AIR MAIL SUITS CALLED EFFORT AT LAW EVASION

Requa Letters Read
Chairman Black (D., Ala.) yesterday read the committee letters which said Requa, a close friend of former President Hoover, had volunteered his aid to the company in obtaining an opportunity to bid for an airmail contract.
Black today ready into the record more communications between officials of the Century Air Line referring to Requa's friendship with Hoover and his purported disagreement with Brown's air mail policy in 1931.
Requa, in reply, said he did assure Young he would do his best to obtain favorable consideration of the Century company.
Black questioned Requa at length about a conference of republican national committeemen and others prominent in the party in New York last week, which Requa said he attended.
Requa conceded frankly that the meeting was to discuss "how in hell
