Preview Film For Craterian Saturday

An unusual picture, "Heat Lightning," has been chosen for the extra feature at the Craterian theater preview Saturday night. Those attending the 9 o'clock show are invited to remain for the preview at no extra charge.

An all-star cast is headed by Aline McMahon in the role of a former dance hall girl, who breaks away from her old life and the man who dominated her to run a filling station far from the haunts of men. Ann Dvorak has the role of her younger sister. Preston Foster has the leading masculine role, that of a dashing villain, who fascinates and despoils women just as he flaunts the world of men. His henchman is Lyle Talbot, a dub crook, who lines up in the comedy quartet with Glenda Farrell and Ruth Donnelly, two Reno divorcees out for the fun they can find, and Frank McHugh, their chauffeur, over whose love they are constantly bickering.

In Double Bill

Ralph Bellamy once again has the role of Inspector Trent and is called upon to solve a murder mystery in "One Is Guilty," on the Rialto theater's double feature program for today and Saturday.

'LITTLE WOMEN' COMING TO STUDIO

"Dinner at Eight" with 14 great stars and showing the emotional experience of a heterogeneous group of people, who are brought together at a dramatic dinner party, is playing at the Studio tonight and Saturday.

UNUSUAL WESTERN AT ROXY SATURDAY

Stepping out of his conventional talent as a comedian, Rex Bell comes to the screen of the Roxy theater Saturday in "Crashing Broadway," uproarious story of the trials and tribulations of a theatrical troupe which is stranded in a small western town when the opera house burns down.

Sylvia Sidney In Role Sunday Film Craterian Screen

Those two dramatic screen stars, Sylvia Sidney and Fredric March, who gave such good accounts of themselves in "Merrily We Go to Hell," are together again. This time it's entitled "Good Dame." It comes on Sunday to the Craterian theater. Using a colorful background, the romance of a "good" girl and a "bad" boy was written by William Lipman, Broadway playwright and for years a star columnist on the New York Herald-Tribune.
