

Local and Personal

Hubbard in Crater—Ferdie Hubbard is down from Crater Lake to spend several days in Medford.

Sweeney Visitor—Ralph Sweeney of Medford visited the W. E. Kissinger family Sunday—Ashland Tidings.

Prescott Is Caller—Lee Prescott of Ashland was in Medford yesterday, transacting business and visiting with friends.

Visits Son Here—Mrs. Mary C. Stella of Eugene is a guest in the city of her son, C. G. Smith, principal of the Medford schools.

Quast Is Caller—Thomas Quast, manager of the Central Point cheese factory, was a business caller in Medford yesterday.

Down from Azules—William Montgomery of Azules, Ore., was attending to business interests in this city yesterday.

Rancher Calls—Chester Fitch, rancher and orchardist of the Phoenix district, was transacting business in Medford this morning.

Tucker, Back to Coast—J. E. Tucker of the state police force, who was here yesterday and today, is leaving this afternoon for his headquarters at Marshfield.

Guest of Miss Wood—Miss Grace B. Dye of Seattle, Wash., formerly of this city, where she was engaged as a nurse, is a guest this week of Miss Clara Wood.

Gets Building Permit—A building permit was issued by the city yesterday to the General Petroleum company for installation of three gas tanks at Main and Ivy, at the cost of $200.

Tex Aiding Pankey—Tom Pankey, who is the new postmaster at Central Point, is being assisted for a while in carrying on the work by Guy Tex, who was affiliated with the postoffice for the past 28 years.

Shirts Are Stolen—J. H. Moore of 716 East Main street reported to city police today that eight shirts were stolen last night from the clothesline at his home. Two were size 16 and six were size 15.

Takes to Mining—Hugh Biebrerstein of Central Point has joined the mining throng at Jacksonville, it was reported here today, and is bringing gold from a backyard mine in the pioneer town.

Fuller at Port—Diana Fuller of the Fuller Paint company, flying a Fairchild ship, stopped at the local airport for a short time Monday on his flight from Mills field, San Francisco, to Portland.

Dudley Fined $10—Athel Dudley, arrested in Ashland yesterday by state police, on a charge of operating a truck without displaying a P. U. C. plate or permit, was fined $10 and costs in Judge Coleman's court this morning.

Whitman Tries Plowing—Welcoming the spring rain as an aid to orchard growth, Willard Whitman is plowing under the cover crop at his orchard in the Coker Butte section. He was a business caller here this morning for a brief stay.

Stop in Medford—Awaiting improved flying conditions, E. L. Yuravitch of the department of commerce, and Mr. Terrill, also of Oakland, Cal., were visitors in Medford yesterday. They are on a tour inspecting emergency landing fields.

Easter Egg Hunt—The teachers of the primary department of the Baptist church will give an Easter egg hunt and party at the church Saturday, March 31, beginning at 1:30 o'clock and continuing until 4 o'clock for the primary children. It was announced today.

Schultz Welcomes Rain—Max Schultz of the Sams Valley district is among ranchers welcoming the rainstorm, which he says will make the grain grow and soften up the earth, which was already cracking from drought in several sections of the valley.

Girls' Party Tonight—The second monthly party for members of the Girls' Community club and other interested girls of the city will be held this evening at the club rooms in the former Y. W. C. A., beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Bridge will be played, stunts presented, and refreshments served. All girls who attended the first party of the series, are invited to bring other interested girls to the affair tonight.

Anticipates Jubilee—John Welch, well-known resident of Central Point, who was born more than 70 years ago, where the city of Medford is now located, was in the city this week, discussing plans for the Diamond Jubilee, which he is anticipating. He is a little too young to belong to the "Three-Quarters Century" club, but attended the pioneer luncheon Monday and had an enjoyable time, greeting many old friends.

Reserve Officers—Reserve officers will meet at the Armory here tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock and are asked to bring their extension school lessons to class. The senior officer present will act as instructor. Election of delegates and alternates to the state convention, R.O.A., to be held at Bend on May 12th, will be in order. Each chapter is entitled to two delegates and two alternates.

Scatter Sunshine with EASTER CARDS and Novelties

SWEM'S GIFT SHOP "On Main Street"

Undergoes Operation—Mrs. D. R. Tibbet of Portland avenue underwent a major operation at the Community hospital this morning.

Fine Rain at Prospect—Mrs. Mary Grieve and John Holmer of the popular Prospect Grieve resort, were in Medford Tuesday on business, and report fine rains in their locality.

Visit Mrs. Yeoman—En route to Portland from Los Angeles and Caliente, Mrs. H. B. Booth, Miss Stella Blake and Mrs. Peck spent Tuesday night in Medford as the guests of Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman.

Republican Year, Says Grieve—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grieve of Prospect spent yesterday and today in Medford on business. "Billie" said he did not know much about politics, only this will be a Republican year.

Howards on Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Howard are leaving Friday by motor for Montgomery, Ala., where they expect to spend five or six weeks. They will visit their son, Light, C. H. Howard, who is located at Maxwell field, in the army service in the southern state.

Install Improvements—Thirty feet of built-in dress racks have been installed this week at the Band Box and Shoe Box, in order to make additional floor space and facilitate shoe fitting. Many new Easter frocks which have just arrived are now on display in the attractive green cases at the east side of the store.

Getting Ready to Fish—Dr. B. C. Wilson, who didn't have much luck last year with rod and line, is among local anglers eagerly awaiting the arrival of April 5, when they will be allowed to fish for trout and steelhead. Carl Spuhlin is also getting his tackle in order, looking toward another successful season.

Mrs. Hardy Improved—Miss Frances Hardy has returned to Eugene where she will resume her studies at the University of Oregon. Miss Hardy was called to Ashland by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Hardy, shortly before the completion of the winter quarter. Mrs. Hardy, though still at the Community hospital, is making a steady improvement.—Ashland Tidings.

LAST LENTEN SERVICE AT THEATER THURSDAY

The last Lenten service, preceding Easter at the Craterian theater, will be conducted tomorrow, the chamber of commerce announced this afternoon, urging the public to take advantage of this opportunity to hear the beautiful program of worship and music.

The worship will be conducted by Rev. John T. LaRose, Miss Elvora Mae Wilson will sing and Miss Gladys La Marr will preside at the organ. The service will begin at 12:40 o'clock to enable all persons to attend during the luncheon hour.

JOHN HARTLEY SOUGHT BY VETERANS BUREAU

John Hartley, world war veteran, who resided in this city for some time on South Front, is sought by the United States veterans' bureau, according to notice received here today by Postmaster Frank DeSouza, from Washington.

The bureau is anxious to get in touch with Mr. Hartley or some of his relatives. Anyone with information, relative to his whereabouts, is asked to notify Postmaster DeSouza as early as possible.

LIBERTY TO FEATURE FANCY EASTER MEAT

Fancy meats for the Easter season are being especially featured this week by the Liberty Market, according to an announcement today. Special feeding and proper aging has been particularly watched in the preparation of Easter meats this season, Emil R. Pech said today. This is in line with the usual policy of the market, it was stated.

"We have received orders for Easter meats from a number of distant points," Mr. Pech said. "We are gratified in the fact that our meats are of such quality as to be in demand in communities outside our trade area."

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 28.—(AP)—Governor Rolph's office today approved extradition papers for the return of A. G. Mitchell from Oakland to Coquille, Ore., to answer to a charge of larceny by embezzlement.

15' STUDIO 15' THEATRE

Now! Until Tomorrow Nite 2 FEATURES

CHANCE HEAVEN

PLUS HERBERT MARSHALL in THE SOLITAIRE MAN

At Craterian

May Robson, beloved star of stage and screen, is the central figure in "You Can't Buy Everything," opening at the Craterian theater today. Lewis Stone and Jean Parker have the featured supporting roles.

Lew Ayres Heads Cast Rialto

"Let's Be Ritzy" with Lew Ayres and Patricia Ellis in the leading roles and playing at the Rialto theater until tomorrow night, is a delightful film story of the mundane hopes, ambitions, disappointments, disillusionments, surprises and minor tragedies that are part of the workaday life of everybody. It is modern and clean, and carries a gentle human interest punch as it delves into the various problems of the young couple married.

TWO FEATURES ON STUDIO PROGRAM

"The Solitaire Man," the story of a man driven to desperate measures, with Herbert Marshall as the "gentleman crook," is now playing on the Studio theater double-feature program.

The second feature, "Chance at Heaven," is a filmation of Vinp Delmar's story of young love.

Silver. NEW YORK, March 28.—(P)—Bar silver steady, unchanged at 45 1/2.

15' ROXY 15' THEATRE

Last Times TONITE SECRET OF THE BLUE ROOM

Starts Thurs.—Richard Arlen in "Golden Harvest"

TONIGHT

DANCE Dinty Moore's 9-Piece ORCHESTRA

DREAMLAND

MEN 25c LADIES 10c

TONIGHT

CUBE BUTTER IN EXPECTED DROP

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28.—(AP)—Drop of 1/4 to 1/2 lb. in the price of cube butter during a special session of the produce exchange was not unexpected, as a result of increased churning operations. Increasing surplus was suggested all through this territory with demand showing only for most immediate requirements.

The new quotations again placed a small premium on extra grade at 21 1/2, while standard and prime firsts were 21c and firsts 20c pound. The cutting of butter prices resulted in a reduction of 1c in the buying price on butterfat here.

Markets Closed On Good Friday

NEW YORK, March 28.—(P)—All markets will be closed Good Friday, conforming to the usual custom. On Saturday trading will be resumed in securities and in the grain markets, but the New York commodity markets, with the exception of the produce exchange, will remain closed.

Markets

Livestock

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28.—(AP)—CATTLE: 150, calves 10; steady, unchanged.

HOGS: 300; 10c lower for light butchers; lightweight, good and choice, $4.00-4.50; medium weight, good and choice, $4.25-4.50; others unchanged.

SHEEP: Quotably steady, unchanged.

Portland Produce

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28.—(AP)—BUTTER—Extras, 25 1/2c; standard, 23c lb.

BUTTERFAT—Portland delivery: A grade, 21-22c lb.; farmers' door delivery, 18-19c.

EGGS—Pacific Poultry Producers' selling prices: Oversize, 18c; fresh extras, 18c; standards, 15c; medium, 15c dozen (cartons 1c higher). Buying price of wholesalers: Fresh extras, 16c dozen; firsts, 14c; medium, 14c; pullets, 12c; undergrades, 10c.

POTATOES—New Florida Triumphs $2.60 per 50 lbs., 6c lb.; Hawaii, $1.50-1.60 per 21-lb. box. Others unchanged.

STRAWBERRIES—Sacramento, $4 per 24-box crate; Los Angeles, $1.80-1.85 per 12-box crate.

Cheese, milk, country meats, live poultry, wool and hay, unchanged.

Portland Wheat

PORTLAND, March 28.—(P)—Grain: Open High Low Close

May 71 1/4 72 71 1/4 72

July 71 1/2 71 1/2 71 1/2 71 1/2

Crack: Big Bend bluestem 73

Dark hard winter (12 pct.) 77 1/2

Do (11 pct.) 72 1/2

Soft white, western white, hard

hard winter, northern spring

Chicago Wheat

CHICAGO, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Wheat: Open High Low Close

May 85 1/4 86 85 85 1/4

July 85 85 1/4 84 1/2 85 1/2

Sept. 84 1/2 85 1/2 83 1/2 86 1/2

Today's car receipts: Wheat 64; barley 2; flour 8.

Wall St. Report

Stock Sale Averages. (Copyright, 1934, Standard Statistics Co.)

March 28: 50 20 20 90

Today 93.2 48.1 75.1 82.6

Prev. day 93.0 48.1 74.7 82.6

Week ago 93.2 48.3 74.8 83.0

Year ago 49.6 27.5 67.3 49.3

3 Yrs. ago 128.2 93.7 189.9 133.7

(1926 average equals 100.)

Bond Sale Averages.

(Copyright, 1934, Standard Statistics Co.)

March 28: 100 20 20 40

Today 80.8 85.6 88.1 84.8

Prev. day 80.8 85.6 88.3 84.8

Week ago 80.6 86.0 88.3 84.9

Year ago 60.6 61.3 76.3 62.9

3 Yrs. ago 87.5 101.7 100.8 96.7

(1926 average equals 100.)

NEW YORK, March 28.—(P)—Moderate gains in some of the metals and low-priced rails gave a firm appearance to the stock market for a time today, but prices backed up a little late.

The closing tone was steady, with several issues fractions to a point higher. Transfers approximated only 850,000 shares.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

Al. Chem. & Dye 148

Am. Can 98

Am. & Fgm. Pow. 97 1/2

A. T. & T. 117 1/2

Anacosta 14 1/2

Atch. T. & S. F. 65

Bendix Av. 18 1/2

Beth. Steel 29 1/2

California Pack'g 23 1/2

MRS. JOHNSON TO SUCCEED BAILEY

The vacancy in the Medford high school teaching staff, resulting from the resignation of Ralph Bailey, who left last week end for the University of Oregon to complete his law course, has been filled Principal C. G. Smith announced today.

Mrs. Joe Johnson has been hired to handle most of the subjects, taught by the former instructor, and Miss Doris Baler will direct public speaking and debate.

Mrs. Johnson has previously taught in the schools here and Miss Baler is a present member of the staff.

The first inter-district debate, with Medford participating as representative of southern Oregon, will be held April 7th with the local team meeting the Coquille team in the coast city.

BOWMAN SPEAKS AT BANKER MEET

C. R. Bowman, superintendent of Jackson county schools, was the speaker of the evening at the meeting here yesterday of the Southern Oregon Bankers' association, held at the Hotel Medford.

He presented figures of great interest in relation to the sales tax, passed by the special session of the legislature.

There were about 35 bankers present at the meeting from Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford. The program was preceded by dinner and during the business session, Karl Hammerbacher of Grants Pass, recently elected president of the association, presided. Bob Nelson, secretary, also of Grants Pass, was present.

Dance at Rogue Elk, Saturday night, March 31.

Warrant Call.

Notice is hereby given that School District No. 49, Jackson County, warrants No. 8689 to No. 7127 are called for payment. Interest to cease on March 30, 1934. Warrants to be presented for payment at the office of the District Clerk, City Hall, Medford, Oregon. REBECCA JENSEN, Clerk School District No. 49.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FLOORS cleaned, waxed and polished for $1.00. Phone 774-R-3.

WILL have empty furniture van returning from San Francisco and vicinity around April 1. Want return load to Medford. Davis Transfer & Storage.

FOR SALE—Brood sows, farrow soon. Talent Service Station, Talent, Ore.

SPECIAL duck dinner at Waucoma Inn Easter Sunday. Make reservation early. Phone 314-K.

FOR SALE—Window sash and frames. French doors and frames; spouting, good as new. Borydale 2nd Hand Store, 1603 No. Riverside.

FOR SALE—Used lumber, doors and windows, bath tub, lava, lavatory. Phone 1078, or 516 E. Main.

WILL PAY cash for men's second-hand suits, hats and shoes. Will H. Wilson, 52 No. Front St.

DEAFened

You owe it to yourself to receive a FREE DEMONSTRATION of the TEUTONOPHONE, Germany's Master Creation, for the relief of defective hearing. It is the only portable hearing device equipped with Radio Microphone.

Dr. Orville H. Scheetz OPTOMETRIST 606 East H St., Grants Pass Near Post Office

Hotel Figueroa Tenth and Figueroa Sts. LOS ANGELES $40 outside room one of the newest hotels in downtown Los Angeles. Everything important in comfort as it is convenient. Garage in connection. Rooms with, or without, private bath. Rates $1.50 per day and up. Attractive permanent rates, week or month. A. B. SMITH, Lessee.

...The New Aid in PREVENTING Colds At that first nasal irritation—that first sniffle or sneeze—apply Vicks Nose & Throat Drops. Used in time, they help you to avoid many colds altogether. VICKS NOSE DROPS

CRATERIAN SOUTHERN OREGON'S FINEST THEATRE Shows 1:45 8:45

STARTS TODAY! They Called Her "Old Hannibal" She Had a Million Dollars—and Only One Dress!

Just an old black dress turning green with age while all Wall Street was turning green with envy... There's a Thrill... a Tremor... and a Laugh in this glorious story of a little old lady who wouldn't spend a dime on herself... a pathetic, wistful old soul with only one joy in life—to make her son the richest man in the world!

MAY ROBSON

Beloved star of a million theatres... following her great success of "Ladies for a Day" with a new triumph—a brilliant entertainment that will tug at your heart with its pathos and lift your rich humor!

YOU CAN'T BUY EVERYTHING WITH JEAN PARKER LEWIS STONE

ADDED "Turkey In The Raw" Two reels of nonsense with Gus Shy "SAMOAN MEMORIES" — NEWSREEL

RIALTO Compare our pictures with all the others in town—regardless of price! Mats—15c Eves—25c Kiddies—10c ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT! Nothing ritzy about this show except the title... it's human... humorous... believable... the adventures of a young married couple whose ideas of living didn't coincide with their salary limits! LET'S BE RITZY LEW AYRES PATRICIA ELLIS FRANK McHUGH ISABEL JEWELL Chas. Farrell — Bette Davis "Big Shakedown" — PLUS — TIM McCOY in "SPEED WINGS"

Scatter Sunshine with EASTER CARDS and Novelties SWEM'S GIFT SHOP "On Main Street"