

FLOOD OF RELICS OFFERED FOR USE DIAMOND JUBILEE

Buggies, Wagons and Farm Implements of By-gone Days Will Form Interesting Exhibit for Visitors

A wealth of material for Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration pioneer parade next June has been located the past week by J. Verne Shangle, parade chairman, who with Ned Cully and John Hayes, committee members, spent several days in northern Jackson county and in Josephine county, contacting owners of old relics.

At Rock Point, through the courtesy of Mrs. Ben Hayman, they were given access to old store records dating back to 1858. Most of the entries were for calico, whiskey and syrup. Mrs. Hayman also has gold scales of the early 30's, a baby buggy 70 years old, and an old carriage.

Ferry Has Collection.

D. H. Ferry of Fools creek has in his possession a sorghum press of 1860. Of special interest is a wooden plow, using the same design as those used in Egypt centuries ago. Mr. Ferry also has a handmade wooden wagon and ox-yokes.

On the old Champlin ranch, Mr. Shangle and Mr. Cully located a Royal coach, the last word in buggies 40 years ago. An older wagon was located there as well as a station buggy.

Albert Mattie of Rogue River has grain cradles over 70 years old, a pitchfork made entirely of wood, an old-fashioned foot-operated vise, hand made copper bucket, hand hewn tables with wooden pins used for nails, old-time freight wagon, hand-made broom, candle molds and a butter churn made out of a cedar rail.

Lynch-Pin Wagon Offered.

K. K. Kubil of Missouri Flat has offered a cap and bell musket of 1858, and has numerous candle molds. Logan Woolridge of Missouri Flat has a lynch-pin wagon, using pins instead of nuts to hold the wheels to the axle. Mr. Logan also showed the Jubilee committeemen log chains which came across the plains, several old guns, and elk horns found in the 60's. A deck of cards over 100 years old was also located.

Mrs. Lellia Stevens yesterday offered the use of an old side-saddle now in possession of her grandmother. It will soon be placed on display at the Jubilee headquarters. F. W. Barker is bringing in baby clothes of 70 years ago. Fred Rice, pioneer stage driver, has already left an old stage-coach whip for display. He used this whip when driving between Oregon and California back in the 70's.

First Thresher Found.

Charles Terrell of Lake Creek has reported the location of the first thrashing machine in southern Oregon and one of the first cider presses. A. E. Powell of Central Point has also located considerable material, as well as John Hayes of Gold Hill.

Sheriff Ernest Lister of Grants Pass has offered the use of a stage coach his father used to drive between Crescent City and Grants Pass in days when the trail resembled a cow trail more than a means of transportation. Sheriff Lister also has other relics. Everett Beeson of Talent is donating a wagon which came across the plains in 1850 and one of the first to reach southern Oregon.

The cooperation of all citizens is sought by the parade committee in obtaining as much material as possible to make the parade one of the biggest ever attempted in the state.

CAPT. McMAHON GOING TO COMMAND SCHOOL AT FT. LEAVENWORTH

Captain B. B. McMahon, 7th Infantry, welfare officer at the Civilian Conservation corps district headquarters, today received word that he is to be ordered to the command and staff school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, beginning the first week in September.

Each year about 100 army officers, from all branches of the service, are chosen to attend the school for the two-year course. Selection to the command and staff school is considered a signal honor, for those completing the course are placed on the general staff eligibility list.

Captain McMahon in 1927 and 1928 was an instructor in the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga.

In charge of the advance cadre of Oregon men from Vancouver Barracks, Captain McMahon came to Medford last May to establish the first Civilian Conservation corps camp in this district. During the summer he was commanding officer at Camp Applegate and has since been on duty at Medford district headquarters.

SCHERMERHORN GETS ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE OPENING BRIEF

Thirty days' additional time has been granted Gordon L. Schermerhorn, former sheriff, under a three-year sentence for conviction of vote-stealing, by stipulation between counsel for the state and the defense, for filing the opening brief in an appeal to the state supreme court. April 20 was the original date set, and the new extension expires May 20.

Attorney John Collier of Portland, well-known in southern Oregon because of his acting as chief counsel for Hugh DeAutremont, in his trial for the Skiskiyou tunnel train robbery and murders in 1927, is now associated with Attorney F. J. Newman of this city in perfecting the Schermerhorn appeal. Attorney Collier's name appears as counsel on the stipulation for additional time, with Attorney Newman's of the defense. The attorney general's office was represented by Ralph E. Moody, now vastly improved from his long illness.

The appeal extension has no bearing upon the motion of the state, filed recently, seeking a dismissal of the Schermerhorn appeal upon the grounds that the bill of exceptions and transcript of testimony were not filed within the required length of time, and that the lower court has no jurisdiction to grant extensions of time.

Pentecost Renewal Is Only Hope Avers Evangelist McKay

"A renewal of Pentecost," declared

Evangelist McKay at the Free Methodist church last night, "is our only hope. We are not going to be saved by social or economic theories. Only the gospel of Jesus Christ, preached under the power of the Holy Ghost, can reach the need of this poor heartbroken age." was the belief expressed by the Illinois evangelist. "We need more than orthodoxy," declared the speaker. "Our messages must be uncluttered with divine power. Tonight McKay will deliver one of his outstanding sermons entitled: "Is Sanctification a Bible Doctrine?" Fanaticism and false theories will be exposed, he declares.
