Academy Students Present Splendid Musical Program

Reflecting great credit upon the musical department of St. Mary's Academy, a St. Patrick's Day program was given in the academy auditorium Friday night which in the case of several individual performances attained almost professional excellence. The outstanding hit of the evening was made by little Miss Phyllis Reye, a boarder from Grants Pass, a mere infant in size, who sang "Tumble Down Shack" in Athlone. With all the grace and true tonal quality of a concert performer. The large and enthusiastic audience forced her to give an encore.

Jaycox-Osborne Wedding Today

The first Presbyterian church will be the scene of a quiet marriage ceremony today at 12:30 o'clock when Mrs. Lou Jaycox will become the bride of Evan B. Osborne, of Los Angeles, California, formerly of Cardiff, Wales. The bride-to-be is well known here where she has resided for many years, following the nursing profession since her graduation from the University hospital of Kansas City, Missouri. Rev. W. J. Howell, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony. Dr. Chas. T. Sweeney will act as best man for Mr. Osborne and Mrs. Elsie Carleton Strong will sing. Accompanied on the pipe organ by Miss Helen Jones who will also furnish the wedding music. They plan to make their home in this city.

Post-Delphians Study
The American Novel
The "American Novel" was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the Post-Delphians, held March 8. Mrs. L. A. Metzger gave the American Novel by Van Doren and Mrs. Spalding compared the writings of Edna Ferber and Fannett Hurst. Mrs. Rose Scheffelin reviewed "My Antonia," by Cather.

The next meeting will be held at the library on March 22.

Degree of Honor
Enjoys Annual Dinner
At the meeting of the Degree of Honor Thursday evening in the Women's club rooms in the city hall, there were 40 people present. The annual potluck dinner was served and a delightful ceremony conducted honoring the president, Mrs. Elliott, who celebrated her wedding anniversary that day. H. G. Wilson and Mrs. Sells made appropriate talks.

Guests, upon entering the club rooms, paid as many pennies as there were letters in their names and received shamrocks, made by Lucille Sells.

The program presented included several numbers by the Hanson string quartet. Several solos were sung by Cherokee Sells and a piano solo played by Lewis Parker. After the program games and dancing were enjoyed.

W. H. M. S. Entertained
At Smiley Home
The Auxiliary meeting of the W. H. M. S. was entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Smiley on West 4th street.
