Double Main Event Wrestling Card at Medford Armory Tonight

FRISBIE, GRIMES, HANSEN, BROOKS TO SHOW WARES

double main event wreatling card will be staged at the armory tonight by Promoter Mack Lillard with the probability that local fans will see some highly entertaining muscle mangling. Les Grimes, Australian, who put on a great show here a week ago against Les Wolfe, will tangle with McGord's pride. Pireman Ray Frisble, and the fraces should be one for the book. Grimes has a bag full of unorthodox tricks and, in addition, is a temperamental matman who gets plenty rough when the going is hard, Frisble is big enough and rough enough to give the Australian lots of action and has no compunction about dishing out punishment when a fee wants to "play that way." will wristle one hour or two out of three fails. Swede Anderson, also a Medford fireman, will referee.

In the other half of the bill. Charile Hansen, colorful Sentile heavyweight, will face Rocky Brooks, Canadian strong man, in an hour's grapple. Brooks refereed here last week and made a big hit with the cash customers. He has tremendous strength and is fast and aggressive. He is able to break holds by sheer power and, according to advance notices, should give the Seattle star plenty of trouble.

To whet the appetite of the ticket holders, Promoter Lillard has algued up a pair of amateur light heavies. Its Towne and Henry Gunter of Grants Pass, who will stage a pre-liminary match of three three-minute rounds. These boys are fast and have a good knowledge of the game.
