Marshall-Cox Wedding Lovely Spring Event

At a lovely spring wedding Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Marjorie Joy Marshall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern B. Marshall, and Delous W. Cox, son of John M. Cox of El Centro, Cal., were married at the Marshall home on South Holly, the Rev. Wm. J. Howell of the First Presbyterian church solemnizing the service in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the couple.

The ceremony was read on the veranda, which was converted into a fragrant spring garden, bordered with lattices of white spirea, which also formed a bower, under which the bride and groom stood. The white background was broken here and there by bouquets of roses, azaleas and other colored blossoms.

The bride, charming in a white frock of brocaded organdy, finished with flared flounce and bertha, worn over satin, carried a shower bouquet of roses, lilies of the valley and sweetpeas. She came down the stairway on the arm of her father, Vern B. Marshall, into the living room and on to the veranda, with little Teddy Joe Carter acting as flower girl and Miss Eva Carter as bridesmaid. The latter was attired in orchid organdy frock, worn over pink satin, and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The flower girl was dressed in dainty yellow organdy and carried an orchid basket filled with multi-colored flowers. Dr. James S. Johnson was best man for the groom.

Preceding the arrival of the wedding party, music was played by the Colvig orchestra of Weed, Cal., William Colvig at the piano, Claire Colvig at the violin and David Colvig at the flute. Miss Ellow Mae Wilson sang "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Harvey Amoss Moore. Then the wedding march was played by the orchestra for entrance of the bride and her attendants.

Guests were assembled on the veranda and in the rooms of the house, which were decorated in a profusion of spring blossoms. The advanced bloom of the spirea and other shrubs and plants on the lawn also added to the beauty of the setting.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Marshall home with Mrs. V. E. O'Neil, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Myron Root presiding at the tea table, which was covered with hand-made lace cloth and decorated in pastel tulips. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Flora Welch Carpenter, Mrs. Rawles Moore and Misses Geraldine Latham and Louise Osenbrugge.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Cox left for a few days' honeymoon. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Laura Drury.

Among guests from out of town for the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Denis Hanks of Canyonville, the Donald Colvig family of Weed, Ca., Mr. and Mrs. V. E. O'Neil of Klamath Falls and William Marshall of Ashland.

The groom's father, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. King of El Centro, were unable to be present because of illness.

Following their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Cox will be at home to their friends at the Fluhrer apartments. Mrs. Cox, a graduate of the Medford high school, and of Behnke Walker Business college in Portland, was much feted here before her marriage, being a popular member of the younger set.

"I SELL THEM GASOLINE BUT THEY SOLD ME Plymouth!"

A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH VERNON F. KRAUSE OF CHICAGO, ILL.

1. "I wanted a new low-priced car, but I wanted to be sure I got the best. So I decided to let my customers tell me how they liked 'All three.'"

"Talking with Drivers of 'All Three' Convinced me that Plymouth gives the Most for your Money"

WHEN VERNON KRAUSE decided to buy a new car, he didn't have to take any time off to "look at All Three." He stayed right where he was . . . in his service station . . . and the cars came to him.

"I just stayed right here," Krause says, "keeping my eyes open and listening to owners compare notes."

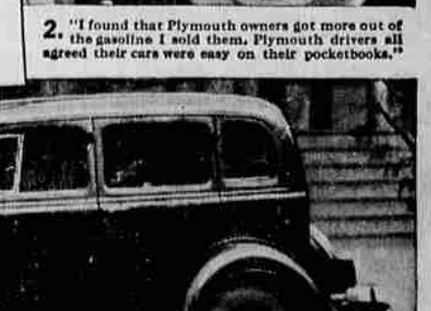
Plymouth won their vote in the low-price field . . . hands down. But there wasn't just one reason. There were all kinds of reasons.

Some of his customers said how pleased they were with Hydraulic Brakes. Others boasted of having Safety-Steel Bodies. Many of them mentioned the extra comfort they got from Floating Power engine mountings and Individual Wheel Springing.

"It all added up to the fact that Plymouth gave the most for the money," says Krause.

"The most for your money." Isn't that exactly what you want in a new car? Then Plymouth is the car for you. It's the only low-priced car with all four of the vital features you need.

Any Dodge, De Soto or Chrysler dealer demonstrates Plymouth.



2. "I found that Plymouth owners got more out of the gasoline I sold them. Plymouth drivers all agreed their cars were easy on their pocketbooks."

3. "I liked Plymouth's looks. But my customers showed me there was a lot more to Plymouth than that. They pointed out other features — like Individual Wheel Springing and Hydraulic Brakes."
