

Local and Personal

On Business Trip—Porter J. Neff, local attorney, left today for Portland last night on a business trip.

To Sacramento—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Graves left for Sacramento by train last night.

From St. Helena—Mrs. E. Temby, an invalid, arrived here this morning on the Shasta. She will stay with friends while in Medford.

Arrives from Portland—Ernest S. Farrell of Eugene, traveling traffic agent of the Union Pacific system, arrived on the train this morning from Portland.

From Medford—Mrs. Vella Hayes, manager of the Cinderella shop in Medford, was a business visitor here Tuesday.—Grants Pass Courier.

Return to Winston—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd, who spent the past two days in Medford, left Tuesday for their home in Winston, Ore.

Goes to Klamath Falls—Mrs. Nellie Wall left this morning for Klamath Falls, where she will be guest for several days of Mrs. Fern Lundquist.

Illness Continues—Harvey Rucker is reported as making slight progress in recovery from illness which has confined him to his home, 523 South Central avenue, for some time.

Dallaire Is Guest—Victor Dallaire is here this week from Central Point, where he is visiting his parents and a number of friends. He spent last night as guest of Bob Colvig.

From Central Point—Wilbur Yazel, Thomas Elliott and Casper Miller were in this city from Central Point yesterday.

Business in Ashland—E. M. Gray, deputy collector of internal revenue, left this morning for Ashland, where he will spend the day on business.

Visitor from Glendale—Mrs. O. P. Harvey of Glendale, Cal., has been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Harvey of this city, leaving for her home this morning.

Guests of Ferguson—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Getter of Long Beach, Cal., are the guests in Medford of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ferguson. They are en route to Bellingham, Wash. Mr. Ferguson is Mr. and Mrs. Getter's nephew.

Railway Agent Here—J. T. Wallace of Portland, traveling agent for the Chicago Northwestern railway, arrived in Medford this morning from Portland.

Here Friday

Patching Crew Moved—Having completed work on the highways near Medford, the state patching crew supervised by Ivan Dakin was moved Monday to Roseburg, according to J. G. Bromley, resident maintenance engineer.—Grants Pass Courier.

Art League to Meet—Medford Art League will meet at the Business college at 2 p. m. Thursday, May 10, for their usual session and art study. All persons interested in art are invited to meet with the group, and to please bring all work for the exhibit. The time has been changed from May 12 to May 10.

Airmail on Schedule—The airmail sent through on schedule here last night after a delay of 24 hours, which was made in order to make possible a simultaneous start of all coast lines. As Medford is no longer a division point, the planes go straight through, with no pilots stationed here permanently.

Antique Silverware Displayed—A knife and fork used on a picnic dinner during George Washington's inauguration was placed on display recently at the Diamond Jubilee headquarters in the Sparta building. Marshall Shell, who made the contribution to the exhibit, also contributed a "baby shoe" that was made in 1820.

Inspects Timber Area—H. Robert Mansfield arrived late last night from the Pelican Bay Lumber company cut-over area, where he had spent several days studying the reproduction of timber and reporting on present timber resources. Mansfield, assisted by R. Munter, encountered rough weather on the trip, reporting a two-inch snowfall.

Girls' Community Club—All girls interested in beauty culture are invited to the meeting of the Girls' Community club to be held this evening at the Emma Cline shop at 7:30 o'clock, at which time Mrs. Vera Mereson will address the group on care of skin, hair and hands. The lecture is one of a series, arranged through Mrs. Edith Patton's course for the girls.

Warren Williams In Rialto Drama Exceptional fine acting, and the remarkable method in which the story has been transferred to the screen, make "Upper World," at the Rialto theater until tomorrow night, above the ordinary in entertainment. The unusually strong cast is headed by Warren Williams, who gives a dignified and convincing portrayal of the millionaire whose philandering caused two deaths and led him to the shadow of the electric chair.

Mary Astor is superb as the cold wife, and flaming-haired Ginger Rogers does noteworthy work in the role of the worldly wise, but quaintly sincere chorus girl. Little Dickie Moore, the famous child actor, is splendid in the part of the spoiled child of wealthy parents.
