

TROUT ANGLERS FAIL TO REPORT OPENING CATCH

Reports say the Rogue has gone down some, but with mining operations on Evans creek keeping the stream muddy, it was expected that few would be able to bring home much proof that today opened the trout season.

Many local people were spending today on the streams in southern Oregon, but early this afternoon no reports of successful fishermen with trout had been received. Henry Fringle and Bill Walker each brought in a steelhead this morning, Walker getting his near the Elks picnic ground.

Seven state police of this district were checking licenses of fishermen today.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Murphy are out fishing today and Jack Walker and Harry Gill planned a trip for this afternoon, as did Jack Bierma and Sandy Westergren.

Dr. R. C. Mulholland, who hasn't missed the first day of the season for many years, found it necessary to remain in his office today. "I have other teeth to grind," the doctor said, and was anxiously awaiting news from the waterfront to see if there would be any of the finny tribe left in the brook for him.

In Sons Recital

JOHN CLAIRE MONTEITH, who will appear in lecture-recital at the Southern Oregon Normal school, Ashland, April 10, is well known to many Jackson county people as a singer. Former residents of Idaho have heard his voice and Oregonians remember him as a popular singer and teacher of Portland some few years ago. He is now living in Los Angeles where he is busy singing and teaching.

His program, "The Oregon Trail and Indian Days," has been given in southern California, where it has brought much publicity to Oregon. Clubs, colleges and the general public have found it most interesting and entertaining — "a never-to-be-forgotten pleasure."

Tickets are on sale in Medford at the Toggery.

At Kansas City's convention hall they sold standing room and turned 500 customers away at a program of symphonic music.

lived in. I don't think it will ever accomplish anything, but it will be a hell of a lot of fun."

Continuing to talk shop, Mencken averred that English newspapers "have something on us."

"For one thing," he said, "the English papers are more orderly."

City Editors All Crazy.

He said he did not intend to return to the editing of a magazine. "I'm too old," he said. "It has always been my contention that every city editor ought to be shot at the age of 35. A man's got to be crazy to be a city editor, anyway."

He shed a tear for what he called "the poor pious Jews in this country who save their nickels to send to Palestine."

"Religion is adjourned in Palestine," he said.

He predicted that in another 20 years there would be "another big rumput which will end with a man on horseback."

"America," he said, "is headed for something new and worse than Fascism. In fact, Fascism will look like a Boy Scout movement in comparison with what we will get. We'll end, too, with a man on horseback."

monthly pension to those who qualify for aid under its terms, but stipulated that in no case should such payment exceed $30 a month.

Only those men and women 70 years of age or older may benefit, and they must have been residents of Oregon at least 15 years, and of their county at least two years immediately preceding application for a pension. No aged man or woman who has a child or other person capable of rendering support may qualify, nor may those whose property is valued in excess of $3000.

Approximately $53,200 a month is being spent by all the counties in this work of relief for the elderly destitute of Oregon.

DEMPSEY LOSES FIGHT TO 95-POUND WOMAN

ALEXANDRIA, La., April 5.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey lost a ring battle here last night. Worse than that, he was forced into ignominious retreat from the scene of the contest. It all happened as the ex-heavyweight champion was refereeing a heavy-weight wrestling match and the 95-pound wife of one of the participants climbed into the roped square and took a hand in the proceedings.

Dempsey lost his shirt and a good deal of hair.

Mrs. Johnny Plummer, whose husband was tying up with Bruce Noland in the feature of a mat card, gave the fans the unexpected extra thrill when she challenged the former pugilistic king and won at least a temporary victory.

It all started when Dempsey warned Plummer that he would not allow any kicking of Noland when the latter was on the floor. One thing led to another and Referee Dempsey closed the argument by delivering three quick upper-cuts to the chin, which ended the evening's entertainment for Plummer.

But not for Mrs. Plummer. She was through the ropes from her ring-side seat in a second and going after Dempsey's shirt and his hair before anybody could do anything about it. Dempsey retreated as far as the ropes would allow and stood there for a while, proving he could still take it, without raising a hand in defense. When Mrs. Plummer really got organized, however, Dempsey slipped through the ropes and retreated into the crowd.

Although only 28 years of age, Mrs. W. C. Westbrook of New Bern, N. C., is a grandmother.
