DUCKS WILL OPEN HOME SEASON IN TILT WITH REDS

Divide Twin Bill With Solons to End Week's Series—Angels Split With Stars—Seals With Missions

Indians in Caravan
OAKLAND, April 15.—(AP)—Short of funds, the Seattle Indians were riding back to Seattle today in seven automobiles instead of Pullmans. The tribe started north immediately after finishing its series with Oakland. Simultaneously Manager Ray Brubaker of the Acons announced the release of pitchers Milt Steinfeld and Glenn Gabler, and infielder George Connors.

Games This Week, Starting Tuesday, Hollywood at Seattle. Missions at Portland. Los Angeles at Oakland. Sacramento at San Francisco.

(By the Associated Press.)

The scene shifts northward this week in the Pacific Coast league race, with Portland and Seattle in a tie for sixth place, offering the home town fans their first taste of league baseball this season.

The Indians will play host to the tall-end Hollywood Stars, who just completed a disastrous week with the league-leading Los Angeles Angels.

To Oakland went the pitching honors in yesterday's quartet of double-headers. The Oaks took both games from Seattle, 6 to 3 and 6 to 1.

The heavy bats of the Angels, bringing in three home-runs, gave them the opening game against the Stars, 11 to 5. With a three-run rally in the last inning, Hollywood came from behind to win the six-inning nightcap, 5 to 3.

Walter (The Great) Malls was accredited with hurling the Seals to an 11 to 5 victory over the Missions in their opening game, although he was relieved in the eighth inning by Chis Barnes. The Missions won the seven-inning closing contest, 4 to 3.

Sacramento defeated Portland, 6 to 3, in the morning game at Stockton, featured by the heavy hitting of Second Baseman Alex Kampouris, who rapped out a triple and a double to drive in two runs and score two more himself. Portland finally won the afternoon game at Sacramento, 6 to 5, after the game was tied in the ninth inning, again in the tenth, and was knotted at 5-all until the 15th.

The Standings:

Los Angeles	11	3	768
Missions	8	6	574
Oakland	8	6	571
Sacramento	8	6	574
San Francisco	7	7	500
Seattle	5	9	387
Portland	5	9	357
Hollywood	4	10	288

ROGUES WIN, 11-3, FROM KLAMATH IN OPENING TILT

The Medford Rogues gave the visiting Shaw Bertram team of Klamath Falls a 11 to 3 thrashing Sunday at the fairgrounds in the first game of the season played on the local diamond. The Klamathites collected three runs in the opening frame and it looked like a walk-away for the visitors but McLean, Medford hurler, settled down and held them helpless from that point on.

Williams and McLean gathered three hits each and Bill Courtney, first baseman, slugged out a homer for the Rogues. Manager Hal Haight hit safely twice despite an illness which had kept him in bed for two days.

There will be a meeting in Yreka Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing the proposed entrance of Yreka and Weed in the league. Bend also is reported as desirous of entering the league.

Score yesterday:

R. H. E.
Shaw Bertram	3 3 5
Medford	11 14 1

Umpires and Deering: McLean and Joy.

MINERS WIN, 20-7, FROM TALENT NINE

Talent Relief station's baseball team was defeated at Jacksonville Sunday 20 to 7 by the Jacksonville Miners. The game started out with eight runs in the first inning, with Single making a home run with the bases loaded.

Jack Hughes and Ben Coffman pitched for Jacksonville, and Swingle was catcher. For Talent, Kimble and Webster were pitchers and Ingle catcher.

Little Texas Girl Looms As Golf Links Prodigy

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—(AP)—Texas golf experts believe they have uncovered a real prodigy of the links in little Carolyn Brown of San Antonio. This 14-year-old lass, who still battles high school algebra and couldn't push the needle on any scale past the 100-pound mark, has them talking to themselves with her victory in the San Antonio women's municipal tournament and her consistent scores in the low 80s under pressure. Stacked into her five feet of golfing talent are 200-yard accurate tee shots, accurate irons and a sweet putting touch. And her temperament is regarded by Tod Menefee, Brackenridge Park professional, as the outstanding asset of her game.

"She has the ideal golf temperament, with plenty of fight," Menefee said "whether she is out in front or behind in a match." Menefee expressed the opinion Carolyn is certain to become an outstanding player in the state and probably the nation.

Two years ago Carolyn took up golf. The veteran pro, Willie Maguire of the Houston Country club, showed her the basic principles of the game. Now she wears the San Antonio women's municipal crown, scoring a 5 and 4 triumph over Mrs. J. Lee Wilson, city and state municipal title holder, in the finals.

Carolyn breezed through the meet with scores in the low eighties, although she had been around the course but twice before. Carolyn's first tournament campaign will come this summer. She plans to compete in the San Antonio city tourney, the Texas Women's Golf association meet at Dallas and the Southern women's championship at New Orleans.

Mrs. Peggy Chandler, former Texas women's champion and one of the greatest feminine shotmakers in the south, believes Carolyn "the finest prospect, without doubt, in the history of Texas women's golf."

TRAP TOURNAMENT ON DIAMOND JUBILEE SPORTS PROGRAM
Plata have been completed for Oregon's Diamond Jubilee trapshooting tournament, beginning June 3. Invitations to participate in the tourney have been extended to trapshooters in all parts of the state and the Pacific coast. Entries are now being received.

A Diamond trophy, valued at $500 will be awarded to the winner, while $100 in cash purses and many fine trophies will be awarded in the numerous events, a complete schedule of which will be announced in a few days.

The fifth annual Medford Mail Tribune tournament will be held in conjunction with the Diamond Jubilee tournament, with the Mail Tribune trophy again placed in competition at this shoot. Complete programs for the events are available from the Medford Gun club and the Medford chamber of commerce.

Progress has also been reported in the other sports meets during Jubilee week, including the tennis, golf and fly casting tourneys. More details will be announced in a few days.

MAYOR WILSON HOME FROM MASONIC TRIP

Mayor E. M. Wilson returned yesterday from an extensive trip through the state as deputy grand master of the Masonic lodge of Oregon. With Leslie M. Spool, grand master of Oregon, he motored from Portland to Eugene, over the McKenzie Pass to eastern Oregon and throughout that section before returning to Portland over the Columbia River highway.

Mr. Wilson also visited the Astoria lodge while on the official trip north.

MAJOR LEAGUES OPEN QUEST OF FLAGS TUESDAY

Senators and Red Sox Will Stage Preview in Washington Today—All Teams Filled With Optimism

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
(Associated Press Writer.)
NEW YORK, April 15.—(AP)—Sixteen major league clubs, all of them enveloped in a brand new aura of optimism, will give the 1934 baseball season its big sendoff tomorrow, following today's preview at Washington, which brings together the Senators and the Boston Red Sox.

On every side only cheerful words are heard about the year's prospects. Players of a dozen clubs say to look for them in the world series; less exuberant managers assert they will be at least close to the top; club owners already have their ears cocked to hear the turnstiles clicking at a mercurial rate, and it's a faint-hearted fan who won't claim the pennant, world championship and everything in sight for his favorite club.

Close Hairs Expected.
The pennant races in both leagues figure to be close. The swaps and purchases of the busy off-season bring a lot of new faces to attract the fans. The further strengthening of the Red Sox and the new deal at Cincinnati under the ownership of Powell Crosley, Jr., figure to bring better balance in the standings while the first Sunday baseball in Pennsylvania may help the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh clubs recoup their losses of recent years. National league magnates hope the new ball and increased slugging will attract more fans to their parks.

Five teams approach the season under new management. In the American league, Mickey Cochrane is expected to lift Detroit's Tigers into a contending position, and Bucky Harris guides the Red Sox. Casey Stengel of Brooklyn, Jimmy Wilson of Philadelphia and Bob O'Farrell of Cincinnati are the National league's new pilots.

Giants, Solons Favored.
The 1933 pennant winners, the New York Giants and Washington Senators, have been installed as pre-season favorites to repeat, but recently the New York Yankees have gained an even rating with the Senators in the American league betting odds, with Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit not far behind.

FAMOUS DEAN OF GOLF PROS DIES

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, April 15. (AP)—Andrew Kirkaldy, famous professional of the Royal and Ancient golf club of St. Andrews, died today. He was 74 years old.

Kirkaldy, known widely as the dean of professional golf, was ill only a fortnight.

A famous character throughout the golfing world, Kirkaldy in recent years confined his official duties to sitting in an arm chair on the 18th green.

He had planned to officiate at the coming Walker cup matches and America's youngest crop of amateurs, scheduled to arrive in Glasgow April 21, missed meeting him by only a few days.

HORSESHOE STARS HERE WEDNESDAY

Designated as the world's best exhibition horseshoe pitchers, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jackson will be here at the Medford Horseshoe club court in the city park Wednesday, April 18 at 2:30 p. m., according to announcement today.

Said to be the western state champions, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson tour throughout the country. Mr. Jackson was Iowa state champion for two years, and Illinois state champion for two years. His record is 81 ringers out of 100 shoes, 39 ringers out of 40 shoes pitched. He is the son of Frank E. Jackson, former world's champion.

Mrs. Jackson won fourth place in the world's tournament in Chicago Century of Progress, and won Western States championship for women at Long Beach in 1933, averaging 65 per cent ringers. She also pitched 75 ringers out of 100 shoes. Mrs. Jackson will play all challengers, men or women.

RECALL OF UNION COUNTY D. A. AIM

SALEM, April 15.—(AP)—Attempted recall of Carl G. Helm, district attorney of Union county, was officially started by the Union County Betterment league today when it filed its preliminary copy of the recall petition with the secretary of state.

The petition charged that Helm was not working for the best interests of the people; was derelict in his duties; let his personal matters interfere with the duties of his office, showed prejudice and preference and was "incompetent and negligent." It was signed by Roy Kurts of LaGrande, president of the league, and Harrison J. Anderson, secretary of Union.

Robinson at Station—City Police Officer T. H. Robinson, who underwent a minor operation last week, was able to be at the police station today.

RED LIONS WIN FROM S. VALLEY

The Gilmore Red Lions opened their 1934 baseball season Sunday with a 2 to 1 victory over Sams Valley. The contest came near being a no-hit, no-run game. Hamlin, shortstop for Sams Valley, beat out a bunt for their only hit, and an error paved the way for their only run.

The Lions scored on a succession of hits by Ward, Sakraida and Lewis, the latter getting a nice double, scoring with teammates ahead of him.

The Lions are open for all the baseball games they can get this season. Anyone wishing a game is asked to call 556-X.
