Hay-Harriman Betrothal Told At Lovely Tea

At a lovely tea yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Hansen, 915 Queen Anne avenue, the engagement of Miss Arlene Hay, charming daughter of Mrs. Richard Hay of Central Point, to William Harriman, son of Mrs. W. J. Rogers, of Medford, was announced to 40 friends of the bride-elect, who called between the hours of three and five.

A color scheme of lavender and yellow was expressed in decorations of lilacs and tulips, used about the rooms, and in the dainty coronas, worn by the hostesses and others assisting at the tea.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Hansen, Miss Hay, Mrs. W. J. Rogers and little Richard Leever, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever of Central Point who handed out the betrothal cards to the guests.

Mrs. Curtis Darby and Mrs. Howard Coburn presided at the tea table during the first hour and Mrs. Darwin K. Burgher and Miss Helen Winter during the second hour. The two latter were sorority sisters of Miss Hay at the University of Oregon, where all were affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta.

Mrs. Earl Leever of Central Point assisted about the rooms.

The wedding will be an event of the early summer and the bridal couple will make their home in San Francisco.

Miss Hay, who is now a member of the teaching staff at Central Point, has many friends in the Rogue River valley. Mr. Harriman is also well known here, where he is at present associated with Montgomery Ward and company.
