The whole penitentiary, he described as one of the most sanitary and spotless places ever visited.

James Dunn in Rialto Picture

With Claire Trevor as the breezy girl reporter, and James Dunn as the coby detective, "Hold That Girl" promises much in the way of entertainment at the Rialto theater today and Monday. On one occasion, to get a new story, the girl substitutes as a fan dancer when a pleasure palace is raided, and Dunn, discovering her tricks, lets her be hauled away to the police station, jailed and then fined as a fan dancer. But, in the end, in spite of their constant battling, the two finally agree to cast lots together.

HIGH AREA NEAR BEND SEES SNOW

BEND, Ore., March 31.—(AP)—A belated winter visited the highlands of interior Oregon last night and early today, blanketing the McKenzie pass with five inches of snow, and slowing traffic on The Dalles-California highway in the vicinity of Sun mountain, where a minor blizzard raged.

The late March storms made their full fury felt on the highlands to the south of Bend last night, temporarily stopping traffic.

So heavy was the snow on McKenzie Pass summit early today that plows had to be sent to the divide to clear the road. Several accidents were reported from the pass, caused by the slippery condition of the road.

Record Lamb Price
DENVER, March 31.—(AP)—The Denver stockyards received the first shipment of spring lambs of the season today, and the price reported paid for them—$10 a hundredweight—was said to be the highest paid for lambs in the Denver market since May 1931.

GLENN YVONNE Cosmetic Special. Powder, lipstick, rouge, $3 value for 98c. Woods Drug Co., Main and Central.

STATE CONTROL OF MILK CONTESTED

PORTLAND, March 31.—(AP)—E. C. Wilson, milk producer of Banks, Washington county, today filed an injunction suit in circuit court attacking the constitutionality of the Oregon milk control law.

The suit is the first attack made by a producer on the milk control board.

Wilson demands that the legislative act creating the board be declared null and void; that orders of the board be declared invalid, and that until the decree is entered, the milk control board be restrained from maintaining and operating a surplus pool.

The suit was leveled principally at the Oregon Dairy Cooperative association which, the complaint declared, is the guiding factor in the board's rulings.

Auto Mishap
EUGENE, March 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Bowen and Miss Maren Gribakov of Bend were slightly injured early Saturday morning when their automobile skidded and turned over into a ditch just west of the McKenzie pass.

Muni At Studio In "World Changes"

Paul Muni will be seen on the screen of the Studio theatre today, in "The World Changes."

Muni is first seen as a youth of unbridled ambition and dominating character, willing to dare all obstacles to gain his ends.

The story follows the character through various stages of his life, winding up with a smashing climax in which he appears as an old man, bitter and broken by his disappointment at the life his worthless sons and their children lead.

The picture has the glamor and romance of a great captain of industry smashing his way to a world figure.

SONS OF STARS IN MODERN PICTURE

"This Day and Age," the first great spectacle of modern times by the master of spectacle, Cecil B. DeMille, opens at the Rialto theatre today. In the large cast are Charles Bickford, Richard Cromwell, Eddie Nugent, and Harry Green.

DeMille has also brought to the films the sons of screen stars of today and yesterday, including Wallace Reid, Jr., Eric von Stroheim, Jr., Carlyle Blackwell, Jr., Bryant Washburn, Jr., Neil Hart, Jr., Frank Tinney, Jr., and Fred Kohler, Jr.

The story concerns the battle of the youth of an average community against a city's subversive influences after all efforts of the adult community have failed.

At Craterian

A star of Broadway and a hit over national radio networks, Alice Faye has now turned to the screen and is one of the many stars in "George White's Scandals," opening a four-day engagement at the Craterian theater today. Rudy Vallee, Jimmie Durante, Cliff Edwards, Adrienne Ames, Gregory Ratoff and George White himself all have featured in the screen presentation of the famous Broadway show. White also brought with him 300 "Scandals" beauties to appear in the film. Six song numbers, numerous comedy bits and "blackouts" dancing, spectacular ensemble numbers and a novel climax make the picture one of the best musicals ever to be shown on the screen.

ARMY RECRUITER TO VISIT CITY

Jennings D. Lowman, sub-station commander for the United States Army Recruiting office, will be in Medford Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at his offices in the armory. He has announced several desirable vacancies, including one for service in the signal corps in Hawaii, three in the 78th field artillery, Monterey, Calif., 30th infantry at the Presidio, San Francisco and Seventh infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

Included among county men who recently enlisted were Boyd P. Bellamy and Wayne C. Stead of Medford, Tracy J. Muse and Bradford F. Mose of Central Point, Harold Fish, Royal S. Gandee and Everett S. Van Dyke of Ashland.

Grows Large Broccoli—M. J. Swing of the Old Pacific highway and a member of the Medford Gleeman, brought a broccoli into the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, which threatens to take the southern Oregon record for size. It weighed five pounds and is a uniform, solid head. Mr. Swing's friends are wondering if he sang to the thing to keep it growing.
