Elks' May Day Dance Attracts Much Interest

The Elks' May Day dance, announced for Saturday night, April 28, promises to be the large social event of the week, marking a close of activities for the month.

The dance is being held to celebrate the refinancing of the lodge bonds and will also mark the reception into the lodge of some forty odd members and better than twenty new applicants.

Robert Strang and his committee are making elaborate preparations for a large crowd and have promised excellent music and entertainment.

Mr. Strang requests all Elks who desire guest cards to get in touch with him at The Bootery or to call at the Elks temple.

Ramstroms Entertain With Barn Dance A gala event of Saturday night for folk from Medford, Central Point, Klamath Falls, McCloud and Hill was the barn dance given by members of the H. Ramstrom family at their country home, "Green Acres," near Central Point.

The large barn loft, with an especially good floor for dancing, was decorated in an abundance of fragrant greens and music for dancing was played until a late hour.

Midnight supper was served in the house, buffet style, to about 75 guests.

The gay cotton costumes worn by the feminine guests, and the colorful country creations in which a number of the men were attired, added much to the occasion.

Medford Folk Enjoy Showing of "Nana" A number of Medford folk motored to Ashland yesterday to view the showing there of "Nana," anxiously awaited film, starring Anna Sten.

Along with the picture, in connection with the matinee, were blighted by the spring rain, the visitors to the Lithia city were loud in their praise of the film and the actress, new to the American public.

Her acting, one described as "unusually fine, and her diction very beautiful, in a class with George Arliss."

Among those attending from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Misses Alta Lindsey and Irvy Pennell.

Stenetta's of Crescent City Sunday Guests Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stennett and sons, Clyde and Robert, were visitors here Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Stennett's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Watkins.

They spent Sunday evening with Mr. Stennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stennett of Phoenix, before returning to the coast, where Mr. Stennett is employed at the Crescent City postoffice.

Altar Society Party Plans Progressing Members of St. Ann's altar society are busy today with plans for the benefit bridge party to be held at parish hall Wednesday evening, which will be a public event.

Playing will begin at 8 o'clock and all persons who enjoy an evening of cards are promised a very pleasant time. The large committee named for the affair is headed by Mrs. Corum.

Mrs. Hess Hostess To Club at Home Mrs. Georgia Hess was hostess at her home, 224 Vancouver avenue, last week to members of the Past Noble Grand club. Mrs. Oliver Rodgers was in charge of the social hour.

Plans were made by the group for a cooked food sale during the Oregon Diamond Jubilee.

Mrs. Carrie McDannels, who resides on Beatty street, will be hostess to the club at its next meeting.

Mrs. Passon, Hostess To Veterans' Auxiliary Mrs. Leola Passon of Central Point will be hostess to Colonel Sargent Auxiliary, Wednesday, April 25, it was announced today.

All members are urged to be present and to bring needles and thimbles, as there will be sewing to do. Those wishing transportation are asked to call Mrs. A. R. Clement.

GROCCERS INSPECT MODEL STORE AT SUNDAY MEETING

Retail grocers from Josephine, Jackson and Klamath counties attended a meeting at 412 Main street here Sunday afternoon for the purpose of having explained to them the plan of the Independent Grocers' Alliance of America, known as I. G.

Lee Jacobs manager of Mason, Ehrman & company's offices and warehouse at Klamath Falls, attended the meeting with his entire sales and office force.

S. A. Gibbs, manager of the Medford house was host to the entire delegation while in Medford.

At the meeting Sunday, the assembled grocers were given a full explanation of the purpose of the alliance by J. D. Buchart in a talk which lasted two hours.

A large number of the grocers who attended the meeting signed working agreements with the local distributors and will operate their business under the new plan as soon as it is possible to redecorate and remodel their stores.

The model store will be kept in operation for the next three weeks and will be opened at all times to the grocers of the community and later to the consuming public, but there will be no merchandise for sale.

For those merchants unable to attend the meeting Sunday, additional meetings will be held Tuesday, April 24, at 7:30 P. M., and Sunday, April 29, at 1:30 o'clock P. M., and all independent retail grocers are invited to attend.

SOUTH FORK CCC HAS 30 GUESTS

Thirty guests were yesterday entertained at Camp South Fork of the Rogue River, a number being in attendance from Medford, according to Captain Harry E. Cooper, commander of the camp, who is in Medford today.

Dinner, prepared by Stewart Harry Nichols and Cooks Thomas and Hayes, was served at tables decorated with spring flowers.

Included among the guests at camp was M. J. Bowen, special inspector representing Robert Rechner, director of the Civilian Conservation corps.

Mr. Bowen, who is spending several days at South Fork, gave a short speech.

First Lieutenant Raymond J. Hore, district chaplain, was also a guest Sunday.

More Booze. WASHINGTON, April 23.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today signed two amendments to the distilled spirits rectifying industry code, making it possible for rectifiers to bottle straight whiskey without paying the 30 cents gallonage tax and forbidding rectifiers to buy bootleg liquor.

BACK SORE and LAME?

Mrs. Elma Cornfield of 227 S. E. Clay St., Portland, Ore., said: "My kidneys were not functioning right, disturbed my rest at night. I had a pain in the small of my back and mornings my back would be lame and sore. I would get dizzy spells too. Dr. Pierce's A-uric Tablets regulated my kidneys and relieved me of the dizzy spells and the pain in my back. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial pkg. 'It's Do Our Part!'"
