

YOUNG FILM PLAYERS POSE FOR GROUP PHOTO

Fourteen of the 25 girls, chosen for beauty and intelligence, who were recently placed under contract by a Hollywood studio are pictured on the "lot" where their careers will begin. Rear row, left to right: Edith Haskins, Duluth, Minn.; Patricia Lee, Hollywood; Florine Dixon, San Bernardino, Cal.; Marian Welton, Duluth; Virginia Hills, Salt Lake City; Lynn Bari, Roanoke, Va., and Iris Shunn, Sioux City, Ia. Front row: Phillipa Hilber, Los Angeles; Patsy Farr, Kansas City; Shirley Aaronson, Fresno, Cal.; Ann Nagel, Malden, Mass.; Anita Thompson, Dallas, Tex.; Nadine Dore, San Jose, Cal., and Marbeth Wright, Houston, Tex. (Associated Press Photo)

SPORTS WORLD MOURNS DEATH OF JOHN M'GRAW

Here are three typical poses of John J. M'Graw, for years manager of the New York Giants, whose death brought tributes from sports leaders throughout the nation. At left he is shown in a characteristic pose at the horse races in Havana, where he vacationed. But he was best remembered as the belligerent manager of the Giants (center), while the old-timers recall how he looked (right) when he joined the Giants 30 years ago. (Associated Press Photos)

SMART OUTFITS FOR SPRING

For early spring, the diagonal tweed coat at left is one of the latest models. Designed by Helen Cookman, it is black and white, with a large wolf collar. At right is a tailored wool suit of brown and mustard mixture, with a flattering fox collar, and brass buttons. The beret, gloves and purse are in matching brown. The outfit is worn by Claire Trevor of the films. (Associated Press Photos)

NOMINATED FOR BEST FILM PERFORMANCE AWARD

The award for the best film performance of any actress in 1933 will go to one of the stars shown here. These three (left to right), Diana Wynyard, May Robson and Katharine Hepburn, were nominated by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, the winner to be decided by votes of academy members. Each is shown as she appears in real life and in the role which brought her the nomination—Miss Wynyard in "Calvacado"; Miss Robson in "Lady For A Day," and Miss Hepburn in "Morning Glory." (Associated Press Photos)

GOVERNOR VISITS STATE'S PRISON

Gov. James Rolph, Jr., (right) talking to Jack Green, convicted in Los Angeles in the slaying of a policeman, during a surprise visit at San Quentin, Cal. Green was granted eight reprieves before the governor commuted his death sentence to life imprisonment. His parents of Salt Lake City pleaded with the governor for the commutation. (Associated Press Photo)

Newlyweds Return For 'A Simple Life'

"And now we're going back to Hollywood and lead a simple life," said Cary Grant, film star, and his bride, the former Virginia Cherrill, also of the films, when they arrived in New York from London. They were wed two days before they sailed. (Associated Press Photo)

HE TELEPHONED THE WHITE HOUSE!

Sylvester Harris, negro of Lowndes county, Miss., has plenty to be happy about. Recently he telephoned President Roosevelt in a plea to save his home from mortgage foreclosure, and a few days later an extension was granted on the mortgage. Here's Sylvester, with his mule, in front of his farm house near Columbus, Miss. (Associated Press Photo)

MEXICAN EMPEROR'S COACH AT ARIZONA FESTIVAL

Juanita Love of Tucson, Ariz., couldn't resist trying out the cushions of this coach when it was brought from Hermosilla, Senora, Mexico for the annual cowboy celebration. It was first used by Emperor Maximilian of Mexico and was the official coach of all of the republic's presidents until Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles turned to swifter means of transportation. (Associated Press Photo)

DEPOT MASSACRE SUSPECT CAUGHT

Ed Davis, outlaw, sought as one of the perpetrators of the Kansas City railroad station massacre of four officers and a prisoner last June was captured in Los Angeles. Davis escaped from the Kansas prison last May. Two companions were arrested with him. Left to right: Davis, William Morris and John Richards. Two women were also arrested in the raid. (Associated Press Photo)

HERE'S AN ACTION PICTURE OF DAKOTA BANK HOLDUP

This remarkable news picture shows a street corner scene at Sioux Falls, S. D., when a machine gunner held a policeman and bystander at bay while confederates robbed the Security National Bank and Trust company of $46,000 in cash. Arrow indicates scene of his action. The robbers held hundreds of townspeople at bay, wounded a policeman and forced five persons to accompany them for some distance as hostages to avoid gunfire by pursuers. (Associated Press Photo)

CAPITAL DRINKS LEGAL COCKTAILS AGAIN

Cocktail parties were the order of the day in Washington as the selling of liquor became legal there for the first time since the war. Society leaders gathered at the new cocktail rooms of various hotels. Shown at one of them, from left to right, are: Mrs. George Mather, Laura Barkley, daughter of Senator Barkley of Kentucky; Mrs. Helen Hagner (the hostess), Mary E. MacArthur, Mrs. Bowmar MacArthur and Mary Stuart Birdeall. (Associated Press Photo)

WHERE DARTMOUTH STUDENTS DIED

Nine Dartmouth college students died in the Theta Chi fraternity house (above) at Hanover, N. J., from carbon monoxide gas which swept through the 16-room house after a coal gas explosion apparently blew open the furnace doors and disconnected a chimney pipe. (Associated Press Photo)

Army Pilot Killed In Ohio Snow Crash

Pilot Otto Wlencecke of the army airmail service, flying from Newark to Cleveland, crashed to his death during a snowstorm near Chardon, O. The plane was destroyed, but 10 bags of mail were saved. (Associated Press Photo)

AUTO HEIRESS TO WED PRINCE

Carol Marmon, only child of Gen. Howard C. Marmon, millionaire auto manufacturer, is shown with Prince Nicolas Tchketousa of the one-time kingdom of Georgia. They plan a Hollywood wedding in mid-March. (Associated Press Photo)