Fairbanks Romance Will Flower Again Is Belief O'Donnell Here on Visit

By Eva Nealon Hamilton The Mary Pickford-Douglas Fairbanks romance will be all patched up when Doug gets through playing around. For Mary will welcome him home again. That's her nature—at least so one of her old-time pals, Spec O'Donnell, here for his first glimpse of Oregon as guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stambaugh and Mrs. Louise Rodgers, has summed up the situation. And the red-headed youth, whose freckles played more than a prominent part with America's sweetheart in "Annie Rooney" and "Sparrows," doesn't hesitate to make his prediction, and to add that there is none better than Mary Pickford, back home in Hollywood (failing to exclude from

Williams Creek

WILLIAMS CREEK, April 30.—(Spl.)—Declaratory contest held at the Williams grange hall between the three high schools of Josephine county—Hugo, Herlin and Williams—was won by Hugo. After the contest a social hour was spent in dancing. Ira Sparlin, who underwent a second major operation recently at the Grants Pass hospital, is improving nicely and expects to come home soon. Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bunch have received 250 baby chicks from the Wilson hatchery and Mr. and Mrs. G. Cronson the same number of baby white leghorns from Lester Sparlin's hatchery. Dick Gibson family has returned from a month's visit with relatives at Spokane. Mr. Gibson's nephew accompanied them home. John Letticken visited last week with his brother, Will Letticken at Independence, Ore., who has been very ill. He found his brother much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Kincaid and son, Douglas, Shirey, who have been living in Grants Pass, have moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turvey. Mr. Kincaid will work for Jack Carver this summer. Miss Jean Cronson is ill with the measles. Clive Davidson and family have moved into one of H. A. Coughle's houses. Mr. and Mrs. Charley McKinnon of Crescent City are visiting at the Bert Banks home. Miss Mabel Woolfolk of Grants Pass spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. John Letticken while Mr. Letticken was away. Miss Edna Whelan, who underwent an operation recently at the Grants Pass hospital for appendicitis, returned home Friday. Farmers are rejoicing over the rain of about an inch which fell in the valley last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Newcomb were dinner guests at the Louis Carson home near Murphy Sunday, the occasion being Mr. Carson's birthday. George Kradel who has been in the hospital at Salem from a clot on the brain, returned home last week much improved. Ernie Gibson has installed a saw dual blower in his mill, which does away with hauling of the refuse. Guy Cronson has been given the contract for furnishing the wood for the Williams school next year. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abernethy of Bandon, Ore., visited his brother, Hank Abernethy of Provoit a few days last week.
