JOBLESS STAGE GORY CUTBREAK

News Behind The News
 By PAUL MALLON
 (Copyright, 1934, by Paul Mallon)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—The outstanding political dance team of the spring season is that of Messrs. Hull, Dickinson, Wallace and Sayre. Their soft shoe work on the tariff bill is nothing short of colossal. They have been tiptoeing mysteriously around the congressional stage for weeks, afraid their shoes will squeak. They have been so gracefully deceptive that they have become known to their intimates as "the perfect tariff ballet."

What makes their feat more difficult is the fact that they are being pursued by a crowd of inarticulate Republicans. These Republicans keep demanding to know what this is all about, what tariffs are going to be bargained away, what industries and farmers here are going to be affected.

The only slip so far was made by Agriculture Secretary Wallace. He admitted once that perhaps sugar was one thing the tariff bargainers might consider. The Republicans leaped all over him and nearly ruined the act. State Secretary Hull and his assistant, Sayre, have pleaded confidential immunity for diplomatic business. Assistant Commerce Secretary Dickinson is being artfully evasive.

Democratic senators and representatives are keeping in step with the ballet leaders and are not letting the Republicans know what is in their minds.

This footwork is of course all political by-play. The truth could be told. It is such a little truth no one wants to let it out until the tariff bill is safely passed.

No one should tell the Republicans, but up to date the administration has received only three tariff bargaining offers from abroad. Two of these came from Latin-American countries, one from Europe.

Others are expected when the tariff bill passes. In fact, the real inside reason why Germany offered that token payment on her debt is that she expects to get some of that RFC money to finance some buying here. She will be disappointed.

What the tariff bargainers intend to specialize on is the importation of products which do not compete directly with American industrial or agricultural products. This narrows their field down to such things as fine lace, highest grade woollens, special liquors and wines, handbags, and more bargaining with Latin-American countries than with anyone else.

They have no wholesale bartering arrangement in mind and cannot get any until world conditions improve considerably.

A peek inside the Peek export corporation will give you a slant on the vastness of operations so far.

Mr. Peek's corporation is a few rooms and desks. They are thronged with people daily, but not exporters and importers. The visitors are nearly all looking for jobs.

His three banks are three letter files, one for Cuba, one for Russia and one for the rest of the world.

Only the insiders apparently realize yet that Peek is virtually a man without a job.

His intimates suspect that only an extraordinary enthusiasm for his task keeps him at it. He seems to hope that some day it will work out all right.

So far, the other government departments have been co-operating by secretly throwing lassos over his neck. Any trade agreement he makes must be a treaty, yet he has no power to make treaties. The state department must do that. Also, he must get his money from the RFC.

Extension of the licensing power of the NRA is expected to be slipped into a general bill in the closing months of congress.

Certain authorities in the administration (not including General Johnson) are making arrangements for that. Johnson is not opposed to it. All he has said is that he will not recommend such a course because he is afraid of opening the subject to congressional debate. That would be a direct retreat.

Everyone is willing that Johnson's statement stand undisputed until the current agitation against the brain trusters dies down.

The Senator Wagner-General Johnson rift exists and may become im-

OFFICERS REPULSE MOB'S ONSLAUGHT IN MINNEAPOLIS

Arrest of Delegation Demanding Continuation of CWA Infuriates 3000 Unemployed—Woman Leads

MINNEAPOLIS, April 6.—(AP)—Three thousand unemployed milled about blood spattered sidewalks today after authorities had twice repulsed onslaugths against the city hall and courthouse. Eighteen persons were injured. Twenty-five others were in jail.

Machine guns, mounted on one side of the building, were not brought into play as the throng, launched their second rush for the building. It grew out of the arrest of a delegation, which had been admitted to the city hall to present demands for continuation of the CWA and for cash relief.

The first brush with the law, in which an old woman on crutches and hundreds of persons displaying red arm bands were leading figures, started about 10 a. m. and was quelled only after bottles, stones, and tear gas bombs were flung between the police and the throng.

Of those injured, 10 were policemen, badly beaten by the mob which seized paving blocks, scrap iron, and even coal from passing trucks, for missiles. Many other persons were hurt, but not badly enough to need hospital attention.

Mayor A. G. Bainbridge, whose office was the target for rocks, coal and sticks, which broke windows, has been ill at his home for more than a month.

HOUSE OF MYSTERY MURDERS

The mutilated bodies of six persons, all bound and gagged, were found in this house belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flieder, two of the victims, at Eastland's Point, near Bremerton, Wash. Four guests were also slain in the house which resembled a shambles and police started an intensive hunt for possible suspects, believing robbery might have been a motive. (Associated Press Photo)

PROHI LEADERS TO SCAN EFFECTS OF STATE MONOPOLY

PORTLAND, April 6.—(AP)—Prohibition leaders of Oregon will undertake an accounting here Sunday and Monday of the effects of the repeal of the state's dry laws, and of the operation of the state monopoly on liquor distribution and sale.

Under the sponsorship of the Oregon anti-liquor league more than 2000 persons are expected to attend the Portland meeting. Many will come from all sections of the state.

In addition to considering the Knox law administration program, to which some serious objection has been voiced by the prohibitionists, the drys expect to advance a program of their own. This is to be formulated from a report of a committee on findings.

Charles Hafke, superintendent of the Oregon anti-liquor league, said today incomplete tabulations from questionnaires distributed over the state "indicate liquor is being sold and used in increasing amount by youths and in the home; that drunkenness is growing rapidly and drunken driving is increasing."

Hafke said the questionnaires were distributed to superintendents of schools, leading business men, outstanding women, leaders in young people's activities and ministers, irrespective of their position on the wet and dry question.

CHINESE FEARFUL NIPPON PLANNING TO GRAB PROVINCE

To Seize Peiping and Put Emperor Kang Teh Over Northern Province Is Allegation—Pu-Yi Protested

By Joseph E. Sharkey
 (Associated Press Foreign Staff)
 GENEVA, April 6.—(AP)—Chinese circles alleged today that Japan plans to seize Peiping and put Emperor Kang Teh of Manchukuo on the throne there as emperor of the northern provinces of China.

At the request of Wellington Koo, Chinese delegate to the league of nations, the league distributed to all its members China's protest against the enthronement of Henry Pu-Yi as emperor of Manchukuo, the Japanese-created state.

The action was considered a diplomatic move on the part of China against Japan.

Called Pu-Yi Puppet

The protest, which was made by Wang Ching-Wei, foreign minister of China, on the occasion of the enthronement ceremony, calls Pu-Yi a puppet and his assumption of the imperial title high treason against China.

Koo particularly was asked by his government to protest to the committee handling the problem against recognition of Manchukuo.

The committee will meet May 14, at which time, it was stated, Koo is likely to present additional proposals with the object of strengthening the various powers concerned in their determination not to recognize the new state.

BUREAU'S BATTLE TO RULE FOREST SERVICE REVIVED

Efforts to Unify Control of Public Grazing May Place Forestry Under Regime of Interior Department

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(AP)—Efforts to unify control of public grazing may result in the passage of the Taylor public domain bill with senate amendments placing the forestry service in the interior department.

Representative De Rouen (D., La.) chairman of the house public lands committee, predicted that the house would pass the bill, when it is brought up next Monday, in its present form and later would accept expected senate amendments "if they were reasonable."

Western Senators Eye Bill

Western senators have served notice they plan to see that the bill, strongly supported by the administration, does not set up a second separate bureau with jurisdiction over grazing of the public ranges. They have stated they believed the forestry service, which is in the agriculture department, is better qualified to administer the public domain since for 20 years it has controlled the grazing of 22,000,000 acres of national forests.

To meet administration demands that control be vested in the interior department, they have indicated, they might amend the bill to transfer the forestry service to that department.

Old Fight a Classic

The contest during Theodore Roosevelt's administration between the interior and agriculture departments over the forestry service is being revived.

Patient Emits Weird Light In Hospital Ward

TRIESTE, Italy, April 6.—(AP)—A mysterious light emanating from the breast of Signora Monaro, a patient in Pirano hospital, is arousing wonderment in medical and official circles.

Names noticed while the patient slept, that a light like an electric flash seemed to emerge from Signora Monaro's breast, glow for about three seconds and then disappear.

The phenomenon occurred several times. Physicians were called and saw it.

The populace is most interested, but is sharply divided in its views, one group affirming that a miracle is taking place and the other that Signora Monaro swallowed a flashlight.

U. S. TO CO-OPERATE IN EMBARGOES ON WARLIKE NATIONS

Conference Between Norman Davis and British Foreign Secretary Brings Agreement On United Action

By Albert W. Wilson
 (Associated Press Foreign Staff)
 LONDON, April 6.—(AP)—The Associated Press learns from an authoritative American source that the United States would cooperate in economic and financial embargoes against a nation found guilty of violating a disarmament treaty, provided the United States could be the sole judge of whether such action is justified.

This fact became known following a conference between Norman H. Davis, United States ambassador-at-large, and Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary.

It was said the United States would not commit itself to take such action in advance but would insist upon retaining its independence of action at all times and the right to judge for herself "all the facts in the case against an accused nation."

In the current exchanges of memoranda between England and France it had been virtually decided that military action against a violator of a disarmament pact would be too strong a penalty for any conceivable violation although this has been within the scope of guarantee measures considered.

PARIS, April 6.—(AP)—An entirely new arms "limitation" conference was shown today to be a practical certainty by a French memorandum to England approved by the cabinet.

The brief communication shows that France and Great Britain are in agreement on the necessity of an arms "readjustment" conference, since "disarmament" is dead.

DILLINGER HUNTERS SLEEP WITH GUNS

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 6.—(AP)—Federal agents are concentrating so much on catching John Dillinger and his desperadoes that they've gone to live in the postoffice.

Werner Hann, northwest chief of justice department men, moved into the building last night. More than 20 agents slept there so they could be ready to get up and go to work at a minute's notice.

The suburb-haired "mystery woman" of the Dillinger case is reported to be still meeting police questions with a determined silence. She was seized Tuesday night when federal operatives shot down Eugene Green, former convict and companion of Dillinger.

Police believe she has some clue to Dillinger's whereabouts, but so far it is known she has not even told her name.

Green was reported "slightly improved" at a hospital today.

The increasing work of scripture publication and distribution in Japan caused the American Bible society to build a new Bible house in Tokyo.

GLENDALE WOMAN TAKES OWN LIFE

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 6.—(AP)—Sending her two small children to the home of a neighbor with a note announcing her intention of killing herself, Mrs. May Wilcox Winkelman, 24, a resident of Glendale, this morning shot herself through the chest, inflicting wounds which resulted in her death shortly before 10 o'clock.

Danny Winkelman, aged 5 years, and his brother, Donald, 2, appeared shortly after 9 a. m. today at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Olson, and presented a note which said, "Will you please take care of my babies for a while, and don't come over here alone because I'm going to commit suicide." The note bore Mrs. Winkelman's signature.

Mrs. Olson immediately telephoned one who rushed to the Winkelman home, and found the woman lying across the bed. She died within a few minutes.

Her husband, Alfred Winkelman, is employed in a logging camp at Pernvale, five miles from Glendale.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 6.—(AP)—Judge C. B. Kenamer in U. S. district court late today granted Alabama commercial coal operators a 10-day injunction restraining General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, and the U. S. district attorney from enforcing the wage raising, hour cutting amendment to the bituminous coal code.

ARREST COMING IN MASS MURDER

BREMERTON, Wash., April 6.—(AP)—Early arrest of a person who may clear up the six murders at Eastland's point near here a week ago Thursday was forecast as Sheriff D. L. Blankenbush's office here today while Harry Kintble, 45, held in Couer d'Alene, Idaho, for questioning in connection with the crime was absolved of participation in it by Sheriff Blankenbush.

Officers left headquarters here, ostensibly to make the arrest. Chief of Police J. W. Trillinger declared starting developments might be expected some time today.

Luke S. May, Seattle detective chief, arrived to again inspect the Frank Flieder home, where the killings occurred.

Long Friendship Ends When Polly Tries To Eat Ear

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—(AP)—For 30 years Fred Woodrow has lived alone with a parrot as his only companion. Today the parrot, perched on his shoulder as he ate breakfast, took firm hold of his ear.

Woodrow wouldn't have minded so much if the parrot had let go. But it wouldn't. So Woodrow had to strangle the bird to free his ear.

MEN, NOT CHURCH, MAKE MISTAKES

SALT LAKE CITY, April 6.—(AP)—Hebe J. Grant, president of the Latter Day Saints church, today met what he said were criticisms of his ability to govern that organization with the declaration that "the church does not make mistakes. Men make mistakes, but the church is solid."

Addressing an audience of members that filled the historic Mormon tabernacle here for the 104th annual conference, the venerable leader submitted a report of the expenditure of some $4,000,000 in the last year in furtherance of its activities, and declared:

"The church is stronger every year. It is progressing—not going backward. No other people has the truth—the actual gospel of Jesus Christ, established by him."

20 FLOOD DEATHS IN OKLAHOMA AREA

WIK CITY, Okla., April 6.—(AP)—More than 20 people are dead and the property damage is estimated at more than $1,000,000 in the flood-swept areas of Oklahoma and Texas.

Twelve bodies were recovered from the treacherous Wauvita river in the Hammon area of western Oklahoma as another rise threatened. Five others were missing today and were believed drowned. Officials feared for the safety of an undetermined number of river-bank squatters. Four lost their lives in the Saline creek flood near Menard, Texas.

Radium, Kas., the state's newest incorporated city, boosted the number of such communities in Kansas to 580.

HALL SAYS NOT GUILTY BEATING FATHER-IN-LAW

LEONARD N. Hall entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned in justice court this afternoon on a charge preferred by his father-in-law, E. C. Ferguson. The charge followed a pummeling at the hands of the younger man, which Ferguson allegedly received when Hall invaded the Ferguson home last evening. Date for hearing was set for 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Hall's wife, daughter of Ferguson, today filed suit for divorce.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:
 BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 5.—Well, they had a big moving picture opening in Hollywood last night. Dillinger was there. I suppose he was. He is everywhere else where anything of importance takes place. Looks like the only way we're ever going to catch him is to wait till he hires a yacht and starts through Turkey.

If I was Insull I wouldn't mind coming back here and facing an investigation, if nothing more happens than at all the other investigations that start out so sensationally and peter out so quietly.

Investigations are held just for photographers.

Yours,
 Will Rogers

OFFICERS SHOT, KIDNAPED BY MACHINE GUN BANDITS

MIAMI, Okla., April 6.—(AP)—Constable Cal Campbell was slain and Chief of Police Percy Boyd of Commerce, Okla., was shot and kidnaped today by two machine gunners and a woman companion.

Officers believed the outlaws were Clyde Barrow, Dallas desperado, his gun woman associate, Bonnie Parker, and Raymond Hamilton, Texas fugitive.

The shooting occurred when Boyd and Campbell sought to question the three, who had threatened passersby and forced some of them to help free their motor car from a mud hole where it was mired.

There was a report that Boyd had died from wounds.

Boyd and Campbell fired several shots at the trio, but missed. Camp-

INCOME TAX BOOST AMENDMENT AWAITED

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(AP)—Chairman Johnson of senate finance committee said today he was prepared to accept an amendment to the revenue bill by Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, to increase the amount of all income taxes 10 percent for one year to bring in another $80,000,000.

The senate today rejected by 42 to 36 a proposal for sharp increases in taxation on "exceptional" capital net gains where they occur frequently during a five year period.

Oregon Pacifists Stage Parade In Slap at Army Day

EUGENE, April 6.—(AP)—Togged out in various pieces of old military uniforms and helmets, a handful of University of Oregon students, most of them members of the "Radical Club," student anti-war organization, paraded the campus and downtown area today as a protest against militarism.

Carrying banners, the dozen or so students circled the campus and then paraded through the business section of town. Their banners bore such slogans as "in time of peace prepare for war," "Generals die in bed or run for governor," "Judas was a piker," "The army builds men to kill them." The profiteer is not without honor in his own country." Their "demonstration" did not attract great attention either on the campus or downtown.

MASSIE'S EX-WIFE TRIES SUICIDE ABOARD VESSEL

GENOA, Italy, April 6.—(AP)—Ship's officers of the S. S. Roma said today that Mrs. Thale Porteusie Massie, principal figure in the sensational Honolulu assault case of 1932, attempted suicide by slashing both wrists and throwing herself from the liner's top deck on the voyage from New York.

Prof. Davrio Borelli, director of the nervous ailments clinic in Genoa, where Mrs. Massie has been taken since the ship's arrival yesterday, confirmed the officers' report.

The director said that Mrs. Massie told him she attempted suicide when the steamer was three days out from Genoa, because:

"I wanted to die. I regretted having got a divorce from my husband."

Mrs. Massie and Lieut. Thomas

Hedges Maale, U. S. N. were divorced at Reno February 23

Hedges Maale, U. S. N., were divorced at Reno February 23.

Dr. Borelli told the Associated Press she would have to remain in the clinic from 30 to 40 days before she could recover completely.

Ship's officers said Mrs. Massie threw herself from the top deck, but they did not know whether she intended throwing herself into the sea or only on a lower deck.

Despite her fall of nearly 20 feet, Dr. Borelli said that Mrs. Massie's physical injuries were not serious. He said her general physical condition was, in fact, good, but that she was extremely nervous and greatly distressed.

After being picked up from the lower deck, Mrs. Massie remained in the ship's infirmary until the completion of the voyage.
