In Stage Show

The Lonesome Cowboy, star of the famous International Radio station, on the border between Texas and Mexico, heads a cast of radio favorites in "Buckle Sage Riders," who will be seen in person on the stage of the Craterian theatre tomorrow and Wednesday.

Known throughout the country as one of the leading acts on radio and stage today, The Lonesome Cowboy is just one of many featured performers in the show. Outstanding Hollywood stars who took leading parts with the Arizona Wranglers, the Beverly Hill Billies and Hollywood Hill Billies, are also in the same unit.

Along with these stars, Texas Tommy and his wonder horse of screen fame, "Baby Doll," a pony that can count, underdlands every word that is said to her and also performs unbelievable feats, also have important spots in the show.

The entire production is a brand new one and comes to Medford direct from Hollywood, and has added another attraction in Johnnie Judd, world's champion trick roper.

A complete screen program will also be shown at no increase in price, with "All Men Are Enemies," as the feature picture.

"Dark Hazard" At Rialto Tomorrow

Edw. G. Robinson, "Dark Hazard," a novel and colorful picture, starring Edward G. Robinson as an inveterate gambler and follower of dog races, comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow.

Based on the novel of W. R. Burnett, author of "Little Caesar," in which Robinson won his first screen fame, deals with a man whose passion for gambling is so strong that he gives up love and home and practices everything in life considered worth while, because of it.

The title of the picture is taken from the name of the racing dog, "Dark Hazard," owned by Robinson in the story. Thrilling dog races and the typical racetrack crowds were filmed at a popular California track.

The dog, "Dark Hazard," in the title role, has an important part in the picture, not only as a racing dog, but as the only one of contention between Robinson and his wife, Genevieve Tobin, Robinson's leading lady, playing the part of the gambler's disillusioned wife. Glenda Farrell is the other woman in the east include Robert Barrat, Gordon Westcott and Henry B. Walthall.

The Joe E. Brown picture, "A Very Honorable Guy," closes at the Rialto tonight.

FRENCHMAN TACKLES BELCASTRO THURSDAY

Walter Sirles, French muscle promoter, has been nominated by Manager Mack Lillard for the main event work in Thursday night's armory night's dynamic Italian. Belcastro has been great in recent matches, especially during a honeymoon trip through Mexico.

Roland Warren, Kinnath Copco engineer and Jimmy Martin will tangle in a 45-minute semi-final and Swede Anderson, Medford fireman, and Bill Newman of Denver will be seen in the 30-minute event.

SWANSON'S HOMER BRINGS 13-11 WIN FOR ROGUE TEAM

Coming from behind in the eighth inning to score six runs and take the lead for the first time, Medford defeated the Euwana Box Co. team from Klamath Falls 13-11 at Jacksonville yesterday in a wild-eyed slugfest which saw six triples, two doubles and a home run sail from the bats of the bingle-mad players.

Swanson Homers for Win. Virgil Swanson drove the winning runs in the eighth with a towering home run into left field with two aboard.

By their win, the Rogues retained the top spot in the Southern Oregon league but until their big inning, they were tottering precariously.

Cliff McLean, Medford hurler, was decidedly off form, being touched for nine hits and as many runs before relieved by Jack Hughes with one out in the fourth.

Four for Euwana in First. Euwana started right in on McLean in the first frame, scoring four times. They added another in the second.

Medford picked up two in the second on a hit by pitcher, a walk and Joy's towering triple to right; two more in the third on a pair of errors and Smith's single, and two in the fourth on an error, walk and Courtney's three-bagger to center.

Hughes Relieves McLean. Hughes relieved McLean in the fourth, Euwana scored four runs and drove McLean from the box.

Hughes took over the Rogue pitching duties at that point and retired the side with one more run in. Final Euwana counter came in the sixth.

Six in Big Eighth. In the sixth, Smith scored for Medford on a fielder's choice, stipen base and Bernadou's error.

Haight began the eighth by doubling to left. Williams tripled to center.

er scoring Haight and counted himself on Joy's infield hit. McLean reached first when Blansa dropped the third strike, Joy scored on a Courtney walk and Joy scored on a wild pitch.

Swanson then blasted his homer scoring McLean and Courtney ahead of him with the winning runs.

Euwana Outfit Medford 12-9. Joy, Medford catcher, had a perfect day at bat with three hits in three trips to the plate.

Courtney came up with two glittering fielding plays on bad throws. Carstrom struck out ten Medford hitters but received ragged support.

The largest crowd to witness a game at Jacksonville in years was on hand.

Medford Gilmore Lyons defeated the Jacksonville Miners 6-1 in the five-inning first game. Merrit, on the mound for Gilmore, allowed one hit while his team mates collected five off Heas.
