Medford will blast open the Oregon-California League schedule here this afternoon at the Jackson county fair grounds when they meet the Grants Pass Merchants...

Starting off with Tommy Culbertson, manager of the Medford airport, zooming over the playing field to drop from his plane the first baseball to be pitched...

Picking up the ball which will fall from Culbertson's plane will be Mayor Wilson...

On the field two snappy, well drilled and well dressed ball teams will fight it out.

Grants Pass, managed by Ken Williams, will present practically the same team that for two years has made every semi-pro team in the state look sick.

It is a team composed of a majority of youngsters but with a liberal sprinkling of veterans to hold the club together in the pinches.

On the mound, Ken Williams will start either Nelson or Earhart. Nelson is the big right-hander with the booming fast ball...

For several years, Ogle has caught for Grants Pass and was always pretty fair. But this year, at the command of Ken Williams...

Against that team, which already holds one league victory over them, Hal Haight will throw his great Indian pitcher, Cliff "Chier" McLean...

It has speed, color, hitting power and fielding that is seldom seen in bush circles.

The opening pitch is scheduled for 2:30 p. m.

New Uniforms Delayed Medford's new uniforms, purchased from the Seattle baseball club...

Medford will be strengthened considerably by the acquisition of Jack Hughes, who will be stationed in right field...

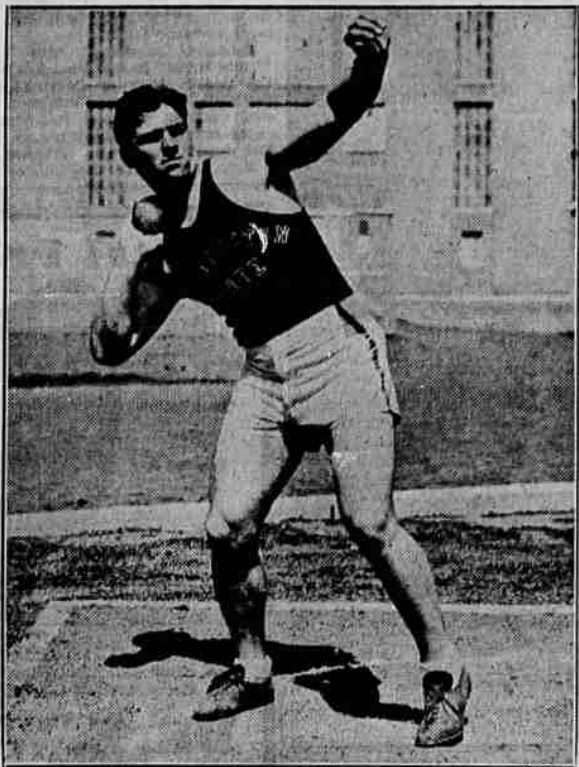

Paul "Hooster" Hoffard will cavort in center field and his big bat will try to roar its utmost at the plate.

Ed Joanna, the speedy lead-off man, will play in left.

It will be a bitterly fought game. Each team holds a victory over the other. A month ago, behind the brilliant hurling of McLean...

Medford, if victorious, will go into a tie with the Merchants in the league standings.
