WHEAT SOARS ON SILVER ACTION

CHICAGO, March 10.—(AP)—Silver action in congress today had magical results on the wheat market, shooting prices skyward two cents a bushel before speculators could catch their breath. Frenzied buying that whirled the wheat trade into buoyancy came just before the final hour of grain business and followed bulletins from Washington saying the house committee had voted favorably on a bill to exchange exports of agricultural products for silver. Throughout the remainder of the day, the wheat market continued strong, ending at the topmost point reached.
