BEAUMONT, Texas.—(UP)—"Daddy's gone a-hunting," explained a 13-year-old farmer boy and his 15-year-old slater when federal agents found them operating a whiskey still.

The children said their father had left them in charge while he went in search of rabbits. The agents, who seized the still, 50 gallons of mash and 55 gallons of whiskey, said the boy and girl were the youngest still operators they had ever arrested.

Both children and their father were charged with manufacturing liquor without a license.
