

BEAVERS DEFEAT SENATORS 4 TO 2 TO OPEN SERIES

Seals Skid to Second Place As Missions Hang Up 7-4 Victory—Angels Continue to Lead Coast Parade

Scores Yesterday
Portland, 4; Sacramento, 2.
Seattle, 6; Oakland, 4.
Missions, 7; San Francisco, 4.
Los Angeles, 8; Hollywood, 0.

The San Francisco Seals slipped down into second place in the Pacific Coast league today, leaving Los Angeles in possession of first place. Roy Hershaw, pitching out only seven scattered hits, hurled the Angels to an 8 to 0 victory yesterday over their home town rivals, the Hollywood Stars, who have the dubious distinction of being the only team blanked so far this season in league play. Young Jimmy Rego of Oakland shut out Hollywood last Saturday. Frank Shellback, who established a new Coast league record for individual pitching by winning his 262nd game in his first start this season, was driven from the mound in the third inning when the Angels collected three runs. Gene Lillard, Los Angeles third baseman, hit a home run.

Reds Trim Seals.
Another San Francisco team, the Missions, took the measure of the Seals, 7 to 4. Gabby Street, Mission manager, was waved back to the bench in the third inning when he "wanted to know why" Umpire Bill Guthrie reversed his decision on a strike. Joe DiMaggio, who last year set up a new league record for consecutive hitting, banged out a triple and a single for his eighth straight game of safe hitting. "The Great" Walter Mails, who was knocked from the box in his first appearance this season, scored two strikeouts when pitching the last inning as the fourth Seal hurler.

Indians Defeat Oaks.
The Seattle Indians contented themselves with winning their game from Oakland, 6 to 4, and left to the Oaks the honor of piling up the most hits. The Aorns amassed 14 bingles. Seattle gathered only 6, but made them count. Shortstop Chick Ellsworth of the Tribe lofted the second pitched ball of the game for a home run.

The Portland Beavers lit into their former teammate, Lou Koupal, for nine of their ten hits to defeat the Sacramento Senators, 4 to 2. Outfielder Tony Borja hit a homer for the Senators.
The standings:
W. L. PC.
Los Angeles 6 2 .750
San Francisco 5 3 .625
Oakland 4 4 .500
Sacramento 4 4 .500
Missions 4 4 .500
Hollywood 3 5 .375
Seattle 3 5 .375
Portland 3 5 .375

PEPPER USED IN SALEM GRAPPLE

SALEM, Ore., April 11.—(AP)—It took two members of the Salem police force to finally put an end to the wrestling match here last night between Robin Reed and Bulldog Jackson, when the two combatants seemed disposed to continue their fight after the match had officially ended. Reed winning two falls out of three.
Jackson came into the ring with his hand bandaged and after he had knocked Reed's eyes with the supposedly injured member several times the referee investigated and found the bandage filled with menthol and red pepper. Thirteen times during the match the wrestlers went fighting into the aloes.
Don Sugal trimmed Sailor Trout two out of three, and Mickey McGuire took two straight from George Seregant in the two earlier matches.

OFFICE BOYS AND HIGH SCHOOL WIN KITTENBALL TILTS

(By Harold Grove)
Your Office Boys and the high school teams were victorious in last night's kittenball series.
Your Office Boys defeated Lamport's, 2 to 3, in what most spectators would call a combination of football and kittenball. For instance, a man charged toward second base from first on an outfield fly; just as he approached second he met his worthy opponent amidship. It was declared by a spectator-grid critic as a beautiful block. However, Tully Williams took it as a good sport. Sam Colton, manager-player of the Office Boys, clouted a homer, his first for the season and his first for many a season.
Down at the other end of the field the high school went on a hitting spree and defeated the Standard Oilers, 20 to 3. Everybody except the pitcher got at least a two-bagger.
Coach E. M. Kirtley inflated the lineup some 25 players.
He is attempting to arrange for two teams or three to enter in the league. Although he hasn't any worries as to a team to play if some of his players should drop out, he is worrying as to whom he shall start each night his team plays.

Ye Poet's Corner

"Queen Mother of Oregon."
Oh woman who came toward the far setting sun
In the heyday of young hope and pride,
Who overcame obstacles, one by one,
With your mate, working side by side,
You drove back the wilderness into its den;
You builded a home with its heart and its joy,
A haven of peace and contentment to men,
Your heart is pure gold without an alloy,
Queen Mother of Oregon.
You equalled your man in his courage and zeal,
Enduring the hardship and care;
You raised up your children in a life that was real;
And when danger threatened you knelt down in prayer,
With the seeds and the plants brought from other lands,
Great orchards and gardens and grainfields were made,
The earth brought forth at the touch of your hands,
With bounteous harvest your work was repaid,
Queen Mother of Oregon.
The babes that you nurtured upon your fair breast,
Are doing man's work in the world,
You have gone a long way; you have rounded life's crest;
You have kept love's banner unfurled,
So we honor the lines on your noble face,
The toll-worn hands that are resting now,
The soul of you with its tender grace,
We here place a wreath upon your brow,
Queen Mother of Oregon.

KARCH FLATTENS NEGRO IN FIFTH

PORTLAND, April 11.—(AP)—They're calling Paul Karch "the Portsmouth Thunderbolt" today in respect to his fighting prowess in stopping Jimmy Swanson cold at the Labor temple last night.
It was a real Jack Dempsey knock-out and the only thing which could have saved Karch, 155, from losing a decision. Up until the fifth round Swanson, 180, Tacoma, held the advantage with his clever boxing and deadly sharpshooting.
But suddenly Karch rammed his right to the negro's stomach, and then in Jack Dempsey style finished his opponent with a left to the jaw as he was relaxed. Never before had Swanson been knocked out. It was a scheduled six-round bout.
Tommy Ross, 153, The Dalles, knocked out Benny Cordova, 155, Vancouver, Wash.
At Spinn, 116, Portland, outpointed Chris Angel, 114, Seattle, in four rounds. Sista Webster, 137, Portland, won a spectacular four-round battle from Rolie Westerman, 137, Portland.

The trophy, along with two others, is on display in Damaray's drug store window.

Jackson Annexes California Title

LOS ANGELES, April 11.—(AP)—A short, jolting right hook to the jaw brought the state welterweight title to Young Peter Jackson, already lightweight champion of California, today. PORTLAND, April 11.—(AP)—Harry M. Kenin, candidate for the Republican nomination as congressman from the third (Multnomah county) district, today submitted his resignation as director of the Portland school district and as a member of the state
