Mrs. J. R. McCracken, accompanied by a group of Ashland ladies, attended a woman's home missionary executive board meeting at Miss Carlton's at Central Point Wednesday.

THE GRANGE

Phoenix Grange.

Phoenix Grange met with an attendance of 54, among whom the following visitors were present:

Worthy Master Taylor and wife of Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. Benson from Central Point, Mr. Sims of Jacksonville, Mr. Bell of Bellview and Mr. Leady of Roseburg.

Mr. Leady gave a short talk on the cooperating organizing efforts of the turkey rairers of the valley, which was well received.

No little stir of anticipation was felt among the Grange members when a definite date was set for Saturday evening, April 7, when the dramatic committee will put on an Irish operetta, "The Wishing Well," in three acts. Further announcement as to the cast will be made later.

Following the operetta, a dance and entertainment will conclude the evening in the Grange hall. Arrangements are being made to take care of a large attendance and it is hoped that everyone who can will attend. The public is cordially invited.

The following committee was appointed by the home economics committee for the April 10th meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

The agricultural committee brought in a comprehensive report of the agricultural committees of the Grange and the Chamber of Commerce, who met with the dealers of the valley at the Chamber of Commerce, March 20, concerning the veal situation in the valley.
