

Ability to convert free throws, gave Ashland a substantial lead, at the end of the first half. The Medford team was jittery. Several times potential rallies were halted by Ashland calling time out. When this subterfuge was exhausted, the Burghermesters quickly tied the score, and battled on even terms until end of the regular period.

The Ashland squad was plainly jittery—the protest of their school head, not meeting with their approval either.

At the start of the second half, Medford started a persistent drive under the generalship of Max Gallinsky and Tommy White. The two regulars calmed down their teammates. Gallinsky contributed a sensational mid-field shot, and White dropped in two baskets in a row. Captain White's and Gallinsky's coolness was an important factor in the win.

Ashland started confidently, and had run up eight points before Medford registered. The first quarter ended 8 to 4 in favor of Ashland. The half ended 15 to 8 in their favor.

SAMS VALLEY IS BEATEN, 33-22, IN ASHLAND FINALS

Reedsport Defeats Rogue River in Consolation Tilt — Chilcoquin Wins Third Place in Normal Tourney

The southern Oregon secondary basketball championship was won last night by Central Point high school, when the team defeated the Sams Valley basketweavers in the finals at the Southern Oregon Normal school to the tune of 33 to 22. Chilcoquin took third place in the conference by defeating Madras and Reedsport won the consolation game from Rogue River.

Central Point, which had been defeated last Monday night by Sams Valley in the game played in this city, gained a lead over the valley boys before the end of the first quarter and maintained it until the end of the game.

The Sams Valley team, which had played several spectacular games this season, appeared disorganized in the final windup, sports fans stated, and failed to get going until the last shot sounded.

The victory will entitle Central Point to play the winner of the southern Oregon district championship. The game between Ashland and Medford to determine the latter has not yet been scheduled.

SCHWAMMEL SIGNS PRO TEAM TERMS

GREEN BAY, Wis., March 10.—(AP)—Adolph John Schwammel of Oregon State, one of the outstanding linemen in Pacific Coast college circles last year, was signed today to play with the Green Bay Packers football club. Schwammel, a tackle, was named on the first Associated Press All-American team last season. He will be graduated from Oregon State in June.

GOLF TOURNEY IN JULY FOR WOMEN

PORTLAND, Ore., March 10.—(AP)—The first all-Oregon women's golf championship tournament will be held here July 16 to 21, it was announced today.

Mrs. J. C. Mathis, chairman, announced the tournament would be at the Alderwood country club. The tournament, sponsored jointly by the Oregon Women's Golf association and the Oregon Women's Public Links association, is open to all players with a handicap of 30 or under.

HUSKIES VICTORS IN EXTRA PERIOD TILT WITH TROJANS

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 10.—(AP)—In a wild, hard-fought overtime contest which saw five players ejected on fouls, Washington evicted the Pacific coast conference basketball championship series here tonight by defeating Southern California, 43 to 41. It was a close battle from start to finish. The Trojans held a 20-17 lead at half time, but Washington pulled up even with five minutes to go when Bob Galer, star forward of the Huskies, dropped in a basket from deep in the court. They saw-sawed back and forth with Washington in command the greater share of the way. In the dying seconds of the regular contest, Harold Posa, substitute center, tied the score again, sending the game into overtime.

The Trojans took the lead at the start of the five minute overtime period when Posa again tipped one in from under the basket but Captain Hal Lee and Jack Hanover made good on three free throws to put the Huskies in a lead they never relinquished.

Cochurch He Edmundsen's quintet played a brilliant floor game, out-speeding the methodical Trojans most of the way. Southern California, with its attack built around Lee Gutters, played its usual methodical game, with the tall, rubber-legged center scoring six field goals and a half dozen charity tosses to claim high scoring honors.

He was out on personal fouls, however, before the overtime period started, as was Captain Sax Elliott, which handicapped Coach Sam Barry's five.

The Washington players ejected from the wild scramble were Galer, who went out in the overtime period, Don Wyman and Clyde Wagner.

Washington's victory sent the series into a third game which will be played here Monday night, since the Trojans won the first contest last night, 27 to 25.

FRISCO TO STAGE 6-DAY BIKE RACE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—(AP)—Six day bicycle racing will be revived here tomorrow night after an absence of 17 years.

Fifteen two man teams, including several riders known wherever the sport is held, will compete on the wooden saucer constructed in the civic auditorium. The get-away will be at 10 p. m.

BASEBALL

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—(AP)—The Portland Beavers thumped the Ventura Merchants, semi-pro nine, by a score of 22 to 2 in an exhibition game here today, and in so doing held most of their regulars in reserve for tomorrow's affair with the Pittsburgh Pirates at Paso Robles.

Rainfall in Houston, Tex., in January, 1934, totaled 9.94 inches, the heaviest January precipitation in 43 years.

BEND SKYLINERS TO TAKE PART IN CRATER CARNIVAL

The participation of members of the Cascade Ski club of Portland, the Bend Skyliners, the Vancouver, B. C. ski club and the Shasta Snowmen has been assured. Glen Fabrick, president of the Rogue Snowmen, reported last evening following his return from a conference with officials of the second annual Crater Lake Winter Sports Carnival, March 18. The carnival, to be held at Government Camp, will attract the greatest array of ski artists ever gathered in southern Oregon.

John Hyrum of the Cascade club, holder of the amateurs' long distance record of 242 feet, will be one of the best known contestants of the class A ski jumping event. He will find keen competition in the presence of Alfred Orin, Minnesota, former national championship holder and winner of over 44 prizes and loving cups. Hjalmar Hyam, also holder of national titles, will take active part in the jumping contest.

Included among the delegation from Mt. Shasta are Robert Hyam, brother of Hjalmar, a maker of consistent long distances, and will be accompanied to Crater Lake by fellow jumpers, Pete Peterson, Larry Evanson, Mark Olson, Fink Lambert, Harnie Carlberg and others. There will be seven or eight jumpers from Bend, including Ole Amth, Anton Ring, Olaf Skjersna and others whose names have often figured in winter tourneys.

Jumpers from southern Oregon are practicing and include Magnus Hansen, Alf Ostmo, Carl Ranstrom, Pete Yancey and others.

Preparations for the jump are steadily going ahead and when completed for next Sunday's meet will make leaps of nearly 400 feet in length possible. Orin, former champ, now at the lake said yesterday the jump has ultimate possibilities of 500 feet leaps, 25 feet farther than any jump that has ever been made.

Members of the Rogue Snowmen are at Government Camp today working with members of the Crater Lake Ski club to complete the ski jump. All members of the local snow organization and others are urged to take part in the work today.

Preparations for the racing events are also steadily going forward attracting contestants of national repute who will vie with each other over an eight-mile course in the A class. A four mile course will be used by B class contestants. Further details of these events will be announced this week.

The carnival is being sponsored as a cooperative effort by the Bend Skyliners, Rogue Snowmen, the Crater Lake Ski club and the chambers of commerce of Medford and Klamath Falls, and is the last one of the season in the west. The array of talent provides southern Oregon with the opportunity of seeing its first major snow meet.

While snow is still over five feet deep at Government Camp, the National Park Service is providing ample parking space for hundreds of cars. An advance sale of tickets will be begun by the local Snowmen this week.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 10.—(AP)—Laura Ingalls, American flier, took off at 3 a. m. today for the Canal Zone. She arrived here last night after a flight from Mexico.

DUGDALE, BELOVED BASEBALL FIGURE OF COAST, CALLED

SEATTLE, March 10.—(AP)—Sportsmen of the northwest today mourned the death of Daniel E. Dugdale, 68, one of the best loved baseball men of this territory.

He died after having been injured by a truck as he was crossing a street. The coroner's office today started an investigation of the statement of A. A. Peterson, who drove the city light department truck, and said the accident was unavoidable.

Mr. Dugdale was appointed to the last Washington State legislature. His baseball career started in the "Three-eyes" League in Illinois, and then he was a catcher for Washington, Detroit and Boston. He owned the Seattle franchise in the old Northwest league, and continued his interest in baseball until his death.

PORTLAND, March 10.—(AP)—Fielder A. Jones, 63, who managed the Chicago White Sox in the American baseball league from 1903 to 1908, was reported dangerously ill in a hospital here today. He is suffering from inflammation of the membrane surrounding the heart and his condition has been serious for two or three days, his physician said.

Hope, however, is held for his recovery. Jones, who received his first professional baseball experience in the Oregon State league in 1893, has lived in Portland since his retirement 24 years ago.

He played in the outfield for the White Sox from 1900 to 1908, managing the club the last five years of that date. He later was manager of the St. Louis team in the Federal league. Before joining the Chicago club he played with Brooklyn of the National league.

CCC HURLER AND GIANTS LIKED BY MISSIONS CHIEF

WOODLAND, Calif., March 10.—(AP)—Two thousand miles away from the scenes of his greatest baseball triumphs, Charles "Gabby" Street sighted an imaginary telescope into the training camps of the National league clubs today to come up with the double prediction the Giants would win the pennant again and that Brooklyn was "a safe bet to finish last."

The "Ol Sarge," who won a world's series and two National league pennants for the St. Louis Cardinals, is tackling his new job as manager of the San Francisco Missions with all the enthusiasm of a college freshman.

He's back in the minors now. But he will keep a weather eye cocked on the race in the national circuit, in which for many years he was a dominant figure.

The latest rookie to stumble into the Mission training camp caught Gabby's eye. "Lift that big hoof higher and keep the ball in close," he barked at the 6 foot 2 1/2 inch tall 216-pound recruit pitcher. "Write that big fellow's name in your future book. His name is John Rohr. His home is in Medina, Wis., but he has been working in a CCC camp near Klamath Falls, Ore. He has the fastest ball I've looked at since Walter Johnson pitched to me."

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(AP)—J. N. Darling, newspaper cartoonist of Des Moines, was appointed today by Secretary Wallace as chief of the bureau of biological survey.

NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—(AP)—Hickory Lad, ridden by Jockey J. Westrope, won the $3500 Louisiana derby this afternoon at the fair grounds.

AUTO RACERS GET ORDERS TO NAME PRESS ATTACKERS

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—(AP)—The ultimatum of some race figures against the publication of wreck and funeral pictures was matched today by a district attorney's warning that he would interfere with every automobile racing program here if the men who mistreated a reporter and a photographer last Wednesday did not surrender.

The counter-ultimatum of the prosecutor, Buron Pitts, came after kidnaping complaints had been issued against Babe Stapp, nationally known driver, Al Reinke, prominent in Pacific coast racing circles, and a third man whose identity was withheld on charges that they set upon James Lee, reporter for the Los Angeles Examiner, and John Bennis, a photographer.

The asserted altercation occurred at the funeral of Ernie Triplett, famous driver, who was killed at Imperial, Calif., on Sunday. Pitts said there were others involved in the slugging of Bennis and the destruction of his camera and he set a time limit of 10 a. m. Monday for their surrender. If they fail to show up, he said he would send detectives to a speedway here and arrest every one connected with the racing machines, parading them before Bennis and Lee for identification.

Bennis and Lee were forced into automobiles and delivered to the Examiner offices, where executives of the newspaper were warned against printing additional pictures.

Reed Gets Draw. SALT LAKE CITY, March 10.—(AP)—Robin Reed of Reedsport, Ore., could get no better than a draw in his wrestling match here with Delbert Kunkel of Salt Lake City. Each weighed 158 pounds.

ASTORIA GOES TO SALEM TOURNEY

ASTORIA, Ore., March 10.—(AP)—The Astoria high fishermen are going to the state basketball tournament, as usual.

Tonight the fishermen tuned up for the state classic at Willamette university by defeating Scappoose 51 to 5 in the district championship final. Scappoose had played upset ball to reach the final, but fell flat against the flying fishermen.

Trophies were presented to the Astoria and Scappoose teams by E. D. Towler, Astoria high school principal, who was chairman of the district board.

Roy S. "Spec" Keene, coach of Willamette university and director of its big basketball show, urged the large crowd to attend the state meet.

Sarpola again was high scorer for Astoria with 13 points. Ganesa, the other forward, scored 12 points and Risaman, center, scored 10.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 10.—(AP)—The Columbia Prep basketball team tonight qualified for entrance into the state high school basketball tournament at Willamette university by defeating St. Stephens 36 to 25 in the district final here tonight.

O'Donnell, star center, led the offensive of the colorful Irish Preps with 15 points.

The Irish have won 22 games of 26 played this season, the best for them in recent years. Teams defeated by Columbia include Jefferson, Commerce, Benson twice, Grant and Roosevelt, all of Portland, Hood River and McMinnville. The quintet has scored more than 700 points.

Free Style Mark. PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—(AP)—Matthew Chrostotaki, of Providence Central high school, 1 overed the world record in winning the third heat of the 50 yards free style swim today in the annual invitation interscholastic swimming championships.

Judith Lane

by JEANNE BOWMAN

"The last will and testament of Tom Bevins"—Judith dimly heard the words by which her former employer made her the heiress to five million dollars, gave her control of his far-flung enterprises, and threw on her slim shoulders a cruel burden.

Her hand held Tom Bevins' last request, private instructions for administering his affairs, Judith knew it meant strife, heartbreak and perhaps an end to the romance with Norman Dale. For somehow, Judith sensed that her husband would not be at her side in the bitter finish-fight with the Bevins family, a widow and daughter grasping for a dead man's dollars and willing to let his ideals crumble to dust.

Around this situation, JEANNE BOWMAN has written a dramatic story of the girl who was willing to sacrifice home, husband and friends, risk disgrace and failure—because she was loyal to a trust.
