

PRIMARY ELECTION BALLOT PRINTING STARTING IN WEEK

Official ballot for the primary election, May 18, is being prepared by the county clerk's office and will be submitted to the state printer for printing within the week. The ballot is checked and double-checked, and is passed upon by the district attorney's office before submission.

Notice of the election has been posted in most of the precincts of the county, as required by law.

Three ballots will be given the voters — one containing the names of state and county officers, one containing referendum measures to be voted upon, and one containing the names of candidates for circuit judge.

There will be 68 precincts in the county this year—12 new ones being created because of the Oregon law which requires that when a precinct shows more than 500 voters a new precinct be created. Nine of this number are in this city, two in Astoria and one at Brownsboro, from the Eagle Point precinct.

With an estimated registration between 13,500 and 14,000, it is expected that between 8,500 and 10,000 ballots will be cast at the primary. This will be due largely to interest in the School Relief Sales Tax. The average primary vote in this county is between 25 and 30 per cent. Apathy so far marks the voters' interest in candidates, for both state and county offices. The sales tax interest is greatest in the rural districts and among the women voters of Astoria and Medford. All the candidates are browsing around among the voters, but the political pot has not reached the boiling point.

KIND TO ANIMALS POSTERS PLANNED IN CITY'S SCHOOLS

In line with the local observance of Be Kind to Animals week, the art department of the Medford schools has devoted much time to the study of "Kindness to Animals" posters. This work has been carried on for the past two weeks under the leadership of Miss Louise Hollenback, art supervisor. Mrs. Sidney Richardson of the Humane society announced today.

A number of fine posters have grown out of the study and will be entered in the Latham Foundation for the Promotion of Humane Education contest through Oakland, Cal. One or two posters from the high school will be sent to the American Humane Institute.

A radio talk of particular interest to parents will be given from station KMED Friday morning at 11:45. The subject will be "Implanting Kindness in Children."

The humane creed, which has also been given much consideration this week, reads:

"I believe in a vital relationship between man and the animal world, and that the 'Golden Rule' has a definite application in dealing with dumb creatures."

"I believe that a sense of justice, mercy and sympathy for the suffering of any creature is fundamental in the excellence of human character and evidence of the divine quality in man."

"I believe that the finer conception of civilization recognizes man's responsibility to minister to the needs and happiness of the lower animals."

"I believe that common humanity should outlaw all deliberate cruelty and unnecessary abuse of the creatures."

Obituary

Mrs. Eliza Carley, late of Pine Street, passed away in a local hospital early Wednesday morning at the age of 80 years. Her illness was brief.

She was born in Wisconsin, November 12, 1853. Her early life was spent in Wisconsin and Minnesota, and in 1871 she was married to Franklin A. Carley, and eight years later moved to North Dakota where they were among the pioneer families who homesteaded that state. They resided there until coming to Medford in 1921, and Mr. Carley passed away in 1924.

Mrs. Carley was a member of the Congregational church at Jamestown, N. D. She leaves six children, R. E. Carley and Mrs. Hattie Campbell, Medford; Mrs. I. H. Porter, Los Angeles; Franklin H. Carley, Edmunds, N. D.; Mrs. Theo. Cumber, Montpelier, N. D.; and Mrs. L. B. Howey, Singapore, Straits Settlements.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Wm. J. Howell at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m. Friday. Interment in Medford I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting. Thousands of sufferers from itching, bleeding or protruding piles have learned that quick and lasting relief can be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves nor cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts lifeless. To end Piles an internal medicine should be used to stimulate the circulation, heal and restore the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonard was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for hundreds of patients with a marvelous record of success and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID tablets from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

So they waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Jarmin's Woods' also McNair Bros of Astoria say "No matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID tablets must show you the safe clean way to get rid of your Pile misery or money-back."

RURAL SCHOOLS OF COUNTY END TERMS WITHIN FEW WEEKS

The first of the rural schools will end their terms Friday, April 27, according to the county school superintendent's office. They are the Ruch school with 20 pupils, and an eight-month term, and Willow Springs with 45 pupils, and an eight and one-quarter month term. Both terms are short on account of restricted district finances.

The Anderson creek school is scheduled to close next week also.

The Antioch, Pankey and Shady Cove schools are scheduled to close Friday, May 4.

The Central Point and Mt. Pitt schools will close Friday, May 11.

Rural schools listed to end Friday, May 18, are:

Derby, Sterling, Meadows, Sams Valley, Antelope, Lake Creek, Long Mountain, Provolt, Griffen Creek, Nell Creek, Eagle Point, Applegate, Table Rock, Trail, Reese Creek Crater Lake, North Trail, Gold Hill, Little Butte Creek, Laurelhurst, Oak Grove, Elk Creek, Liberty, Beaver Creek, Little Applegate, Alderbrook, Pinehurst, West Side and Howard.

May 25 school closings are: Jacksonville, Phoenix, Lone Pine, Independence, Forrest Creek, Wagner Creek, Prospect, Bellview and Fern Valley.

The Watkins school will close May 28, and Thompson Creek May 30.

CHARLES E. BROUS DIES, REESE CREEK

Charles Edwin Brous, a resident of the Reese Creek district for 10 years, passed away at his home early Thursday morning at the age of 74.

Mr. and Mrs. Brous came to Oregon from Idaho and settled at their present place.

Besides his wife, Mary Brous, he is survived by two brothers and two sisters, who reside in Kansas and Missouri.

Funeral services will be held from the Conger Funeral Parlor Saturday at 2 p. m., with Rev. John Stille of Trail in charge. Interment will be made in the Central Point cemetery.

GIRL BABY BREAKS WATSONS' BOY JINX

The stork yesterday, April 18, brought a baby girl to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Watson. Mother and daughter are doing fine and the entire Watson family rejoices. It is the first girl in the family in a decade. Boys have heretofore predominated in the Watson family.

J. F. Watson, the grandfather, was smiling the broadest. It was his first granddaughter. He has five grandsons, the sons of Dan Watson, Lee E. (Dub) Watson, and J. V. Watson, who has two boys. Mrs. Lucile Bentley of Astoria, the daughter of the family, also has a boy.

SUCCESSFUL DIRECTOR FOR 14 STAR PICTURE

That a successful director must have a Hollywood complex if he is to continue to direct successful pictures is an interesting point raised by George Cukor, who went from stage direction to films. He directed the 15-year hit "Unconquered" now at the Studio, and the most difficult directorial job in years.
