TEXAS BAD MAN AGAIN BEHIND PRISON BARS

SHERMAN, TEXAS, April 26.—(AP)—Raymond Hamilton, Texas bad man, was behind prison bars again today, his three months "vacation" at an end.

The erstwhile pal of Clyde Barrow, public enemy No. 1 of the southwest, ran right into the arms of the law yesterday when a party of officers halted his car as he sped away with $1,000 he had scooped up in a small town bank two hours before.

In Mystery Drama

With Robert Montgomery in the role of Revel, a gentleman crook, "Mystery of Mr. X" plays at the Craterian theater tomorrow and Saturday. Also in the cast are Elizabeth Allan, Lewis Stone and Ralph Forbes.

The story concerns an English nobleman, who returns from a convalescing trip to find London up in arms over the mysterious murders of policemen at the hands of a field signing himself as "X" in articles sent to newspapers.

The murders are perpetrated at the same time the famous Drayton diamond is stolen by Revel, who plans to add quietly in the capture of "X," plant the diamond on his body, and claim the insurance reward. So, while the unseen continues his cold-blooded murders, Revel plots to trap him and with thrills, gasps and intrigue, the picture rushes on to a startling climax.

In Rialto Film

Tim McCoy and Billie Seward have leading roles in "Voice in the Night," a Rialto theater's double feature program for Friday and Saturday.

"The Ninth Guest," featuring Donald Cook and Genevieve Tobin, will be on the same program.

ROXY IS SHOWING FIRST RUN COMEDY

Light comedy, love and laughter, is the theme of "Easy Millions," first run film now playing at the Roxy theater.

The old adage that it takes a dozen lies to cover one was never brought home with greater truth than in "Easy Millions." "Skeets" Gallagher tells one little lie and brings on himself enough trouble for several people, if only does he lose his job, his girl, an inheritance, to find himself engaged to two others that he doesn't want, but he never seems to be able to tell the truth, try as he will!

The cast includes Myrna Kennedy, Johnny Arthur, Dorothy Burgess, Bert Roach and Noah Beery.

SLAYING OF HORAN UNPREMEDITATED IS WINDUP CLAIM

witnesses were unable to establish conclusively the time and number of shots allegedly coming from the Manning office in the Underwood building. The state has said the shots came in volleys spaced at an interval of about 15 minutes. The defense declared they came in volleys one directly after the other.

The assertion that Manning was intoxicated the evening young Horan came to his office was bitterly assailed. Roberts referred back to the defense witnesses who said they met and talked to the defendant only a short time before the killing. Each said he was not intoxicated nor could they detect that he had been drinking.

Duel Story Upheld. Roberts upheld Manning's own story of the death duel in the private office just at dusk. The defendant said Horan, in an ugly mood, grabbed a gun from an open desk and fired twice while Manning took cover.

Manning said he was successful in gaining a second weapon from the same drawer and, returning the fire, Horan was shot through the arm and heart.

The trial was a battle of attorneys. Both the defendant and Horan were prominent lawyers in Klamath Falls. Manning has been noted through Oregon for his work as a defense counsel and Horan was among the most active members of the lower house. Roberts gained fame as a prosecutor in the D'Auntreum case, and Gillenwaters, in his first term as district attorney, has been connected with a number of important trials in southern Oregon.

The court room was crowded as the final arguments continued. The words of the attorneys were broadcast through the streets by radio and groups of citizens clustered on corners, discussing the sensational features of the trial.

The entire community was tense with expectation as the jurors—not one of whom is not a friend or acquaintance of either the defendant or victim—prepared for their deliberations.

Mrs. Jennings was formerly Jackson county clerk and Mr. Jennings was formerly sheriff here.

Joe at Studio

Joe Brown, in "Son of a Sailor," opened at the Studio theater today. As the title indicates, this is a picture of naval life. Joe has the role of an over-imaginative sailor whose vanity and boastfulness lead him into more scrapes than you can shake a stick at.

CCC YOUTH HELD IN ATTEMPT TO COMMIT ROBBERY

employed with Von der Hellen's construction crew near Eagle Point. State police, who made the arrest, assisted by the Medford city officers, said that Hood and Ross, who were both nursing numerous cuts, bruises and black eyes today, told them they started back to Eagle Point in a milk truck they were driving, leaving Medford about ten o'clock.

When they got to the edge of the city limits, Plater, who they claimed was hiding in the back end of the truck, held them up with what they thought was a gun, and ordered them to drive to the top of Buckhorn hill.

There, the two charge, Plater beat them quite badly, and although Hood escaped, Ross asserts he was robbed of $12 or $13, and was then ordered by Plater to ride in the truck with him back to Medford. Hood, in the meantime walked to the Crater Lake highway, got a ride into Medford and notified city and state officers.

Ross told police that Plater forced him to ride around town until about 12:30, during which time they wrecked an automobile which Plater struck. When the milk truck ran out of gasoline, Plater made five attempts at stealing some. Unsuccessful, Ross was released and Plater returned to the fairgrounds, where he was arrested this morning.

Police found the milk truck on King street, where it had been abandoned, without gasoline.

Plater, state police said, gave his age as 23. Records at CCC headquarters show that he was born April 4, 1915, and joined Company 1642, CCC, at Jefferson Barracks, May 28, 1933.

Police said Plater expressed surprise at his arrest, saying that if he had been back in Illinois, he would never have been caught.

BREMERTON MAN KILLED BECAUSE KNEW TOO MUCH

last Saturday, and obviously attempted to avoid recognition. More than a score of them visited the offices of the department of justice last Saturday and conferred there with George West, who had been left in charge of the office by McKean.

The money reported recovered is part of that which Dr. John "Jasie" Condon, acting as an intermediary in the Lindbergh kidnaping, tossed over a wall to a masked man in a Brooklyn, N. Y., cemetery upon the promise of an early and safe return of the child.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—(AP)—The department of justice said today reports that large quantities of Lindbergh money had been found in New England were "without any foundation whatever."

Earlier, Attorney General Cummings told reporters at his press conference that there was no concentration of federal agents in Vermont.

LEGION PLANNING AERIAL ROUNDUP

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(UP)—Planes from all sections of the United States, carrying American Legion membership dues and cards, will converge on the veterans' national headquarters here May 1 in the finale of the organization's second annual aerial roundup.

Four major routes from the most distant points of the country will be flown by commercial planes, picking up cards en route, according to H. L. Plummer, assistant national adjutant in charge of membership of the organization.

Other cards will be brought in by national guard and privately owned planes making separate trips sponsored by state departments, Plummer said.

The major routes include a plane leaving Portland, Ore., through Boise, Idaho; Salt Lake City, Utah; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Omaha, Neb., and Des Moines, Iowa, to Indianapolis. After an aerial circus at the central airport, officers of the Legion will entertain leaders in aviation circles at a banquet.

Arrival of the planes has been timed to precede the meeting of the national executive committee of the Legion here May 3 and 4.

STRIKING MINERS ARE SCATTERED IN TEARS

ELLENBURG, Wash., April 26.—(AP) Refusing to obey orders of the state highway patrol, several hundred men, women and children picketers in the Roslyn-Cle Elum coal fields were scattered over the hills like a horde of jackrabbits today by tear gas bombs.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes three good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
