Two Features at Rialto

"So You Won't Sing, Eh?"

Mrs. Prevost Returns—Mrs. Josephine Prevost, who has been spending the past week in San Francisco, has returned to Medford.

Tuttles Go South—Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Tuttle are spending a week in California on a business and pleasure trip.

Permit Given—A re-shingle permit was filed at the city hall yesterday by Edwin Pettel. The cost of the repairs was listed at $150.

Visits Friends—Lee Casey of this city arrived on the train this morning from Portland, where he has been visiting friends.

From Salem Hospital—L. Scott of the state hospital at Salem arrived in Medford this morning and returned on the Shasta.

Scherer to Portland—Paul Scherer, president of the Southern Oregon Sales Corporation, left by train this morning for Portland.

Called from Eugene—Junior Porter, student at the University of Oregon, was called home by the illness of his sister, who resides in Grants Pass.

Taylor in Klamath—P. W. Taylor of Taylor and Bierma, is in Klamath Falls, transacting business with L. A. Kimble, who is in charge of their store in Klamath Falls.

On Extended Visit—George Jones, first aid man for the Applegate CCC camp, left this morning by train for Portland, where he plans to make an extended visit.

Braults Return—Mr. and Mrs. Jean Brault and daughter Charmaine returned today on the Shasta from San Francisco and bay points, where they have been spending the past two weeks, on business and pleasure.

Attends Lumber Meeting—W. C. Ruegnitz of Portland, president of the 41. Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, was in this city attending the regular monthly meeting of the Owen-Oregon Lumber Sales Co., held in the K. P. hall last night.

Locates in Medford—C. C. Bailey of Portland, known in the typewriter business as "Skipper" Bailey, has joined Taylor and Bierma, Underwood typewriter agency, to assist in handling service work in the local agency. Mr. Bailey has had several years experience and will be a valuable addition to the firm, J. R. Bierma said yesterday.

Desire Jubilee Pennants—Local motorists having two or more Oregon Diamond Jubilee pennants on their cars are asked by the general committee to bring extra flags back to headquarters office where they will be given to motorists who as yet have had no flags. The same request hold true for boys who obtained the pennants for their bicycles. They are desired for use on automobiles.

Tribune Receives Flowers—A beautiful basket of columbine, coral bells and roses was presented to the Mail Tribune and staff today by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, 604 Pine street, in commemoration of the paper winning the Pulitzer prize for 1933. The spray bouquet, exquisite in color and fragrance, was displayed in the office and attracted enthusiastic comments from all who saw it. The card on the basket read as follows: "Accept our congratulations on winning the Pulitzer prize and our sincere gratitude for the service you have given Medford."

With Jack Holt playing the role of a big-time gambler, "Whirlpool," his latest starring picture, plays at the Rialto theatre today and Saturday, Donald Cook, Jean Arthur.

Imagine, if you can, Zasu Pitts as a big-shot gangster, that he spite a mammy singer in a cheap vaudeville circuit whose rendition of a the top show. Nat plaintive "blues number" so affects Pendleton is the gangster chief, with Ned Sparks as his henchman and Pert Kelton as the jealous girl friend, Edward Everett Horton is the producer who is driven wild by the gangland methods in putting on a show—a procedure of sticking the blunt end of an automatic into one's ribs when they refuse to sing. The title of this riotous farce is "Sing and Like It," taken from the smash stage show, "So You Won't Sing, Eh?" It plays at the Craterian theatre today and Saturday.
