

GRAPPLER PETE ADDS SKILL ON MEXICAN JAUNT

If Pete Belcastro, belligerent mat-man from Sacramento, can keep up his recent good work long enough to defeat Walter Sirios, the French exponent of the art, in the main event of Thursday's mat card at the armory, there will be a general migration of local wrestlers to Mexico to find out what they have done there that is good for the muscles.

Pete has just returned from a honeymoon tour of the land of cactus, and has been going great guns both down and there and in Medford since his return. He handed Paul Murdoch, beefy Oklahoman, two falls last Thursday to take the match and demonstrate why he went to Mexico, and if he does the same to the Frenchman, then there's something to his southern tour that he's been keeping from us.

Sirios is known to be able to take care of himself in the ring and should be an equal match for the Italian, but some think Promoter Mack Lillard will have to look farther than France.

Roland Warren, agile grappling engineer from Klamath Falls, will meet Bunny Martin, speedy Oklahoman, in a 45-minute semi-final, which should be a match full of speed and trying, but not necessarily rabbit fur, as the Oklahoman himself hefts a nice biceps.

In the 30-minute opener, Swede Anderson, Medford fire fighter, will tangle with Billie Newman of Denver. Anderson has been trying to get a bout for three weeks, and is full of high spirits for his encounter with Newman, the man from Colorado.

That's what Tommy Loughran (right) told Max Baer when the latter arrived in New York to establish training quarters for his approaching bout with Primo Carnera. Max seems to enjoy the account of Loughran's recent Miami battle with the champion. (Associated Press Photo)

INDIAN DEATHLOCK HUMBLER BULLDOG

PORTLAND, May 15.—(AP)—The Indian deathlock applied by Mickey McIntire, 137, West Salem, willed Bulldog Jackson, 150, Portland, into submission for two out of three falls in their wrestling match here last night. Jackson hammerlocked a fall.

A gory draw resulted between Noel Franklin, 150, Portland, and Robin Reed, 137, Reedport, who divided a pair of falls while Franklin's nose dripped claret.

LOCAL COMPANIES WIN HIGH RATING

A "very satisfactory" federal rating, as the result of the 1934 army inspections, has been received by Company A, 185th Infantry, commanded by Captain Carl Y. Tengwald, and also by Headquarters company, Third battalion, commanded by Lieutenant James W. Grigsby.

Both companies will leave here June 11 for Camp Clatsop, where they will remain for two weeks training.

IN CLASH WITH HUEY LONG

FORCED TO CLIP HER BLUE EAGLE

Ruth Brannon, 28, candidate for congress in the eleventh Illinois district, is shown clipping the Blue Eagle insignia from her campaign poster after she was warned by NRA authorities that such use of the insignia was contrary to NRA regulations.
