Grange Concert At Jacksonville Well Attended, Report

Much praise for the Jacksonville Grange chorus has been given by those who attended the concert on Wednesday evening. The variety of numbers presented by the chorus and the solo numbers given by Miss Roxanna Frye, soloist; John Knight, violinist; and Joe Nee, baritone, afforded a great deal of pleasure to the many listeners as well as a fitting climax to the year's work of the chorus.

A year ago, May 10, a small group of Jacksonville Grange musicians interested in this phase of musical artistry met to organize a Grange chorus. The chorus now includes 30 voices, and presented two full evening concerts besides appearing on programs throughout the county.

Much credit is due May Jordan MacDonagh, director, who has given much inspiration and time to the development of the chorus so that the members have had a great deal of enjoyment and pleasure from the association. The chorus deems it an honor to have been invited to participate in the union choir now being organized by Elsie Carleton Strang to appear the opening night of the Oregon Diamond Jubilee, and will begin work promptly on the numbers selected. The chorus will also give a group of numbers on the program arranged for Jacksonville day.

Mothers of Men

Mothers of Men, to-day we salute you
And humbly before you we pledge you our love
On earth and in heaven, ye Mothers now hear us,
And accept our proffers both here and above.

Mothers of Men, has there ever been hero
Among the creation of God's mighty hands;
Who near you could stand and say, I'm an equal,
In the strife and the stress of this battle-scarred land?

Mothers of Men, to you has been given
An honor untold by tongue or by pen;
For next to the army of God's consecrated
March valiantly on the Mothers of Men.

Mothers of Men, if the army moves onward,
If the heart and the word bring solace renowned,
If the wisdom of Ages brings light to the righted,
Then, Mothers of Men, to you goes the crown.

Mothers of Men, the world has seen progress
Since first from the hand of the Maker it came
The sons and the daughters of earth's first transgression,
Find smoother the path, and the rough ways more plain.

Mothers of Men, to you must be given
The palm and the glory of the good there has been;
For earth since creation has never yet boasted
Of heroes so valiant as Mothers of Men.
