Charles Voorhies And Bride Will Be In Medford Soon

Society is eagerly awaiting the arrival here of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voorhies (Doris Danenower), whose wedding was a social event of last Monday at Christ church in Coronado, Cal. They are now on a honeymoon trip through California and will continue to Medford to make their home.

Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, mother of the groom, who went south for the wedding, will arrive here today. She has since been visiting General and Mrs. Brown in San Francisco.

The wedding in the south was attended by small group of relatives and friends, including the bride's parents, Commander and Mrs. Sloan Danenower of New York, who previously visited in this city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Owen.

The service was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Coronado attended by about 20 guests.

The bride, a graduate of Miss Master's school at Dobbs Ferry, was a popular member of New York society and completed her education at Versailles.

Mr. Voorhies is a talented young artist, the son of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies of this city.

Miss Greenwood
