

BILL WARNER IN PLEA FOR VOTES FOR JUDGE DAY

To the People of Jackson Co.: I have known Earl Day, Republican candidate for re-election as county judge of Jackson county, subject to the primaries to be held tomorrow, for a long time.

I have observed his work during the two terms he was a member of the state legislature. While in the legislature he was highly respected by other members of that body. He was active in behalf of every measure that was for the welfare and betterment of Jackson county and the state of Oregon.

Since his appointment as county judge of Jackson county, I have had close contact and personal observation of his conduct of this office. I do not hesitate to state that he is a good business man who has, with other members of the county court, placed Jackson county on a sound financial and economic basis. In his handling of probate matters, which brings him in close contact with our homes and children, I find him with a sympathetic understanding of their various problems.

Earl Day has made good as judge of Jackson county and when an official is filling his position in a satisfactory way, good business sense demands his continuation in office. The people of Jackson county and their interests will be best served by his nomination. I bespeak for him your support in the primaries tomorrow.

Medford, May 17.

MOTT PRAISED BY REPUBLICAN WHIP

Praise for the ability and efforts of James W. Mott, congressman from the first Oregon district, who is seeking re-nomination on the Republican ticket in tomorrow's primary, is contained in the following excerpt from a letter written by Harry L. Englebright, Republican Whip:

"Your outstanding work on behalf of your district, and fine ability that you have demonstrated in the field of national legislation, have won for you the confidence and respect, not only of your own party, but of the general membership of the house of representatives."

TRACE GRAVES OF CIVIL WAR VETS

The Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War have, through the courtesy of L. O. Howard, sexton, secured what they believe to be a complete list of the graves of civil war veterans in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Medford.

The list has been placed in the Chamber of Commerce and the patriotic organization urges anyone having veteran relatives or friends buried in the cemetery, consult the list and if grave is not on it, leave name and location of grave so that no grave of a Civil War veteran may be without a flag on decoration day.

Many Critics Praise Jane Thacher, Pianist.

Jane Thacher, head of the department of piano of the University of Oregon school of music, will appear at the Baldwin Piano shop on West Main street tomorrow evening.

Acknowledged one of the best pianists on the coast, Mrs. Thacher will play her first concert for the Medford public.

Her work for many years has been acclaimed outstanding, as the following excerpts from criticism show:

"Mrs. Thacher, already held in the highest esteem as an artistic genius, more than surpassed herself, and with a superb assurance delivered a message replete with beauty and vitality."

"The performance (that of the Grieg concerto) demanding as it does the maximum of pianistic skill, was in every sense admirable, and Mrs. Thacher revealed a mastery of the piano and a potency of interpretation that was hardly expected, even by the most enthusiastic of her admirers."

"Her numbers were played with fine ability and gave complete evidence of her gift as a concert pianist. She has sure touch, brilliancy of execution and profound ability in interpretation. She has a fine platform appearance and grace in manner."

"The performance of the Grieg concerto made musical history. In it she finds opportunity to exhibit the excellence of technique, the power of interpretation, the skilled musicianship, which, as a result of her inherent ability, enhanced by long training under Leschetizky, she has acquired."

Parent-Teacher Council Installs New Officers

The Medford Council of Parents and Teachers held its last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Allen Smith on West Fourth street Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Arthur Short, president, in charge.

Mrs. Volney Dixon, chairman of the Diamond Jubilee committee on arrangements for the exhibition of antique furniture and historical relics by the P.-T. council, announced that she had secured the new Baldwin piano shop as a place for the display which will be held each day of jubilee week. On June 4 the wedding gown revue will be given by request of many who saw it at the Colonial club in March. Mrs. Dixon has also arranged for a display of interesting old quilts on the afternoon of June 5.

Mrs. Allen Smith, chairman of the summer recreation committee, announced that plans, while as yet incomplete, were working toward definite results for summer time activities for the children of Medford. Details will be given at a later date.

Jackson and Washington schools reported the plans are taking shape for the bringing together this summer of pre-school children who will enter these schools in the fall. This will mean a check on health for remedial defects, that they may be corrected.

The council voted to pay the expenses of a worthy Girl Scout at the summer camp to be held at Lake of the Woods in June.

Members of the council voiced their appreciation of the Symphony hour radio program sponsored by the Standard Oil Co. as one of the better types of program that are desired over the air.

Several cars were offered by the representatives of junior high, Jackson and Washington schools for use on election day for those in need of transportation to the polls. The cars will be available by calling the office of the city superintendent, 811.

The new officers elected for next year were: Mrs. Carl Bennett, president; Mrs. Jack Swem, vice-president; Mrs. E. H. Thomas, secretary; Mrs. J. H. McKenzie, treasurer, and Mrs. Arthur Short, historian. The officers were installed by Mrs. Jack Heyland, who used the beautiful and impressive Parent-Teacher installation service.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. Short spoke appreciation for the faithful service and co-operation of all members of the council in making the past year a most successful one in parent-teacher work. She then presented each of her officers with a beautiful corsage and the chairmen of committees with dainty French nosegays. On behalf of Mrs. Short's loyalty and service to the P.-T. organizations of Medford the council members presented her with a beautiful potted hydrangea.
