The dates of the opera are April 16 to 21. And the list of presentations includes Aida, Rigoletto, Faust, Carmen, Cavalleria Rusticana, Pagliacci, Lohengrin, Madame Butterfly and Il Trovatore.

Girls Are Returned—Two Ashland high school girls, 15 and 17 years of age, were returned to their homes from Grants Pass early this week, after they had hitch-hiked as far as the Redwoods junction to the Pacific highway, just this side of Grants Pass. When the girls did not report to school Monday their parents were notified, and the girls were apprehended by a Josephine county deputy sheriff. They were placed in the care of Mrs. Earl Lister, wife of the Josephine county sheriff, until their parents arrived for them.

RUM ANNIHILATION BASIC OBJECTIVE OF W. C. T. UNION

The Women's Christian Temperance Union was not organized to write the 18th amendment into the constitution of the United States, but to annihilate liquor traffic, and the latter is still the objective of the organization—was the message brought to Medford today by Mrs. Ada Jolley of Portland, state president of the W. C. T. U., in an address before the local institute, in session at the First Presbyterian church.

The national slogan of the organization for this year is "We will not quit until liquor traffic quits," Mrs. Jolley added, explaining that members of the organization are not discouraged by repeal of prohibition, but taking new interest in the future campaign.

The program for the new crusade to be waged by her organization, Mrs. Jolley stated, will be strictly an educational one, aimed to educate people against the use of alcohol. She urged each woman in the organization to live a life of service and of action in order that the group may be a power, not alone in knowing, but in dispensing, information on the scientific effects of alcohol.

The W. C. T. U. is opposed to alcoholic consumption in any and every form, Mrs. Jolley declared, explaining that she considered beer as harmful as whiskey, since its deterioration of the human system is usually a constant one. The whiskey drinker, she added, may get drunk once a month, then give his system a chance to become free of the poison, while the beer drinker adds a little more to the condition each day.

The return of liquor to the nation last December 5th, the speaker described as the "greatest kidnapping" of all. "It will steal you away from business, church, society, neighbors, friends, relatives and family," Mrs. Jolley then described liquor as a gangster, a robber of reason and conscience.

Mrs. Jolley will speak tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow night at the tabernacle on Sixth street, going on to Ashland for meetings Saturday and Sunday.

MELTING SNOW BARES TRAGEDY IN DEEP GULLY

Father in Klamath.

Miss Martelle, who was a beautiful platinum blonde, has a father, N. M. Streeter, residing in Klamath Falls, and her mother, Mrs. Hallie Ware, resides in Berkeley, Cal. Miss Martelle weighed around 180 pounds. Miss Sparks, about 170 pounds, a light blonde, has a sister, Mrs. O. K. Boerner, living in Niles, Cal. The two women were known to quite a number of Medford people, having demonstrated beauty products in a local department store last October.

Miss Sparks was a personal friend of George Pockham, local singer, and had written to him that she and Miss Martelle planned to be in Medford November 13. Miss Sparks had known him in Hollywood, where they had appeared together in songs.

The discovery of the bodies of the ill-fated women solves one of the most puzzling southern Oregon. If not Pacific coast, mysteries in years. Officers had never given up the search. Park authorities put forth every effort to locate them in their area, from which the girls were driving away when they wrecked.

ROXY IS SHOWING 'I'M NO ANGEL'

Mae West's sensational hit, "I'm No Angel" is playing at the Roxy theatre today and Friday.

It is a modern yarn, skillfully concocted by Miss West herself, presenting her in the picturesque characterization of a rowdy, wise-cracking carnival dancer and singer. She becomes a lion tamer, has nerve enough to put her head in the lion's mouth, and becomes a sensation in a big New York circus. There she captures society millionaires.

In Double Bill

Bob Steele is a star of the "big tent" in "The Gallant Fool" on the Rio theatre's double feature program for Friday and Saturday.

"A Study in Scarlet," taken from the adventures of Sherlock Holmes, is on the same program.

Musical Revue Is Hit At Craterian

"Wonder Bar" at the Craterian theatre, a worthy successor to "42nd Street," "Gold Diggers" and "Footlight Parade" is chock full of entertainment pleasing to everyone. And judging from the crowds at the theatre last night, everyone wants to see it.

The cast, with Al Jolson making a grand comeback in the leading role.

ed and portrayed that coherence is maintained and climax logically developed.

The locale is in Al Jolson's internationally famous London night club. One of the hits, a dinky's idea of heaven, is done to the tune of Al Jolson's blackface singing of "Going to Heaven on a Mule."

From every viewpoint, "Wonder Bar" is solid gold entertainment for everybody, for the men, the women—everybody.
