

FLOODS BRING DEATHS, HEAVY PROPERTY LOSSES

Many persons died and property damage was estimated at nearly $1,000,000 as a result of floods which swept areas of Minnesota, Oklahoma, Wisconsin and other states. Above is shown how the usually peaceful Kinnickinnic river at River Falls, Wis., rose to tear away railroad tracks and ties from a bridge, and below is a scene of raging waters in the business district of Chippewa Falls, Wis. (Associated Press Photos)

MRS. INSULL AT HUSBAND'S BOAT

This Associated Press picture shows Mrs. Samuel Insull as she walked from the pier at Athens after visiting her fugitive husband for a short time when the tramp steamer Malotis was called to Greece temporarily—just after Insull's original attempt to escape that country

For New World's Fair Art Exhibition

Athlete Turned Painter Is Featured in Art Show. The "Crucifixion," shown above, and "The Execution of Edith Cavell," both by the late George Bellows, will be two of the principal exhibits in the Art Institute during the new Century of Progress Exposition which opens May 26. The painter, after starring at short stop for Ohio State university, spurned professional baseball offers and turned his genius to oils and canvas. Bellows gained wide recognition for his paintings of American life and scenes.

FIFI LOSES BATTLE WITH LAW

Sobs, screams, and a barrage of flying coat-hangers and cold cream jars greeted a deputy sheriff in Cleveland when he sought to serve a writ of attachment on Fifi D'Orsay, film actress. Here is Fifi in her dressing room after the battle. The deputy holds her fur coat. (Associated Press Photo)

Johnny Lyman, husky Stanford shotputter, bettered two freak world's marks in the 24 pound and eight pound weight events in the Stanford-California at Los Angeles track meet held at Stanford. He tossed the 24-pound pellet 40 feet, seven and three-quarter inches and the eight pound shot 70 feet, seven and three-quarter inches. He is the holder of the IC4A 16-pound shot record. (Associated Press Photo)

CONVICTS SEEK FREEDOM IN TUBERCULOSIS TEST

Eager for a chance to gain a pardon or commutation of sentence, several convicts at the Colorado state penitentiary are to be selected to undergo tests for a tuberculosis preventive serum. These seven are among the 25 from whom 12 will be picked. Left to right, seated: Joseph Thigpen, convicted of murder; Lee Kelton, murder; Lloyd White, murder; Carl Erickson, murder. Standing: J. Levi Axtell, murder; Grant Sparks, rape; Raymond Gray, murder. (Associated Press Photo)

PRODUCER'S SON SUED BY WIFE

William T. Ince, son of the late Thomas H. Ince, pioneer motion picture producer, and his attractive 19-year-old actress wife, Ada, shown in a Los Angeles courtroom where her separate maintenance action was withdrawn and it was announced an amended complaint for divorce would be filed later. (Associated Press Photo)

CAPTURES CHERISHED PRIZE

Boyd Clifton, a 4-H member from the Salvation Army home in Lytton, Cal., won the grand championship in the baby beef division at the junior livestock and baby beef show in South San Francisco. Edna McCann (right) of Farmington was a winner of a championship for a pen of barrows. (Associated Press Photo)

FIRST FAMILY GETS PASSES TO BASEBALL GAMES

Jimmy Griffith, one of the adopted twin sons of Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, is shown presenting President Roosevelt with a pass to baseball games played at the capital. Clark Griffith is standing between Jimmy and Billy Griffith, who took along a pass for Mrs. Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

NEW JERSEY HAILS EINSTEIN

Dr. Albert Einstein was guest of honor at a brilliant reception and concert in the armory at Newark, N. J. A crowd estimated at 8,000 persons attended. The eminent scientist, an exile from his German fatherland, is continuing his researches at Princeton university. Left to right: Dr. and Mrs. Einstein, Mayor Meyer C. Ellenstein of Newark and Gov. A. Harry Moore of New Jersey. (Associated Press Photo)

Hopes to Repeat

Oscar Eckhardt, San Francisco Missions outfielder, expects to be the Pacific Coast League's batting leader again this season. He has held the place for three years. (Associated Press Photo)

TRIO CONQUERS CATHEDRAL SPIRES

Hanging dizzily from ropes, three members of the Sierra Club ascend to the top of Cathedral Spires (right), rising 2150 feet above the floor of Yosemite Valley. The first men to reach its top were (upper, left to right) Bestor Robinson and Richard M. Lenard of Oakland, Cal., and Jules Eichorn of San Francisco.

GIANT OCEAN AIRLINER READY FOR TESTS SOON

This 32-passenger land and sea plane is rapidly nearing completion at the factory at Stratford, Conn., and initial tests are expected to be made within a month. It will be America's first ocean-going passenger and mail plane and will be capable of carrying 1,000 pounds of mail and a crew of five. It is planned to put it in the Caribbean service and possibly over a coastal route unless foreign competition makes a change necessary. (Associated Press Photo)