GATES COMPANY IS DISTRIBUTOR OF FORD PARTS

The C. E. Gates Auto company of this city has been appointed by the Ford Motor company a wholesale distributor of genuine Ford parts for southern Oregon, according to an announcement yesterday by C. E. "Pop" Gates. This is in line with the new policy recently established by the Ford company and will give garages and fleet owners the same discount on Ford parts they have been purchasing from other parts houses. Arthur Gorham, in charge of the parts department of the C. E. Gates Auto company, has been selected as salesman and will call upon the trade at once in a new-type sales and delivery car, according to Mr. Gates.

ABBAY IS AGENT NEW TRUCK LINE

Walter W. Abbey, Inc., has been selected as representative in this section of Oregon for the International Harvester company. Although this well known Medford firm assumed the dealership a month ago, complete arrangements were perfected last week when J. M. Callahan, company representative from Eugene, was in Medford. A complete line of International trucks will be handled by Abbey in conjunction with Graham and Nash motor cars. Service for International trucks w. also be featured in the repair department of the Medford firm. Indicative of the up-turn in general business conditions here, five International trucks were sold and delivered last month by the Walter W. Abbey company.

TABLE ROCK HAS LADIOLA FARM

TABLE ROCK, March 9. (Sp.) - A new industry for this district is the growing of gladiola bulbs for marketing purposes. Grants Pass and Medford bulb growers have recently leased quite a large acreage of pumace soil here and at present have some dozen men at work preparing the soil and planting the small bulbs. Mr. Rainey, an experienced grower, is planting a field on the Seabrook farm, which he says will be used along with his Grants Pass field to fill his many orders. Sixty per cent of his expected crop was contracted for last fall. One car load was sold by Mr. Rainey to Seattle parties and brought a gross return of $25,000.

Evangelist Will Provide Evening Of Entertainment

On Monday evening at the Christian church, Evangelist D. Loyd Morgan will present a program of popular readings, impersonation, magic, to which the public is invited. No admission will be charged, but an offering will be taken. The program will begin at 7:45 p. m. Mr. Morgan has entertained various groups during his stay in Medford and Monday night's program is looked forward to with pleasure by all who have heard him. His program will include the famous "Chariot Race" from Ben Hur, "The First Settler's Story" by Will Carlton, and a nine-character impersonation, "The Debating Society," besides various other readings and character impersonations. The latter part of the evening will be taken up with a series of magic mysteries, including the world-famous Hindu rope mystery and many other feats of magic. Rebekahs are requested to meet at the I. ENDEAVORER'S PLAN FOR STATE CONFAB

Christian Endeavorers of the First Christian church are now looking forward to the state convention in Salem, beginning Thursday, April 19, and lasting through Sunday, April 22. This society won second prize in the poster contest at last year's convention in Eugene. Of the 68 who went from the Crater Lake Union, 22 were sent from this society. Marjorie Gregory will lead next Sunday's meeting beginning at 6:30. The topic will be "What Did Religion Mean to Jesus?" Mr. Rev. W. R. Baird will give a vocal solo. Last Sunday's meeting was led by Ralph Cook with over 31 young people attending. Massie Nominated Grants Pass P. M. WARRINGTON, March 10. (AP) - Bernhard L. Hagemann was today nominated for postmaster at Portland and Carl H. Massie for postmaster at Grants Pass. TULARE, Calif., March 10. (UP) - An inspector for the state board of embalmers alleged that Walter Rice, prominent Tulare undertaker, buried the body of a baby in a cardboard box but charged the family for a casket. He correctly concealed in an artist's model by Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann.
